Federal Officers Are on His Trail.

REV. NORMAN PLASS, HEAD OF BIG COMPANY, SEIZED IN BOSTON.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—Federal authorities visited the office of the Redeemable Investment Company, at No. 85 Devonshire street today, and came away with Manager Charles H. Brook, the books of the company, and several thousand dollars in cash, all taken under a warrant charging the company with the use of the mails in a scheme to defraud.

Officers tonight were hunting for Rev. Norman Plass, president of the company, who has the alleged endorsement as an individual of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger, the late Associate Justice Brewer of the United States Supreme Court, Senator Curtis of Kansas, and several local Congregational ministers.

The Redeemable Investment Company was organized three years ago as a holding company, with a capital of $10,000,000. The company controls the Santo Domingo Mining Company, which is said to own 85 per cent. of the mines of Jalisso, Santo Domingo, and a ranch of 70,000 acres in the same country; the Norman Plass Lumber Company, which claims to own 356,000,000 feet of timber in British Columbia; the Boston and Canada Wheat Land Company, having 20,000 acres of land in Canada, and the Okanogan Development Company of Washington.

Rev. Mr. Plass, president of the company, is a graduate of Williams College and the Yale Divinity School. He became president of the Washburn College, Topeka, in 1902, and resigned two years ago.

The literature of the company contains the following alleged copy of a letter from Secretary Ballinger:

"I have known Mr. Norman Plass for many years as a gentleman of high character and integrity. He possesses a high degree of energy and ability in anything he undertakes. He is worthy of confidence and respect, and has had experience in the West in the investigation of timber lands. I am sure he would not knowingly present any matter untruthfully or unfairly in business connection. (Signed) Richard A. Ballinger, Secretary of the Interior."

The manager, Charles H. Brooks, according to the Federal officials, was arrested in St. Louis six years ago, tried and convicted in connection with the land frauds of the Rialto Investment company of St. Louis, and sentenced to eighteen months in jail, but was pardoned by President Roosevelt, on the ground he had furnished valuable evidence for the government in the trial of Senator Burton.

The officers of the Redeemable Investment Company, are: President, Norman Plass, Boston; vice-presidents, J. Austin Parasch, Worcester; George A. Vleauvuit, New York; William A. Bryan, New York; secretary, George B. Graff, Boston; treasurer, J. L. Traphagen, Boston.

The directors include the above, with Charles I. Brooks of Boston, manager; Harry W. Davis, Wilmington, Del., W. E. Hathaway, New Bedford, Mass., and A. H. Hasentine, Montclaire, N. J.

Manager Brooks was arraigned late today before United States Commissioner Hayes and later released on giving $3000 bond.

Rev. Norman Plass left Boston two weeks ago to go to Vancouver Island to investigate timber lands in which he is interested, according to a statement made by Mrs. Plass tonight.

GIRL IN CONVENT BETRAYED BY FATHER, SHE DECLARES.

Ceremony Performed Without Her Knowledge or Nun's Who Stood Near Her—Bride Behind Lattice Couldn't See Groom—Father, Husband and Justice Arrested.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A remarkable tale of a marriage performed in the House of the Good Shepherd with the lattice work of the cloister intervening between the two parties and without the knowledge of the bride or a nun who stood near her, startled even the most blase attaches of the criminal court today.

After a hearing of part of the evidence Judge Marcus Kavanaugh brought matters to a sharp climax by issuing warrants for the arrest of the alleged husband, the father of the girl and the justice of the peace who performed the ceremony, on a charge of conspiring to do an illegal act injurious to the administration of justice.

The justice of the peace involved is Alfred F. Tompkins of Oak Park, who is the son of a retired Methodist minister of Evanston. He insisted he had acted in the matter innocently and in good faith, although admitting he had been fooled and had been negligent. Tompkins was released until tomorrow morning on a temporary bond of $2000. The other two defendants were put in jail.

The matter arose in the morning when Charles La Coppola, an Italian fruit dealer, was arraigned for trial for a serious assault upon Angelina Matteo, committed June 29 in the rear of his fruit store at Western avenue and School street. He pleaded in defense that he was married to the girl.

"Did anyone tell you that you were married?" asked the judge of the bride.

"No."

"Would you like to marry him?"

"Well, my folks thought this way about it: they thought if I married him I would be released from the school."

DEVELOPMENT CHECKED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Recent developments in the Lost Hills controversy include the receipt of dispatches to the effect that all government land in townships 25-21, 26-21 and 26-20 have been withdrawn from entry, the announcement that the Southern Pacific will build a branch railroad into the new field from the McKittrick branch west of Button Willow, and the beginning of the survey for a new town on section 3, 27-21.

The government's withdrawal will put a damper on some strenuous contests goinb on over certain Lost Hills land. Locators have been giving withdrawn land the go-by, but many rigs are being rushed to sections hitherto unwithdrawn, and some furious drilling races were scheduled between rival locators. The order fairly snatches the ground from beneath these locators feet. The announcement that the Southern Pacific will build a railroad to the Lost Hills comes through high officials of the Associated. The latter company has invested, it is said, $3,500,000 in Lost Hills. It will develop section 14, 26-20, preparatory to giving the property a thorough test. General Superintendent Bruce expects to reach oil in 900 feet.

The Lake Shore well in section 30 26-21, has been equipped with a new pump and it filled a five gallon can in eight seconds yesterday.

NEW STEAMERS TO PLY IN INTER-CITY TRADE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] From the day when it was first announced that the palatial turbine steamers Harvard and Yale were to be taken off the Boston-New York run and sent to this coast, speculation as to how and where they would be used here has been rife.

Your correspondent is able to state on excellent authority that the Harvard and the Yale will be placed on the run between San Francisco and Los Angeles by a strong combination of interests in which the Western Pacific is dominate and that they will furnish the Western Pacific with a connecting link to Southern California, from which territory it has hitherto been excluded by the refusal of both the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe to enter into an agreement with the Gould line for an interchange of traffic business. Later, similar steamers will be placed on the run from San Francisco to Portland and Puget Sound cities.

Daily sailings will be made between San Francisco and Los Angeles by the Harvard and the Yale. The hour of sailing will be five o'clock in the afternoon and they will land their passengers at the other end of the run by nine o'clock the following morning.

The plan, as undertood, is for the boats to be operated by the North Pacific Steamship Company, of which Charles P. Doe is the manager and which is now operating less expensive steamers on the coast.

The Harvard and the Yale will both carry first and second cabin passengers. Their first and second cabin appointments are as perfect as those of the Fall River boats on Long Island Sound. In addition to a social hall, dining-room, main saloon and galleries, there are forty parlors and bathrooms on each steamer and 275 other staterooms all on the upper two decks.

This move on the part of the Western Pacific comes as a result of the refusal of the Southern Pacific to make a traffic agreement under which the new road could sell tickets to and from the southern part of the State.

TO VISIT PANAMA.

President Will Sail Next Month.

SUDDEN CHANGE IN PLANS IS MADE AFTER TALK WITH COL. GOETHALS.

PROSPECT OF COAL MONOPOLY ALARMS ENGINEER; OPENING DATE SET.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BEVERLY (Mass.) Oct. 13.—President Taft will sail for the Isthmus of Panama, on November 10, from Charleston, S. C., on the cruiser North Carolina, convoyed by her sister ship, the Montana.

He will be gone about twelve days. The cruisers can make the journey in each direction in four days.

The President had practically given up all idea of visiting the canal this year, until Col. Goethals, chief engineer, visited him this afternoon, and convinced him the problems confronting the officials of Panama require his presence.

SOME PROBLEMS.

Some of the problems to be dealt with in the immediate future are:

The extent and character of the fortifications; the fixing of tolls; a proposed increase in wages; the future management of the Panama Railroad; the form of permanent government of the Canal Zone, and the regulation of the sale of coal.

The government may go into the business of selling coal itself in order to prevent the possibility of extortion or a monopoly.

The question of tolls was explained by Col. Goethals to be one of the most pressing for Congress to meet.

An international meeting of steamship owners and shipping interests is to be held in Berlin in the summer of 1911. It is believed to be highly important that Congress should have fixed the rates of toll by that time. The canal must be made to attract shipping and at the same time an effort will be made to have the toll charges meet the interest on the $400,000,000 investment which the canal will represent.

DATE SET FOR OPENING.

The date for opening the Panama canal has been set for January 11, 1915. President Taft and Col. Goethals believe it will be completed and open long before that time.

From shipping interests, especially in the Pacific, inquiries are coming in as to the estimated rates of tolls. One line which now has its freight transferred across Mexico by rail, will use the canal if the rates of toll make the cost of shipping less. It will be for Congress to determine whether the canal zone shall have a military or civil form of government. The present authorities on the Isthmus are strong in their recommendations for the former.

Col. Goethals reported the higher classes of workmen are asking for increases in pay in keeping with increases recently granted their fellow artisans in the United States.

The question of regulating the sale of coal on the Isthmus is an interesting one. Col. Goethals believes, it is said, that if private interests are allowed to build pockets opportunity will be opened for extortion and monopoly in supplying ships with fuel.

ONE AMERICAN REMAINS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—As the result of matches in the third round of the women's national golf championship at Homewood, today, only one American, Miss Lillian M. Hyde of New York, was left in the running.

Other players who qualified for the semi-finals tomorrow were Miss Dorothy Campbell and Florence Harvey, both of Hamilton, Ont., and Mrs. G. M. Martin of Laylstock, England. The draw brings together the two Canadian women in the semi-finals tomorrow, while Miss Hyde meets Mrs. Martin.

There were no surprises in the matches today. Miss Dorothy Campbell had little trouble with Mrs. R. H. Barlow of Philadelphia, defeating her 4 up and 3 to play.

In the international match, in which Miss Vida Llewellyn of La Grange, former Western champion, met Miss Lillian Hyde, metropolitan champion, Miss Hyde was returned victorious, 3 up and 1 to play. Miss Florence Harvey defeated Miss Ruth Laymen of Chicago, 5 up and 3 to play. Mrs. Martin defeated Miss E. C. Nesbitt of Woodstock, Ont., 7 up and 5 to play.

SENTIMENT REACTS AGAINST THE "MARTYR."

Plea of Wisconsin Outlaw Who Likens Self to Moyer et al. Causes Revulsion of Public Opinion---Darrow Too High, Socialist Hires Cheaper Defense.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHIPPEWA FALLS (Wis.) Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The help which was so freely promised to John F. Dietz, the outlaw of Cameron Dam, who is in jail at Hayward, Wis., if he would surrender peaceably, has been slow in coming to him now that he has been captured. There seems to be a revulsion of public opinion since Dietz accepted the generous concessions offered by the Governor and more especially has this change been noted since the outlaw likened his case to that of Hayward and Moyer who were tried for the murder of Gov. Steunenberg of Idaho. Dietz requested Mayor Siedel of Milwaukee, to secure the services of Clarence Darrow, the Chicago lawyer who defended the Idaho miners. Not enough money could be raised, however, to get the Chicago attorney to take the case and a Milwaukee lawyer has been retained.

BESIEGED SIX YEARS.

Dietz and his family had been besieged in their home on Thornapple River, in the Wisconsin wilderness, for six years. During that period there have been numerous pitched battles between the Dietzes and deputy Sheriffs, three Sheriffs have resigned their jobs rather than attempt to serve papers on the "outlaw" and Dietz's children have all become experts with the rifle.

The trouble all grew out of an agreement Dietz had with the Chippewa Lumber and Boom Company. He holds title to an eighty acre tract of timber land. On his tract is located the Cameron Dam, on the Thornapple River. The Chippewa Lumber Company transferred its lumber interests to The Mississippi Logging Company, an Iowa corporation. Dietz refused to give up the dam. Furthermore, he insisted that the Iowa company pay him ten cents a thousand feet for all lumber that passed over it. The lumber company refused to pay the toll and made several attempts to seize the dam by force. Dietz resisted them all and succeeded, finally, in driving the invaders away.

The logging people then went into the courts and secured an order directing Dietz to give up the dam. Dietz paid no attention to the order. The court turned the matter over to the local Sheriff and the latter, with a posse, attempted to arrest Dietz. A fight followed, in which the posse was badly whipped and several persons were wounded.

MANY MEN ARE SHOT.

This thing was repeated again and again. Many more men were shot, and some of the Dietzes were wounded. Then the Sheriffs gave up trying to enforce the orders of the courts, several resigned, and one served a term in jail for contempt.

For more than a year, up to a few weeks ago, Dietz had been left in peace. Meanwhile, thousands of dollars worth of logs were rotting in the pool above his dam. It seemed to be a settled thing that Dietz was to be left in undisputed possession of the property. There was some vague talk about calling out the militia, but public sentiment was against it. Gov. Davidson refused to be a party to the controversy. He took the stand that the settlement of the trouble was up to the local officials.

Another interesting feature of the controversy is the connection therewith of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Wisconsin. Dietz is a Mason in good standing. The officers and owners of the Chippewa Falls Lumber and Boom Company are likewise Masons. The settler offered to permit the Masonic Grand Lodge to arbitrate the difficulty. An attempt was made in accordance with this offer but through a misunderstanding the attempt failed and the Grand Master withdrew from the controversy.

SUMMARY.

ARREST OF LEADERS LULLS BIG STRIKE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PARIS, Oct. 13.—The arrest of some of the most prominent strike leaders and the failure of the large majority of the employers of the Eastern Railroad, the Paris Lyons and Mediterranean, and the Paris-Orleans road to respond to the strike order have had the effect of dampening the spirits of the strikers who now number about 100,000.

Many of those who have been called to the colors have responded, but as yet they have not been ordered to do service of the railroads. The subway employees who last night voted to strike remained at their posts today.

Tonight, however, the strike declared by the electricians is partially effective. About half the city of Paris, including sections of the boulevards, is without electric light and many electric cars are stranded.

Communications with points from which food supplies are brought will be kept open at any cost.

SEDITION CHARGES.

The arrested leaders were charged with having provoked seditious meetings and taken the lead in violence and the destruction of property.

DUVEEN BROTHERS, DEALERS IN ART OBJECTS IN NEW YORK, ARE ARRESTED.

ACCUSED OF CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD NATION OUT OF CUSTOMS DUES.

FEDERAL ATTORNEY SAYS OVER MILLION LOST AND SIX ARE IMPLICATED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The entire Fifth Avenue establishment of the Duveen Brothers, known the world over as dealers in rare art objects and antiquities, was seized by Federal officers today.

Henry J. and Benjamin J. Duveen, two of the firm, were placed under arrest charged with conspiracy to defraud the government out of custom dues. All four brothers and an uncle, who make up the firm, are implicated.

Henry A. Wise, United States District Attorney, in asking for extraordinary heavy bail, $100,000, in the case of Benjamin Duveen, said he had evidence that the frauds would reach more than $1,000,000 and that all five brothers were implicated, as well as another man.

Bail was finally fixed at $50,000 which was given.

ARRESTED ON LINER.

Henry J. Duveen was arrested on the liner Lusitania when the vessel reached quarantine late tonight. He was taken off on a revenue cutter and hurried to the Federal building for arraignment.

A search for under-valued articles began and more than a van-load of "suspicious" goods was found. It was then decided to place the entire establishment under surveillance and leave the customs inspectors in charge for the night.

When Benjamin Duveen was taken before United States Commissioner Shields District Attorney Wise said the case was the most important the government had had thus far to deal with in connection with importation frauds. He said information was recently placed in his possession tending to show that the Duveens for years had been defrauding the government out of customs duties on imported works of art and antique furniture by means of false consular invoices.

THREE VASES ARE TRAP.

The records at the customs house were hurriedly overhauled and seemed to substantiate the charges. Mr. Wise declined to give out the name of his informant tonight.

Mr. Wise said that while the complaint was based on the illegal entry of three vases, the government was in possession of information tending to show many fraudulent importations. He added that the consular invoice gave the value of the three vases as $1107, while their real value was $28,000.

The firm of Duveen Brothers is composed of Henry J., Joel J., Louis J., Benjamin J. and Joseph J. Duveen. They have establishments in New York, London and Paris.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The office of an afternoon newspaper here was swamped today by men seeking the hand of a German girl who advertised that she would pay $200 in cash for a husband. She declared that marriage was essential to obtain an inheritance and the husband could marry in haste and secure a divorce at his leisure.

The German girl, who concealed her identity under the fictitious cognomen of Miss Eugenie Adams, did not wait to learn the result of her appeal for a makeshift husband, but took the next train for Philadelphia. Her whereabouts in that quiet place have not been discovered.

Meantime letters poured in by the score and those seeking personal interviews appeared by the dozen, but Miss Adams could not be produced. Neither had she left a deposit of $200 to bind the bargain.

In addition there were a few hundred telephone messages and quite a batch of telegrams. All inquired for the German maiden who seeks an American husband just because an eccentric uncle left her a fortune, which can not be claimed unless she marries. The willing ones are of all sizes, ages and conditions, ranging from seasoned widowers to love-lorn youths who have never voted

PLAN CHANGES IN TERRITORY.

ALASKAN SCANDALS ENGAGE ADMINISTRATION.

MR. TAFT CONFERS WITH HIS CABINET MEMBERS.

GOVERNMENT MAY BE TURNED INTO NEW HANDS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a preliminary to smoothing out the irritating Alaskan situation and solving a problem complicated by scandals and charges of corruption, the scheme of removing the Territory's affairs entirely from the Department of the Interior and of concentrating the government under the direction of the Department of Commerce and Labor, is being discussed in administration circles.

The discussion has followed the return to Washington of Attorney General Wickersham and Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, from a summer tour of inspection in the great empire.

As the legislative bill-drawing expert of the administration, Mr. Wickersham is expected to confer with committees of Congress relative to obtaining reorganization legislation for Alaska at the coming session.

Informal conferences on the situation have already taken place between President Taft and the members of his cabinet who have been making a personal investigation "on the spot," and later the Attorney General and the Secretary of Commerce and Labor will present formal reports and suggest details for the use of the executive in making recommendations to Congress.

Popular approval is regarded as an essential, under the circumstances, in laying plans for the reorganization of the territorial government. The administration's reorganization measure had to be abandoned at the last session of Congress because of the opposition that developed in the Senate to the commission plan of government urged by the President even before the bill was placed on the calendar.

There would be no more chance for a commission bill this coming winter than there was before, so that the administration, feeling the necessity of securing relief from existing conditions, is put to other expedients.

Aside from the commission plan of government, to which the objection of strong "insurgent" influences has been that it would lead to even greater exploitation and looting of the territory's resources by corporations than has been possible in the past two schemes have been pointed out as possible.

One is to divide the great Alaskan empire into two or three territories, each with a separate government; the other is to concentrate the present government under the direction of a single department and give the Governor greater power than he now has, so that he could suspend general laws or modify them to meet the needs of sections having diverse interests.

The new rules require the immediate payment of only ten per cent. of the purchase price and allows five years for the completion of the transaction.

DODGE DIVORCE QUESTION.

Episcopal Churchmen Deem Change in Church's Attitude Inexpedient at This Time.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13.—The House of Deputies of the Protestant Episcopal convention appointed a committee today to meet with a committee of bishops and bring in a report at this session regarding the advisability of holding a world's convention of Christian Churches.

The House of Bishops decided that it would be inexpedient at this time to bring before the convention the matter of changing the laws of the church regarding marriage and divorce.

The question of changing the name of the church from the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America, to the Episcopal Church of the United States in America, was discussed by the deputies, but no action was taken.

"The menace of the idle poor, who must work but wish to be idle, is no greater than the menace of the idle rich, who give themselves up to pleasures with no thought of work," says the report of the joint committee on the relations of capital and labor submitted to the convention by the Rev. Edward L. Parsons, rector of St. Marks Church, Berkeley, Cal.

Specific recommendations in the report included the gradual reduction of the hours of labor in order to give that degree of leisure that is necessary for proper social life; one day of rest in seven for all who labor and a living wage as the minimum in all branches of industry.

"Chronicle's" Owner Shows Chicagoans Why "Our Town" Is Logical Place for Panama Show—San Franciscans Meet Louisiana Executive and Crescent City Boosters.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] M. H. De Young, proprietor of the San Francisco "Chronicle" and expert in the creation and administration of expositions, is back from Europe after an absence of six months a greater enthusiast than ever on the proposition that San Francisco is the logical place for the Panama Pacific International Exposition. He declared his precious conviction was confirmed after interviews with exhibitors at the Brussels exposition that a "two ring show"—one at San Francisco and the other at New Orleans—would be a grievous mistake.

"Exhibitors at Brussels told me," said Mr. De Young, "that under no circumstances would they make exhibits in both places at the same time and have two staffs of men to look after the installation and maintenance of displays. The government must grant sanction to one place."

Mr. De Young, State Senator Rolston, Charles P. Braslan and other San Franciscans were in Chicago booming the Pacific Coast city as the logical site when Governor J. Y. Sanders of Louisiana and party arrived to present the claims of New Orleans as "the logical point."

"Our friends in New Orleans may draw all the circles on the map they please" said the San Francisco publisher, good-naturedly, "but the sweep of a pencil does not bring the people. Eighty-five to ninety per cent. of the people on this coast who have vacations take them from May to September. Would they care to go South at that time of year?—they failed to go to the New Orleans Exposition in 1885 or to Jamestown in 1907.

"What about Pacific Coast expositions?" The Mid-winter Exposition at San Francisco immediately after the wonderful World's Fair in Chicago, and the expositions more recently at Portland and Seattle were successes financially and as the show windows for the wares of the world. Naturally I am a San Francisco partisan, but I think the disinterested person must experience some human thrill of admiration over the way the Pacific Coast metropolis has gone after this exposition, and is still going after it.

"After passing through the most disastrous fire in the history of the world and after spending $300,000,000 in four years in reconstructing a dismantled city on a scale of bigness got before dreamed of, San Francisco went to a mass meeting and in two hours made bona fide subscriptions far exceeding $4,000,000 as an earnest of their desire to commemorate the completion of the Panama Canal in 1915. These subscriptions have since been increased to $7,500,000.

Yeukio Ozaki, mayor of Tokio, Japan, was a visitor in New York yesterday. The mayor, with his wife, arrived there on the steamer Adriatic. He expects to call on President and Mrs. Taft, whom he entertained in Japan.

COLLEGE WILL REMAIN.

Unconfirmed Reports Indicate That Santa Clara Institution Will Be Enlarged at Santa Clara.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN JOSE (Cal.) Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Although it has been generally reported that the Santa Clara College will not be moved to the new site at Loyola for some time, no authoritative statement can be obtained from the authorities. The San Jose Chamber of Commerce verifies the report. The announcement that William McCann of San Francisco has purchased part of the Morse Seed Farm is taken as an indication that the Santa Clara site has been chosen.

Another significant deal is one in which the block directly opposite the Santa Clara site was sold. It is said on good authority that this property will be used by the new college. The Chamber of Commerce information says the Santa Clara town trustees will turn over parts of two streets to the college and that expensive new buildings will be constructed.

CONVICT AMMONIA THROWER.

Los Angeles Police Identify Tacoma Offender as Party Jailed Here for Burglary.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] T. H. Herrick, accused of throwing the contents of a bottle of ammonia in the face of Dr. E. H. Lennox, dentist, in an attempt to commit burglary, was found guilty of attempted burglary in the second degree, by a jury in Judge Chapman's court. The jury remained out three hours before they finally decided on a verdict recommending him to the mercy of the court.

The prosecuting attorney's office has a picture of Herrick forwarded by the Los Angeles authorities, who state he was convicted there for almost the same offense. Herrick is a drug fiend and has begged his jailers for opium continually. He has to satisfy himself with small doses of morphine as opium is not carried in stock by the county.

FEARS DISGRACE, ENDS LIFE.

ANGELS CAMP, Oct. 13.—Preferring death to what he believed everlasting disgrace if arrested on the simple charge of cruelty to animals, Tony Hosanna, an Indian at Carson Hill, Calaveras county, killed himself by blowing his head off with a shotgun when the constable went to the home of the Indian to place him under arrest.

MONSTER SALE THIS MORNING.

SPECTACULAR PARADE OF MASSIVE TICKET WAGON.

Business Men and More Than 100 Volunteer Musicians Will Pass Through Avenues of Trade in Swift and Novel Crusade for Big Benefit to Come.

The great "circus sale" of seats for The Times sufferers benefit is scheduled to come off with eclat, gusto, roaring enthusiasm and financial success this morning. It is a "circus" in spectacular features, but no circus dale here or elsewhere ever enlisted such distinguished accountants or had such a great and sympathetic audience as will attend this one.

The sale will begin at 11 o'clock, and representative business men will aid in selling the seats.

A huge truck drawn by four mighty percherons will be the regal chariot from which H. B. Gurley, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and lightning ticket seller, will dispense the precious and well-working pasteboards. On either side of Mr. Gurley will be seated an aide, to assist in caring for the money and to hand out tickets when the throng closes in on the handsome salesman.

More than 100 musicians have volunteered, and these will be divided into three bands, which will relieve each other on the line of march.

The parade will begin at the Chamber of Commerce and will go down Broadway as far as Eighth, then on Spring street to First, on First to Main, on Main to Fifth, on Fifth to Los Angeles, on Los Angeles to Aliso, and thence back on North Spring to the Chamber, where the line will disband.

There will be fifty vociferous boosters "plugging the game" with Rooseveltian strenuousity at every moment of the march.

Admissions to be sold today will be only $3 each, and there will be a sufficient number of seats to satisfy all demands.

The performance will be at the Auditorium on the afternoon of October 20, with an all-star cast from six local theaters supplying five hours of hurricane amusement.

SAVAGE BUGS.

Henry W. Savage, New York theatrical manager, yesterday ordered his representative here, Henri Grenait, to purchase a gallery seat for $100, and then redonate it to the general sale.

PARSON'S GOOD WORK.

The fishing steamer Senator Holthuffen collided off Cuxhaven, Germany, with and sank the Swedish bark Diana yesterday. Seven of the Diana's crew were drowned.

RAILROAD MERGER HEARING IS BEGUN IN UNITED STATES COURT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ST. PAUL, Oct. 13.—The Union Pacific hearing, commenced in the United States Circuit Court last Wednesday, was brought to a close this afternoon when Frank B. Kellogg completed his closing arguments for the Government. Both sides agree that the case will be taken to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Kellogg gave short answer to the arguments of D. K. Watson who preceded him and who asserted that A. H. Frick, one of the individual defendants, had in no way been a party to a conspiracy alleged in the bill to monopolize the transportation facilities from the East to the Pacific Coast. Mr. Watson said that Mr. Frick acted as an individual and not as a representative of the Union Pacific when the alleged purchase of 20,000 shares of Santa Fe stock was consummated.

Mr. Kellogg read from the record to show that Mr. Frick's name was identified in every instance with the other Union. Pacific directors who took part as individuals in the purchase of the 20,000 shares.

Mr. Kellogg then stated that through his argument he would deal primarily with three distinct propositions;

(3.)—The ownership by one railroad of the stock or any part of the stock of a competing railroad is in suppression of competition and therfore is suppression of trade and commerce.

Mr. Kellogg's argument was directed to prove that the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific were natural competitors and were in fact competitive before the merger; that if the Union Pacific did not dominate the Southern Pacific by virtue of stock ownership, the two roads would now be competitive.

Former Senator Spooner and Judge Sanborn and Hook engaged in a colloquy over questions asked during the Senator's argument.

"I maintain," said Mr. Spooner, "that a railroad so connected with another that it can not reach, say San Francisco except over the rails of a connecting committee, has no power to make competitive rates and cannot be regarded in any sense as a competitor.

"The fact that there is no power in such a line to make a competitive rate makes it impossible for a line so situatd to complete. It was absolutely impossible for the Union Pacific up to the time of the purchase of the Huntington stock to make a through rate on transcontinental business without consent of the Southern Pacific."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—John Anderson, who claims he won the Norwegian Marathon race in 1901, and that he has ninety-nine gold medals and fifty-four silver cups won in long distance races, was held to the grand jury on a charge of burglary today. He waived examination in the Municipal Court and bail was fixed at $500. Anderson is alleged to have forced his way into the warehouse of the concern for which he worked and to have been arrested with twelve pounds of lard and the same quantity of butterine in his possession.

WEDDING STOPS TRIAL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

FORT SCOTT (Kan.) Oct. 13.—Because two lovers, each more than 50 years old, believed that 6 o'clock in the evening was the lucky time to be married, the trial of Rev. J. M. Mason, a Methodist minister, charged with dishonesty and untruthfulness, was stopped for thirty minutes yesterday. The Rev. J. B. McKenzie, one of the jurors, had promised to marry Nathan B. Manning, 69, and Mrs. Mary Bearman, 56, promptly at 6 o'clock. Shortly before the time for the ceremony the minister arose and asked the presiding officer to excuse him. This was done after the attorneys for both sides had agreed.

INVENTOR WHIRLED TO DEATH.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

AURORA (Ill.) Oct. 13.—James E. Woods, an inventor, was caught in the shafting at a factory here yesterday and whirled to death. He had just completed an invention of a corn husking machine and Aurora financiers were ready to buy his patent. His invention would have netted him a fortune, those who had become interested in the machine say. He had worked for fifteen years perfecting the machine and only last week he received his patent rights. He was 60 years old.

TOO MANY FUNERALS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

AURORA (Ill.) Oct. 13.—A coal mine at Braceville, Ill., has just been closed because the workers celebrated too many holidays and attended too many funerals. Explaining why the shaft was closed for good, the mine owners declared it was short-handed so many days it could not be run at a profit. Braceville is an old town where nearly every one belongs to a lodge of some kind, and when a funeral occurs the lodge members must attend.

KANSAS CITY CHILDREN ILL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Oct. 13.—According to the report of Dr. W. S. Wheeler, health commissioner of this city, 9504, or 56 per cent., of the pupils in the Kansas City public schools have been recommended for treatment because of mental or physical defects found. Of the number, 1292 were mentally deficient and the others were suffering from malnutrition, hypertrophied tonsils, defective eyes and defective teeth.

BULLET HITS ENGINEER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LA CROSSE (Wis.) Oct. 13.—Shot in the head by a stray bullet from the rifle of an unindentified hunter at Genoa, Wis., 40 miles south of here, Alfred Foster, engineer of the Oriental Limited on the Burlington-Great Northern system, fell in his cab, but revived, grasped the throttle and brought his train to La Crosse today. He was seriously wounded.

CRIME IN CHICAGO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—"The most staggering fact that confronts the student of the criminal courts of Chicago is the fact that from 65 to 70 per cent of the criminals going through the courts are mere boys between the ages of 16 and 25 years, the surest evidence that the great city is not developing morally as rapidly as it is physically and mentally," said Municipal Judge John R. Newcomer, last night, in an address to the Concordia League. "One great reason that this is true, is that the churches of Chicago are not doing the work they ought to do for the upbuilding of the city, and in looking out for the young boys and men. We must not expect that the fresh blood that comes pouring in from the country will keep Chicago's moral balance. The first blood to contract the great immoral contagion in the wicked city is in the veins of the boy who comes from the country, and who does not know what confronts him in the great city."

MISER KILLS BOY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Frank Bujewski, alleged miser, who feared banks, and according to neighbors, hated the noise of boys at play, will be "booked" for the killing of 14-year-old Earl Sweeney. Bujewski, the police say, displayed great agitation in the lockup as to the safety of his money, which he is believed to have secreted about his home. "The boys were always stealing mushrooms from my garden," said the prisoner. "Honest, I only fired to scare them away." The boys were playing "duck-on-a-rock" when the shot from which young Sweeney died today was fired. It is alleged that Bujewski had on other occasions fired shots to frighten them away.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—Caesar Columbus of Eastville, Pa., appeared in the United States Circuit Court here yesterday and declared he had been waiting for Columbus Day before asking for naturalization papers. In the maneuver problem this morning the Californians were conspicuous bosque of their confidence and the ready obedience to orders. The regular officers commending the "blue" and "red" forces complimented the guardsmen and were outspoken in commendation of their work. The regular troops with the exception of the Sanitary detachment, will all leave here Saturday. There will be no more maneuvers, the remaining time being devoted to breaking camp and preparing the ground to be left in a clean and sanitary condition.

A. Schilling was plaintiff in both cases. He obtained judgments for $71,434 against the Alliance Assurance Company of London, and for $25,043 against the Commercial Union Assurance Company.

The suits brought by Henry Miller against the same two companies to recover $70,864 in each instance were concluded today and the jury is considering the evidence.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN JOSE, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] C. L. Hanning, an advertising man, was struck by an automobile while riding his bicycle this morning. The automobile was being driven by C. S. Brown of San Mateo, who came to San Jose last evening en route to Mount Hamilton, accompanied by his wife, another lady and a gentleman. After striking the man, the brown party continued and changed hats, hoping to throw Hanning, who followed, off the scent.

The big machine had made the turn in going from First street to St. John, when it came into contact with Mr. Hanning, who was moving along the south side of St. John street. Mr. Hanning was thrown from his wheel, but escaped injury. His bicycle, however, was put out of commission.

He subsequently asked that a warrant be issued for the arrest of the automobilists. The accused party appeared before Capt. Bailey and the police officials learned that the complainant was at fault in that he had taken the wrong side of the street and the warrant was refused.

Prominent State Educators Argue for Expert Commission for California.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 13.—Agitation for an expert country life commission for California was started at the County Life Conference in session at the University Farm School at Davis, today.

President Wheeler of the State University, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Hyatt, Superintendent Jackson, A. Barr of the Stockton public schools, Dr. W. F. Snow, secretary of the State Board of Health; and Mortimor Whitehead, past lecturer of the National Grange, were the chief speakers of the day, and the leaders in the indorsement given the plans for a permanent State commission.

Exclusion of foreign laborers by further restriction of immigration with a view to leaving the culture of the farm to the American worker; radical changes in the school system of the State with a view to introducing agricultural subjects more freely, and the examination of denominational churches in rural districts were the chief subjects on which the speakers based their arguments favoring improved country life conditions.

SOTHERN SAVES HIMSELF.

Files Brief Answer to Virginia Harned's Reno Divorce Petition—Immediate Action Expected.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There is nothing now to prevent immediate action in Virginia Harned's divorce case, Edward H. Sothern having just filed his answer to her complaint. The answer is brief but in it Sothern injects a clause intended to save him from embarrassment and censure. The document admits all formal allegations conferring jurisdiction, even including that one in which his wife alleges her husband is now and has for a long time been a resident of the County of Washoe, Nevada. It even admits the allegation of desertion in June 30, 1906, but there is a saving clause, he admits he left her without just cause or provocation, but alleges also that he left her for good cause and upon sufficient provocation. The service of personal summons in New York was also returned and filed. Mrs. Sothern manifests extreme nervousness today, being very snappy and unceremonious in her conversation over the telephone.

HIGH-GRADERS CAUGHT.

TWENTY-TWO DISCHARGED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HARRISON GULCH (Cal.) Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Twenty-two miners have been discharged from the Midas mine here during the past two weeks because of high-grading. This is the first instance known in Shasta county where the practice of stealing high-grade gold ores has been carried on. Two of the miners were caught in the act early this week and their discharge led to the discovery that high-grading had been going on for months and in the neighborhood of $80,000 worth of gold has, it is believed, been taken from the mine since July. This week two of the men were caught stripping the ore from a lead and placing it in a box. When confronted with their crime they did not deny they had been taking the ore. Many of the miners seem to labor under the impression that the gold belongs to whoever takes it out.

LULL IN FORMOSAN FIGHT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Oct. 13.—Lieut. Gen. Koizumi, who commanded the Japanese forces in the Formosan campaign against the natives has just returned to Japan. He says that the Japanese soldiers are now engaged in making wire entanglements with strings of blockhouses, pushing forward their line and no fighting is going on at present. Presents of millet and fruit were sent to the Japanese troops by the enemy shortly before he left and he had returned presents of bread and tinned provisions.

Meanwhile the plans to pacify or exterminate the Formosans are going forward. The Seogan tribe is giving the most resistance, the Japanese losses against them being 200 killed.

The Formosans, when they kill an enemy, devote much energy to decapitating him and carrying away the head, and many strenuous fights have taken place to rescue bodies from mutilation. The Formosans against whom the campaign is progressing—nine tribes—number about 136,600 and they have about 25,000 rifles.

JAPS BUY SIX NEW SHIPS.

New Liners Will Be Used in Trans-Pacific Service—Mexico Line to Be Discontinued.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Oct. 13.—Six new steamers, two of which have been ordered in Japan, are to be built to replace the steamers now used by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha in the trans-Pacific service to Seattle. Orders were placed with the Kawasaki Dock Yard Company of Kobe, and the Mitsubishi Company of Nagasaki, for two steamers of 6000 tons registered tonnage to maintain an average speed of twelve knots and the vessels will be followed by four others.

The construction of new liners for the trans-Pacific service of the Japanese line is being hastened owing to revision of the deep sea navigation protection law. In consequence of revision, Japanese firms are weeding out old steamers of between 4000 and 6000 tons.

The Toyo Kisen Kaisha is to abandon its service between Hongkong, Japan and Mexico. The Japanese subsidiary law forbids the receipt of subsidies from other countries, and the Japanese company considers that line unprofitable without the subsidy of $10,000 per trip paid by Mexico.

AGED CHICAGO LADY ADVISES HOW TO LIVE LONG.

She Tells Windy City Fair Sex It Can Increase Longevity by Eschewing Cigarettes, Liquor and the Hobble Garment—"Hoop Skirts Were Bad Enough," She Says.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Take sufficient exercise—walk every day; live simply and don't eat rich food; go to bed early and get the sleep of the early night; don't wear hobble skirts, and don't smoke cigarettes or drink."

Thus in a few words, Mrs. M. L. Satterlee of No. 2704 Michigan avenue, who has invited a few of her friends to join her in the celebration of her ninetieth birthday next Monday, vouchsafes long and happy lives to the women of Chicago if they will follow her precepts.

If feminine Chicago will do as Mrs. Satterlee advises, this city will, she promises, become famous in history for longevity.

Mrs. Satterlee has just returned from a three-months' visit to Cape Cod. Even at her age she is a confirmed devotee of the art of swimming, and not a day passed while she was at the Cape that she did not enjoy a plunge into the cold water off the Massachusetts coast.

"I think my good health at 90 is due to the way I have lived," said Mrs. Satterlee today.

After giving her recipe for better old age, Mrs. Satterlee said:

"I would like to see a dog chase a girl in a "hobble." I wonder what she would do. Of course, the old hoopskirt was bad—I hope we will never come to that again—but the hobble is ridiculous and impossible."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ORANGE (N. J.) Oct. 13.—Although Gov. John Franklin Fort of New Jersey recently signed a bill which made Columbus Day a legal holiday in New Jersey, and which compelled State offices, schools and banks to close on that day, he forgot all about it yesterday, and went to his bank in East Orange to get some cash. He found the doors closed and was much surprised.

He asked the cashier if it would not be possible to have the bank opened temporarily, as he was short of money.

He was told the time clock on the vault was set for this morning. There was nothing for the Governor to do, but call on friends for aid.

The next legal step to be made by the tailor in the effort to get his money will be an application for an order requiring Chanler to submit to an examination in supplementary proceedings.

COAST COUNT NEARLY DONE.

Census Figures for Western Cities Will Be Ready Within Month. Hints of 'Frisco Padding.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Director Durand said today that the investigations he ordered made of the census returns in several cities on the Pacific Coast are near completion and that within a month he hopes to have all the population figures given out for that region.

It may be two weeks, however, before he can begin the giving of publicity to the totals. Meantime the population of a city here and there may be published, but he was unable to say anything definitely of when the Los Angeles figures may be looked for.

Intimations that padding of the San Francisco figures has been found are still indulged in, but apparently it is of no sensational proportions. The director's declaration today was that he might have something to say of the count in some Pacific Coast cities. He would wait and see what the completed reports of the special investigation revealed, he said, and if the facts warranted it he would "give out a detailed statement."

Thanks for Good Services.

When it was necessary to get into quick touch with the bereaved families in all parts of the city the company generously volunteered its services, refusing all compensation. Repeatedly it placed both vehicles and drivers at the disposal of The Times and otherwise aided by every means in its power, this assistance having proven more than once almost indispensable.

They Grow Hair

Certain Ingredients If Properly Combined Stimulate Human Hair Growth.

Resorcin is one of the most effective germ destroyers ever discovered. Beta-naphthol is a most powerful, yet absolutely safe germicide and antiseptic, which prevents development of germ matter, and creates a clean, healthy condition.

Pilocarpine, although not a coloring matter or dye, is an ingredient well established for its power to restore natural color to the human hair.

Borax, because of its well-defined softening and cleansing properties is most useful in the treatment of scalp and hair diseases. Glycerine acts as a stimulant to the hair bulbs, and has a soothing, healing and nourishing influence. Alcohol is indispensable in medicine because of its antiseptic, stimulating and preservative qualities.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is chiefly composed of these ingredients, which are compounded in a peculiar form, and we believe it is the most effective remedy known to medical science for scalp and hair troubles generally. We personally guarantee it to eradicate dandruff and scalp irritations and to grow hair even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair, providing of course there is life and vitality remaining in the hair roots.

We want every one troubled with scalp disease, dandruff or loss of hair to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. If it does not remove dandruff or promote a growth of hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid to us for it. This guarantee is printed on very package. It has effected most satisfactory results in 93 out of 100 cases where put to practical test.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely unlike and in every particular different from any thing else we know of for the purpose for which it is recommended. We urge you to try it at our entire risk. Certainly we could offer no better guarantee. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00.—The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Cal., Seattle, Wash., and Portland, Ore.

BURGLAR GAGS AND TIES HER.

PLACES PISTOL AT HER HEAD, THREATENS TO KILL.

POLITELY LIFTS HIS HAT AS HE SAYS GOOD-BY.

PASADENA, OCT. 14.—With a gag tied in her mouth and herself bound hand and foot and tied to her chair, Mrs. F. L. Lincoln, No. 249 South Hudson avenue, was compelled to sit and watch a burglar ransack her house, pocket all the money he could find and then quietly take his departure.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. Lincoln was sitting in her home. Her doorbell rang and she went to the door where stood a well dressed young man who stated that he was taking subscriptions for a Los Angeles paper. She unhooked the screen door to allow her to hand him a paper. Just then he shoved a big pistol in her face at the same time telling her that if she made an outcry he would kill her. Thoroughly frightened she threw up both hands and fell back against the door casing. The bold robber then pulled some rope from his pocket and tied her in her chair, at the same time placing a big red handkerchief over her mouth.

Then he took his time rummaging the house. When he had completed his work he tipped his hat and said "good-by." Mrs. Lincoln managed to free herself after about an hour's work when she went to the house of a neighbor and telephoned the police station. Officers were hurriedly sent to the scene but the bird had flown leaving nothing but an accurate description.

FROM SICK BED TO JAIL.

Charles J. Gillispie, who was severely injured while hunting quail in the mountains near La Canada about two months ago when his shotgun was prematurely discharged and who was picked up and taken to the Pasadena Hospital where his injuries were cared for and where he has been confined ever since, was yesterday afternoon arrested by Detective Schultz just as he was leaving to return to his home.

According to his statement Gillispie formerly lived at Magum, Okla., where he did an extensive real estate and loaning business. He says that he borrowed money from various people at a small rate of interest and then relocated it at a higher rate. For this he avers he was arrested but was released on bond. He trial was to come up on September 11 but he was unable to attend because he was confined in the hospital. Gillispie alleges that this bondsmen have caused his arrest under the belief that he is a fugitive from justice.

Gillispie said that when he was released from the Oklahoma jail he came to Los Angeles and commenced a real estate business on South Broadway and was doing well. Early in August he started out after quail and while running to the top of a small hill to get a better position from which to shoot he stubbed his toe and fell, at the same time discharging both barrels of his shotgun. A small piece of one of the bones of the forearm was shot away.

AFTER LOS ANGELES JUICE.

Mayor Earley and C. W. Kolner, general manager of the municipal lighting plant, journeyed to Los Angeles last night to be present at the "open forum" meeting of the City Council when the distribution of the juice to be generated by the municipal plant to be built on the Owens river aqueduct was discussed. Mayor Earley stated last night that Pasadena wants some of the cheap juice as soon as the Los Angeles plant is in operation, providing, of course, it can secure it cheaper than it can manufacture its own electrical energy.

WILL DEDICATE NEW HOME.

The new home of the Y. W. C. A., which was recently purchased at No. 78 North Marengo avenue following the campaign for $30,000 successfully carried out several months ago, will be appropriately dedicated this afternoon and evening. During the afternoon there will be a general reception by the Board of Directors. At 7:30 o'clock this evening the dedicatory services will take place. The principal address will be delivered by Dr. J. A. B. Scherer.

NEWS BREVITIES.

Mayor Earley has decided to leave the appointment of the committee of nine to devise ways and means for increasing the membership of the Tournament of Roses Association to 1000, to the Board of Trade, Merchants' Association and Realty Board. He had asked each of those organizations to appoint three men who will serve on the committee.

General Manager Kolner of the municipal lighting plant says the offices of the city's lighting department should be located in some ground floor room. He states that the present offices, near the garret of the City Hall, are not conducive to good business. He says that as the city is now in the commercial business it should be placed on a par with other commercial organizations.

The Pasadena Republican Committee held a short business meeting last night in the Board of Trade rooms. Short speeches were made by C. L. Dugan, candidate for County Recorder; C. A. Hunt, candidate for County Treasurer; C. D. Manning, candidate for Supervisor; James McLachian and H. M. Klamroth.

Hobart Moore, millionaire railroad magnate of Chicago, accompanied by his wife and family as well as a large retinue of servants, arrived yesterday in his private care for a two weeks' stay at the Hotel Maryland. Word was received yesterday that Dr. George Ellery Hale, director of the Carnegie Solar Observatory on Mt. Wilson, who is now in Berlin, accompanied by Mrs. Hale and daughter, recently had the honorary degree of Doctor of Philosophy conferred on him by the University of Berlin. ### SOUTH PASADENA.

SOUTH PASADENA, Oct. 13.—Further protests have been made against the proposed Arroyo Seco bridge. These are signed by the Municipal Art League and the Board of Park Commissioners, and the objection states that a dirt fill would not be as serviceable as a complete concrete bridge and not as ornamental.

A petition was presented to the council this week asking that Pasadena avenue be paved from Hawthorne to Mission and from Mission to Fair Oaks, provided the work can be done for 18 cents a square foot or less.

The railroad franchise was passed by the council at the last meeting and this means much to the city, as hereafter express trains will be compelled to stop here. This will have the effect of placing this city more strongly upon the map, and will also be of benefit to the business men in express and mail service.

A protest was received asking that further action in regard to building a new city hall be deferred until after the Owens river water question be settled. No action was taken in the matter.

The street superintendent and the city attorney were empowered to consult with the railroads and have warning bells installed at the crossings. Several accidents have recently occurred at the Fair View crossing on the Santa Fe.

Youths who just escape the curfew law and are in the habit of loitering around street corners in this city are being notified by Marshal Johnson that they must either go to school, work or be arrested on the vagrancy charge.

MURDER SUSPECT HELD.

Charge of Embezzlement Laid Against Him by Daughter of Missing Long Beach Man.

LONG BEACH, Oct. 13.—Sam Apodoca, suspected of having murdered his employer, G. S. Ranus, on September 21, and then buried the body, was formally arrested today on a charge of embezzlement, preferred by Mrs. D. S. Deuce, daughter of the missing man. This charge will be sufficient to hold the Mexican in custody until evidence can be gathered to sustain the more serious charge. Apodoca is charged specifically with collecting $13 from a Jap named Honda and $9 from E. Meserve for fertilizer furnished by Ranus. The Mexican admits that he collected the money after Ranus disappeared and before he had reported the fact to the police.

Charles Saunders, assistant foreman of the Edison Gas Company, while fishing at the Bay City Pier, rescued Dolly Mahaney, aged 5, who stepped on a loose plank of the pier and plunged downward into twelve feet of water.

The Pacific Electric tracking on east and west Seventh street is being uncovered, overhead wires strung and all special switches and cross-overs installed. This indicates the early starting of traffic over the new line, which will open up a big residence district to rapid transit. The Pacific Electric will also build a shelter depot at Zaferia Junction for transferring passengers to Newport and to the Virginia Country Club.

GIVEN A CHANCE.

J. B. Browne, musican who skipped from town after nightfall with his household goods a few weeks ago, owing several trades people and his landlord, was arrested yesterday in Los Angeles, and brought back for trial on a charge of beating his creditors. He threw himself on the mercy of the court and was given thirty days to settle his indebtedness.

The Chamber of Commerce this morning selected Dr. L. A. Pyrce, George B. Earley and E. O. Denio as its representatives on the joint revision committee which is to suggest amendments to the city charter. The bankers will appoint their delegates next Monday after which the committee will begin its labors.

High school students are up in arms over the decision of the majority of the rules committee of the schoolboard that dancing at high school parties will be prohibited. The committee takes the ground that as a majority of the students do not care for dancing, it is unjust to make them share the expense of music.

Meyers into a marriage with her at the point of a revolver, and who was placed under $2000 bond, will have a preliminary hearing Friday morning before Justice Underwood on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Meyers says that he will prosecute the charge against the woman vigorously, for he firmly believes that he would have been killed had he not fled.

Ina Billings, aged two years, while playing with an older sister, was thrown to the floor and her right leg broken below the knee. The little one is unfortunate. ## GIVES FRIENDS A BAD SCARE.

YOUTHFUL BOOK-KEEPER TRIES TO APPEAR DEAD.

After Abandoning Carriage and Horses on Desert and Discarding Clothing, Coachella Youth Makes Way to Los Angeles and Writes Letter Confessing to Shortage.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 12.—C. A. Linsert, book-keeper for the H. D. Stone Oil Company, at Coachella, has given his friends a bad scare by a strange antic. He abandoned a carriage and team of horses on the desert, and, discarding his clothing, seemed to have been swallowed by the desert. Owing to financial troubles into which his employers had become involved it was supposed the book-keeper had gone mad.

For several days a systematic search was made over the desert country for the missing youth, but word now comes that he is safe at the Natick House, Los Angeles. His discovery came about through a letter written to his employers, confessing a small shortage, and enclosing his personal note covering the same.

In the letter Linsert, who is only 19 years of age, and married, explained that the company's affairs had not prospered. He had been left in sole charge, and tried his best to stem the financial tide which was sweeping the business upon the rocks. He explained he was almost crazy from worry, and suicide or imprisonment seemed the only alternatives left him.

At the time he abandoned the team, which he tied to a post, he discarded the shoes, stockings, and other clothing, which were found near the railroad. It is presumed he had taken along other clothes, his first intention being to become a fugitive, and leave the impression that he had perished on the desert.

WATER CONSERVATION.

R. H. Charlton, forest supervisor, met with the Tri-Counties Reforestation Committee at Squirrel Inn last night. One of the principal topics discussed was as to whether forest fires destroy the water-conserving qualities of vegetation. Charlton is of the opinion that they do. W. Bridges, largest private owner of mountain timber on the San Bernardino mountains, contended otherwise, declaring that large trees do not conserve water, while the brush which springs up after a forest fire serves the purpose admirably.

Speaker Phil Stanton of Los Angeles, State Senator N. W. Thompson of Alhambra and Assemblyman P. F. Cogswell, are here in the interest of the proposed exposition tax. In the county opposition to the tax is general, owing to the several immense tax propositions which the State submits at the November elections and the presence of Amendment No. 1 on the forthcoming ballot. It is figured that this amendment alone, if it carries, will prove an immense blow to the county.

Marshall Stimson of Los Angeles addressed a meeting of the Johnson-Wallace club in the Superior Court this evening. Among other speakers were the county candidates on the Republican ticket. Stimson's keynote was harmony.

SEEKS INDUSTRIES.

Upland Chamber of Commerce Takes the Initiative—Don't Want Duncanson Released.

UPLAND, Oct. 13.—The Chamber of Commerce is working hard to secure for this city a splendid shoe factory, and prospects for the success of the plans seem bright. The Parks and Public Improvements committee of the Chamber, also, is recommending the securing of sites, both for rectity park, and for library, city hall, jail and fire-house buildings. The only means of getting these will be by bond issue, and the Chamber of Commerce is taking the initiative. It is commonly admitted that if Upland is to continue to grow and prosper, she must seek some manufactories, and best opportunity, by all means, which has thus far offered, seems to be the shoe factory. The Chamber held its stated meeting at Magnolia Rink this evening, and every favorable seems the outlook for the future.

The regular sessions of the Riverside District Presbytery were held in the Presbyterian Church in Upland this week, and there were ministers and laymen present from many of the cities of the district. The Ladies' Aid of the church served dinner to all who came, at the church dining-room yesterday. The Presbytery is reported to have been a most successful and beneficial one.

The report that "Dr." E. E. Duncanson, formerly of Chino, and well known in Upland, may be liberated from the penitentiary, is received here with a feeling of considerable resentment, especially by those who know him best. Duncanson seems to have borne a very unsavory reputation for years, and there was a general feeling of satisfaction expressed when he was sentenced for life, a little over a year ago, for mistreatment of a small step-daughter.

At last it seems Tenth street, to the west of this city, is to be repaired. Ontario is to assume the work on the street between Mountain and San Antonio avenues, while Upland will look after the strip between San Antonio and Euclid avenues. The work will probably be done at one and the same time. Upland has stood ready to do its share for a long time, and the recent forming of an automombile club, to be affiliated with the Southern California organization, has served to awake new interest. It is said the condition of the street, as it has been for the past several years, is a menace to both this city and Ontario, in the way of possible suits for damages.

Considerable trouble has been experienced of late at the sub-station of the Ontario Power Company, just south of the Santa Fe tracks. Last evening a considerable blaze, followed by a fearful volume of dense black smoke, aroused the curiosity of people up the avenue, who witnessed the spectacle. The trouble is said to have been caused by the improper combustion of the oil under the boilers. No damage was done, aside from the burning of a rope ladder, which hung from the side of the over-heated stack.

STARTS ON FOUR NEW STORES.

Los Angeles Woman Begins Erection of Buildings in Anaheim—Little Girl Scalded.

ANAHEIM, Oct. 13.—There is quite a building streak now in evidence in this city. F. G. Getts & Son of Los Angeles have just commenced laying brick on four store buildings, which will be erected together on Los Angeles street, between Center and Charter streets by Mrs. N. H. Mitchell of Los Angeles, who owns considerable property here. C. O. Rust is planning to build a large brick garage on West Center street. W. A. Franz will begin the construction of an aviary which will be 50x60 feet and eighteen feet in height. This will be erected near his residence on Center and Olive streets and within the enclosure will be several walnut and pepper trees. The aviary will be stocked with canaries, zebra finches and other birds and he has asked permission of the State Game Warden to allow him to also put in a covey of quail. A number of squirrels will also be added.

Lillie Hartfield, 5 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hartfield, was severely scalded yesterday by falling into a tub of hot water while preparing to take a bath.

MAY ENLARGE FACTORY.

Management of Hermosa Beach Box Plant Has Plans in View to That End.

REDONDO BEACH, Oct. 13.—The management of the Hermosa Beach box factory is considering plans for the enlargement of the plant. To this end three acres adjoining the present factory site has been purchased, a spur of the railroad track is being laid, and work has begun on additions to the building. The concern has been in operation two years and finds the present plant inadequate. The working force will be materially increased with the completion of the new improvements.

WATER FOR DEL MAR.

T. S. Van Dyke, irrigation expert, while here stated he is preparing to install a system of waterworks at Del Mar. He said that he is commissioned by a syndicate of wealthy Los Angeles men which plans to make Del Mar one of the most fashionable seaside resorts of Southern California. The plant is to furnish water for a $15,000 residence to be built by C. A. Canfield, an oil magnate, and for fine homes to be built for W. G. Kerckhoff, H. W. Keiler and others of Los Angeles, and Col. Ed. Fletcher of this city. The Santa Fe has awarded a contract for the erection of a new depot of red brick, mission style, to cost $30,000.

Mrs. R. H. Dalton is having plans drawn for a four-story building to be erected on the east side of Fifth street between D and E. It will take the place of a one-story frame to be torn down. Mrs. Dalton has not decided on the material, whether brick or reinforced concrete.

CATTLEMAN SLAIN.

Man Who Recently Served Ten Years in Jail Believed to Be the Murderer.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 13.—The chief of police was notified today that Ypifanio Gallego, a cattle dealer of Sonora, Mex., was shot from ambush and died at his ranch a few miles below the line.

As a result of this information the chief has ordered his men to watch for Pedro Morales and arrest him if he appears here. Gallego was a partner of Morales in the cattle business in this county years ago, and was instrumental in causing the capture of Morales, who had killed a deputy sheriff near Los Angeles. For that offense Morales was sent to prison for ten years. He was recently released and shortly afterward on coming to this city, is reported to have declared he would never rest until he had squared accounts with Gallego.

The chief of police is also informed that Gallego, when dying declared his belief that Morales was the man who shot him.

FIFTY YEARS' CELEBRATION.

ESCONDIDO COUPLE JOYFUL AT GOLDEN WEDDING.

Smith, parents of eight children, thirty-one grand children and one great grand child, celebrated their golden wedding Monday evening, when seventy-five people, including members of the Christian Church, and the Escondido Grand Army Past, and Relief Corps, gathered at their home and presented them a purse of $50 in gold. Rev. Mr. Smith is a retired minister of the Christian Church. He was born in Harrison county, Ohio, 68 years ago and Mrs. Smith, whose maiden name was Anna Gass, was born in Wellsburg, W. ### Woman of Budapest Has Not Slept for Seven Years, and is in Good Health.

From the Washington Post:—Another case of that queer malady, sleeplessness extending over several years without direct injury to health, is exciting the interest of the medical profession of Budapest. Frau Bertha Hejemes, who is married and has a little girl of 10, has not slept for seven years.

Frau Hejemes began her long vigil one night when a gypsy woman attempted to kidnap the child. Since then she has not been able to go to sleep; neither has she had any inclination to do so. She is in excellent health and has never had a day's illness, but as soon as she tries to lie down she is seized with a violent nervous agitation which compels her to sit up again.

The woman declares that she is quite content in her sleepless state, as with the whole 24 hours to herself she is able to perform all her household duties as well as to do a good deal of reading. A curious fact is that since the beginning of her insomnia she has developed a great taste and ability for study, and has learned three languages.

Frau Hejemes is 28, and it was because of late she had been subject to irrepressible fits of yawning that she consulted a doctor about her sleepless state.

THERE will be plenty of good fiction in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

TESTIFIES TO JOY RIDE AFTER MURDER WAS DONE.

PORTLAND PRISONER BRAGGED OF JOB, SHE SAYS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Irene Trumbull, a pretty girl, told at the murder trial of Jesse P. Webb and Mrs. Carrie Kersch today of an alleged attempt to bribe her to leave the city.

Miss Trumbull also gave the most damaging testimony yet adduced against the couple, who are accused of having slain and robbed W. A. Johnson. Mrs. Kersch's former sweetheart, and of having thrust the body in a trunk and tried to ship it out of town. At the depot the body was discovered and Webb and Mrs. Kersch were arrested the next day.

Miss Trumbull testified that she had gone joy riding with Webb and Mrs. Kersch on the evening after the crime was committed and told circumstantially of Webb's having boasted repeatedly of having "turned a trick" and made a lot of money which he was spending freely.

Miss Trumbull said the effort to bribe her was made in her room at the Hotel Levens one week ago last Monday. The man, who failed to give his name, came to her home in the morning and offered her $250 to change her testimony, or $300 and a railroad ticket if she would leave the city.

The offer was overheard by a girl friend, she said.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Anticipating the social ostracism she believed would follow being named in Crown Point, Ind., after a series of daring burglaries with three other women, Mrs. Ralph E. Hayden of No. 4525 Prairie avenue today resigned from the "Tag Day" committee. She had been one of those selected to solicit Chicagoans and collect money for charity Monday. As a result of her arrest she preferred to avoid snubs, according to her own statement, by dropping out.

However, neither she nor her mother, Mrs. Mattie Jennings, her sister, Miss Laura Jennings, nor Mrs. William T. Wagner, of No. 5216 Prairie avenue, were fined with her, would admit that they had stolen more than a few rags and beets, and that only for a lark. Mrs. Hayden pointed out that her own automobile is black and declared that the "large red automobile" said to have been used by the women returned to some Crown Point person. To these women she refused to talk.

"It is time I made a statement," she said. "I want to put myself right in the eyes of the people who may have thought I had started out on a career of crime. I took half a dozen eggs and eight or ten beets, for a prank, and now I suppose I've lost my social standing, and am going to be ostracized."

The claims in this particular case was defrauded of $14,000 in a total of $97,000. After the plea was entered the case was stopped and the attorneys on both sides announced they had made up the matter of restitution.

TACOMA (Wash.) Oct. 13.—An attempt was made to wreck a train of the Tacoma Railway and Power Company early today, according to its officials. Cremation Residue of the Late William Bean, Who Died at Los Angeles, Has Shipping Valuation of Five Dollars—Was Sent to Relative for Burial in Home Town.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LEBANON (Ohio) Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A small, ordinary looking package that attracted no attention when it was thrown off at the C. L. and N. train at the Union Station, contains all that is mortal of William Bean, the eminent scientist, formerly of Lebanon, who died in Los Angeles. It was Mr. Bean's last wish to be cremated and his ashes buried in his home town. The residue has been shipped in accordance with his wishes but as yet no one has called to claim it. The package weighs eight pounds and arrived with all charges, $1.70, paid. The shipper's valuation is in bold characters on the package. It reads: "Value $5."

The consignee, Benjamin Mull, a farmer, has been notified by the express agent but sent no word concerning the ashes. He is a relative of the dead scientist.

There is nothing on the package to indicate the contents.

Lebanon citizens are much interested as to what its final disposition will be.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Oct. 13.—News of trouble between Japanese and Chinese in Manchuria was brought by the steamer Awa Maru today. Following the issuance of orders recently by the Viceroy of Manchuria that all foreigners must reside only in the open cities, thirteen Japanese living in Hailung-chen were thrown into prison by the local magistrate for refusing to obey the orders. A strong protest has been made by the Japanese consul-general at Mukden. At Chang Chun, another dispute took place as a result of the stoppage of Col. Morita's carriage by Chinese police who inquired if the carriage had been registered. The Japanese colonel, who was in uniform, tried to force the driver to go on, but the Chinese interefered, and took the Colonel and the carriage to the police station. Col. Morita addressed telegrams to Tokio saying that the behavior of Chinese officials in Manchuria towards Japanese was becoming intolerable.

American Bankers Advise Formation of Body to Validate Cotton Bills of Lading.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—A move toward the settlement of the differences now existing between European and American bankers over the cotton bills of lading was taken at a conference here today when American bankers, aided by American interests and cotton carriers, recommended the formation of a guaranty commission to validate cotton bills at the cost of six to seven cents a bale.

No action to organize the proposed guaranty company has yet been taken and it is considered likely that opposition will be manifested on the part of the American cotton exporters.

The plan as suggested is recognized as a decided concession by the European bankers who have been represented at recent conferences with New York bankers by Sir Edward H. Holden, Chairman of the London City and Midland Bank.

BOISE (Idaho) Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because the laws of Idaho do not prohibit a white woman and a Japanese to marry, Bano Sumie, was granted a license by the County Clerk in this county last night to wed Miss Belle Hamilton, an American girl, whose father, George Hamilton, is said to be a business man of Portland.

The license was not secured without difficulty. The clerk declined to issue it when the couple called, on the ground that Sumie was a Japanese. He consulted County Attorney McCarthy, and it then developed that such a union is not prohibited under the statutes. The license was granted forthwith and a few hours later the marriage of the couple was solemnized before Justice W. C. Bowes.

WAGES CAUSE OF INCREASE.

LEGISLATION ALSO MAKES FOR ADDITIONAL INCOME.

TWO RAILROAD PRESIDENTS BEFORE COMMERCE BOARD.

ARGUE FOR ADVANCE AND GIVE IMPORTANT REASONS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Two presidents of great American railroad systems today testified before the Interstate Commerce Commission concerning the proposed advance in freight rates in eastern trunk line territory.

The witnesses were president W. C. Brown, and president Daniel L. Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and of the New York Central lines. Both argued for the advance.

Marked similarity characterized the statements of the two presidents. Neither placed the responsibility for the proposed increase in rates wholly upon recent advances in wages, although both asserted that the wage increase had been an important factor.

President Brown declared that improvement of railroads properties so as to furnish adequate transportation facilities could be accomplished only through an increase of the freight income.

SAYS INCREASE IS IMPERATIVE.

Mr. Willard said he could see no way for the Baltimore and Ohio to furnish prompt, adequate service without an increase in freight rates. "Our expenses have been increased during the last five years by legislation," he said. "The act regulating the hours of labor and the employers' liability act, to both of which I am opposed, have added to the cost of operating railroads.

"I do not think the present rates are high enough and I would not think so even though there had been no recent increase in wages."

Mr. Willard expressed the opinion that the stockholders of the Baltimore and Ohio were entitled to receive not less than 6 per cent. dividends. He suggested that the financial credit, not only of the Baltimore and Ohio Company but of other lines, practically was in the hands of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

FAIR ADJUSTMENT.

"What would be better," suggested Louis D. Brandeis of the shippers' counsel, "than a ruling of this commission that would insure the security holders of the Baltimore and Ohio a 6 per cent. return?"

"Of course," responded Mr. Willard, "no action of this commission in any sense could be regarded as a lien on the railroad property. It would not be possible for the commission to guarantee anything. I do believe, however, that if the freight rates were adjusted fairly and with a reasonable degree of permanency, the credit of the railroads would be supported."

Mr. Brandeis then introduced a series of questions concerning the nature of economies practiced by the Baltimore and Ohio. Interrupting him, Commissioner Prouty inquired of Mr. Brandeis: "Do you maintain that before the commission should allow any increase of rates for the railroads, it should request them to show that their business is so efficiently managed as to warrant this action?"

"I think," responded Mr. Brandeis, "the commission should find that it would be a most serious injury to the country to establish the principle that if, according to present conditions, the railroads need more money, they should raise rates instead of considering whether they could not make more money under the present rates with greater economy."

BIG WAGE INCREASE.

President Brown of the New York Central said the increase of wages on that system amounted to $7,831,000 a year, with an additional $175,000 a year to take effect January 1.

"A considerable part of the capital for the improvements now in progress," said Mr. Brown, "was secured before recent increase in wages rendered the situation so acute. But with respect to the capital remaining to be secured for these improvements, I can confidently say that the ability of the railroads to obtain it depends upon the ability of the companies to secure increases in revenue through increased freight rates commensurates with the recent increases in expenses.

"I cannot better illustrate the situation than by reference to the recent attempts of the Michigan Central Railroad to market in this country and in Europe an issue of $17,500,000 of its four per cent. debentures.

BIENVENU.

BID A WELCOME TO NEW HEAD.

BIG RECEPTION TO Y.W.C.A. PRESIDENT.

Returned Globe-Trotter Made Guest of Honor at Elaborate Function Given by Organization of Which She is Chief Executive. Pretty Decorations.

Brilliantly lighted without and within, the big Y.W.C.A. building bade defiance to the inclement weather last night and threw wide its hospitable doors to do honor to the newly-elected president of the organization, Mrs. D. K. Edwards.

Partly in token of welcome to their new but ever-popular head, who, in company with Mr. Edwards, has just returned from a tour around the world, and partly to properly commemorate the fact of her election to that responsible post, practically the entire Y.W.C.A. joined forces to tender her a reception that numbers among the most brilliant affairs in the history of the organization. Between four and five hundred guests and members crowded the generous building almost to the doors.

Though nearly every room was turned over to the big and jolly company, the reception proper was held in the social rooms on the seventh floor. These, through the efforts of the committee on decorations, were transformed into veritable bowers of semi-tropical verdure. The lights, mellowed by ground glass globes, peeped out through great festoons of hanging ferns and clusters of pampas grass and palm leaves. Everywhere the official yellow and white of the Y.W.C.A. was skillfully worked into the color scheme with the aid of huge bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums and Shasta daisies. Over the doorways leading to the improvised refreshment rooms and the brilliantly lighted open court hung clusters of corsopsis and the tables themselves were decorated with a profusion of tiger lilies.

There was no speaking nor any attempt whatever at any sort of formality. It was just a social good time, of the sort for which the functions of the Y.W.C.A. enjoy a deserved reputation. Every one made it a point to seek out the guest of honor and make her enthusiastically welcome, not only as the traveler returned, but as well as their new president.

Mrs. Edwards has been long an active worker in Y.W.C.A. affairs, being for many years chairman of the Social Committee of the local organization, president of the Ayuda Club and of other subsidiary bodies. Though she was unaware of her election to the presidency, which occurred during her absence on an eight-months' tour of the world, she made good use of her time in the interests of the association, visiting practically every branch of the organization in the great metropolitan centers which were included in her itinerary. She returns with a generous fund of new ideas and a large experience in the association world-work which will prove invaluable to the local branch under her leadership.

The Reception Committee of last night's function included Mrs. Frank A. Dewey, president emeritus; Mrs. W. J. Hole, Mrs. Giles Kellogg, Mrs. E. J. Marshall, Mrs. W. J. Chichester, Mrs. E. R. Smith, Mrs. Gail B. Johnson, Mrs. Kate S. Vosburg, Miss Grace Barnes, Dr. Rose T. Bullard, Mrs. S. D. Burks, Mrs. O. J. Dalton, Mrs. Leonard Merrill, Mrs. H. W. Mills, Mrs. T. P. Miller, Mrs. L. A. Ross, Mrs. G. H. Wadleigh and Mrs. Robert Waichorn.

CONVENTION ECHOES.

Reports of delegates to the national convention at Nashville, Tenn., and to the International Pacific Coast conferences of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew were presented at a banquet held last evening by the local assembly of the order, which local assembly represents all the chapters in the various Episcopal churches in Southern California. Nearly 100 members were present at the function, which was at the Y.M.C.A.

R. M. Lindsay, president of the assembly, introduced W. T. Hadley, who told about the International Pacific Coast Conference at Portland. Kenneth Smith threw some interesting sidelights on the same gathering. S. B. Robinson related some of the interesting things about the late national convention.

E. H. Emett, religious director of the Y.M.C.A., spoke briefly. The meeting was closed with a benediction by Rev. Charles T. Murphy.

PUNK BUNGLES MAR VERY FAST AND SNAPPY GAME.

Vernon, 6; Sacramento, 0.

With the Seals painfully floundering around in third place the Vernons made a long reach for them yesterday by trimming the Senators again and if Hap Hogan had many more weeks to play like this one he might win the pennant, for it seems that nothing can stop him.

The Senators put in one of their best weavers yesterday in Pape, but he never even scared Raleigh. He had pretty near everything strung along on his arm, including doubles and triples, and the Vernons picked out enough of these to win easily. They did not slam Pape with any great amount of abandon, but what they did do was in bunches of two and three and all kinds of runs tallied in when they landed on the ball.

None of the hits broke any records, but some of the fielding was of the sang-up kind and worth traveling blocks to see, while other parts of it would look awful on the worst days in the Old Ladies' League. Some of the attempts were jokes that even an editor of an almanac would not stand for and many of these are included in the eight bungles made by the two teams.

Carlisle was the big star of the day in his wonderful running catch of La Longe's fly to left fieeld in the second inning. The fly was a strong one, high over the shortstop's head and curved toward left field and after a sprint of half a block Carlisle grabbed the ball while running at top speed. Every man in the grounds had counted it a safe hit, but Carlisle upset these calculations.

SUPERB FIELDING.

In the fourth inning Roy Brashear made them sit up and notice with his superb fielding of Danzig's grass cutter past first base. Roy scooping the ball with his left hand on the run and throwing Dan out at first. It was a very classy proposition and was loudly applauded. Perry also got the glad hand for a left-handed back-up catch of Roy Brshear's fly gainst the left field fence in the eighth inning. It is best not to mention the bungles for it is distasteful to talk of scars and wounds.

Ross hit a big sign with a two-bagger in the first inning and thus earns himself a nice present of money that will very tastefully decorate the hall of the season. Carlisle and Burrell were easy infield outs and then Ross clapped the fence with a double and reached third when Danzig muffed Burns' slow throw to first of Roy Brashear's grounder. Hoop hit to center, scoring Ross and Brashear, and on the throw-in of the ball got back to first when Burns hit him in the back with the ball. He reached second when Burns booted Fisher's grounder and was out stealing third. The third run we due to a single, a fielder's choice, a sacrifice and Carlisle's triple over third base.

Any one of these runs would have won the game for only one of the Senators saw third base, but in the sixth the Vernons took another fall out of Pape for good measure.

WORLD RECORD FOR BEAVERS.

LOS ANGELES AGAIN DEFEATED BY SHUT-OUT SCORE.

Delhi and Gregg Each Pitch Two-Hit Game, and Latter Flinger Strikes Out Eleven Men—Errors by Delmas and Catcher Smith Lose for the Angels.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With a 1 to 0 victory over Los Angeles today, Portland cut a notch in the baseball records with a total of sixty-seven consecutive innings without having a run scored against its team. While this record is not official it is said by baseball authorities here that the Pittsburgh National League team formerly held the record with sixty-two innings.

The game was one of the prettiest pitchers' battles ever seen here. Both of the big twirlers, Delhi for Los Angeles, and Gregg for Portland, pitched almost invincible ball and either deserved victory.

Delhi really should have had a no-hit game credited to him because the two hits registered by Portland were of the scratchiest variety, both of them going too hot for fielders to handle. Gregg struck out eleven men. Delhi struck out seven of the Portland hitters. Los Angeles assembled two hits off Gregg's delivery, but both of these were clean bingles, one a two-bagger by Howard.

Except for the first inning, Delhi made the Portland batters look decidedly foolish by feeding them a tantalizing slow outcurve which they could not touch. So well in hand did he have the Beavers that only one ball was hit out of the infield on the fly. This was Sheehan's terrific drive to right field which Bernard caught with one hand while under full headway.

Portland scored its run in the first. Speas, first up, playing center field in the place of Ryan, who was temporarily incapacitated with a sore chest, beat out a hit to Delmas, who, in his anxiety to catch the fleet-footed fielder heaved the ball to the netting. Speas passed second safely and tried for third, but Wheeler threw to Hallinan and Speas was caught sliding.

Olson was hit by a pitched ball, and when Krueger hit through second base Olson went to third, coming home from there when Smith threw the ball into centerfield in an endeavor to catch Krueger stealing second. Krueger made third, but was out trying to steal home.

A base on balls, a wild pitch and Speas's error placed two men on the bases for Los Angeles in the second inning with none out. Gregg proved equal to the emergency and fanned two of the remaining players, while another popped an easy foul to Rapps, and the danger was over. The score:

HENLEY IS THE STAR.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

OAKLAND (Cal.) Oct. 13.—San Francisco, recovering from the defeats of the last three weeks, came back today and defeated Oakland on the latter's home lot by a score of 6 to 0.

It was a pitchers' battle and Henley had all the better of it. The Mohler aggregation went after Harkins from the start, getting three hits and three runs in the first inning. They scored two more in the sixth and another in the eighth. Costly errors by Swander, Harkins and Pierce aided the San Franciscans. Score:

San Francisco, 6; hits, 10; errors, 5.

SCORER'S EXCUSE.

SAYS HE IS LEGITIMATE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—E. V. Parrish, who officially scored Sunday's double header between the St. Louis and Cleveland American League teams, last night made the following statement of the Lajoie case:

"The first game, in which I gave Lajoie four hits for as many attempts, was without incident save that there was a continual procession to the press box for information regarding the scoring, which was given. Some times the scoring pleased the fans, at other times it didn't. The game was scored as I saw it, an had I scored it again, I would credit Lajoie with four hits for his efforts.

"In the second game, Lajoie bunted his first time up. It was a clean hit. His second time up, which was in third inning, he bunted again. Corridon, baseman for the St. Louis team, fumbled the ball and Lajoie was safe at first. A runner on first with none out. He advanced to second. In my opinion, Corridon could have gotten Lajoie at first easily by clean handling of the ball. There was but one way to score the play, a sacrifice hit, and an error for Corridon.

"As to the scoring of the hits, I have to say: 'That in my opinion there is no question as to their legitimacy. They were clean scoring hits and had they been scored otherwise it would have been an injustice to Lajoie."

Parrish claims that during the second game Sunday a messenger boy handed him the following unsigned note:

"Mr. Parrish: If you can see where Lajoie gets a base hit instead of a sacrifice I will give you an order for a $40 suit of clothes—sure. Answer by boy. In behalf of—I ask it of you."

Parrish said that Harry Howell, scout for the local team, came to him and asked him how the play, which was a sacrifice hit, was scored.

"I told Howell," said Parrish, "that I gave Lajoie a sacrifice hit and Corridon an error. He asked me if I could not stretch it a point and make it a hit. I told him I could but I wouldn't."

Howell remained around the press box for some time attempting to argue the correctness of the scoring. A few minutes later a local bat boy brought me the unsigned note promising a suit of clothes if I would change my scoring."

Howell, when asked about his visit to the press box, stated his connection with the matter was purely the getting of information for a Cleveland player. He was in citizen's clothes and not on the bench.

ON ANXIOUS SEAT.

TALKS TO THE SCORER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12.—In a telegram to a local paper Lajoie admits he telephoned to the home of Official Scorer Parrish to see if he had received credit for nine hits. Lajoie's message said Umpire Evans and all the Cleveland players thought that he ought to have been credited with nine instead of eight hits.

According to Parrish, after the man at the other end of the telephone had said it was Lajoie and had found out that he had been credited with eight hits, the man asked if there was any chance for Parrish to see nine hits. The answer was "no."

BETTING POINTS.

WORLD'S SERIES GAMES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—The American League champions will not start the series a favorite with those who wager with their heads, and not with their hearts.

Up to the time of injury to Johnny Evers, of the Cubs, what betting had been done was at odds of 5 to 3 on Chicago, with little Philadelphia money in sight, but following Evers' disability the odds jumped to an even money proposition, falling back to the old odds after Philadelphia's poor showing in the last few games.

If Oldring is unable to take part in the series the odds will be even greater, it is said.

OLDRING OUT OF IT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Americans, said today that he did not think there was a possible chance for Centerfielder Oldring, who was injured in last Tuesday's game with the All Stars, to play in the world's series. Oldring twisted the ligaments in his knee.

"Some say that we should not have risked the players by playing these games with the All Stars this week," said Mack, "but the games were absolutely necessary if we had to pay the penalty in the cost of a star player.

"My men were getting rusty and a few days more of idleness would have seriously injured our chances next week. As it is, the series this week is putting the team in grand shape."

Mack would not tell his outfield plans, but said that there was a chance that McInnis will take Oldring's place. He played center today and handled himself well.

M'CREDIE'S OPINION.

ROASTS PRESIDENT GRAHAM.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PORTLAN, Oct. 13.—Judge W. W. McCredie late today made public a statement commenting on the decision of President Graham of the Pacific Coast League forfeiting the games between Portland and Oakland played September 27, 29 and 30 to Oakland.

McCredie makes the assertion that President Graham does not decide that player Hetling belongs to Spokane, nor does he decide that Hetling is a contract jumper. McCredie says that Graham is merely a drag net "trying to catch enough to justify his decision."

McCredie declares that although Judge Graham says that he does not care who wins the pennant, he penalized Portland on the sole ground that it is difficult for him to believe that Hetling was played with Spokane without being released. "Think," McCredie continues, "of a Superior Judge finding that we transferred Hetling upon the slender thread that it was difficult to believe we did not."

McCredne asserts also that the burden of proof as to Hetling's ownership is on Oakland, and that Judge Graham has not a particle of evidence before him to establish the transfer, which in fact never existed.

DOLLY GRAY RETURNS.

WILL PLAY WINTER BALL.

Dolly Gray, the Washington pitcher and formerly on the Los Angeles team, was out at the Chutes ball grounds yesterday looking the players over and renewing old acquaintances. Dolly looks to be in the pink of condition and said he had a good year and it would have been a better one if he hand had a little luck and if the team behind him had been a little better.

Dolly comes west at this time to be married and the girl of his choice is Miss Eleanor Durfee, whom Hap Hogan says is a sister of Billy Durfee, the well known horseman of this city. The wedding is to take place next Wednesday.

In all probability the crack southpaw will be in the thick of baseball this winter for Manager McAleer of the Washington team has strongly advised him to play winter ball as Dolly requires so much time to get into condition. If he does not ply in Southern California he will go to Cuba with a barnstorming team.

EACH WIN ONE.

GASPER KNOCKED OUT

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12.—The second game of the series for the championship of Ohio between the Cleveland Americans and Cincinnati Nationals was won by the former today 5 to 2.

Joss, who pitched his first game since July 25, was invincible until the sixth when his arm grew weak and Cincinnati batted in two runs. He then retired in favor of Kaler, who was effective.

Cleveland knocked Gaspar out of the box in the third inning. Fromme was also hit hard mut Burns' who finished, was effective though wild. Score:

Cincinnati, 3; hits, 7; errors, 2.

GRAHAM AMUSED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

Charley Graham of the Sacramento ball club was inclined to be amused yesterday when told of the hot language Walter McCredie had used in referring to Judge Graham's ruling in the Hetling case.

"McCredie is always yelling about something," declared Graham, "and is probably trying to work the Portland fans know. He knew very well he had no right to use Hetling and yet he played him. Why, when I was up there he said the case was only a technical one and should not be considered.

PRETTY HITTING.

ALL-STARS AGAIN WIN.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—The American League All-Stars won their third game from the Philadelphia American League team today, 6 to 2.

The new champions hit the ball hard, but fast fielding by the stars kept the score down. Milan and Speaker of the All-stars and Hartsel and Collins did fine work with the bat. The teams will play at Washington tomorrow. Score:

All-Stars, runs, 6; hits, 11; errors, 0.
Batteries—White and Street; Bender, Coombs, Crane and Thomas, Lapp.

IN The Times Magazine the coming Sunday IRVIN S. COBB will relate the results of his interview with the late Mother Hubbard. It is full of good hits.

NEW AND NOVEL.

SNAPPY CAR PULLS LOCO.

HEAVYWEIGHTS ARE LOADED INTO TONNEAU OF CAR.

ENGINEER LOVE CHEERS AS STEEL MASS MOVES.

Harry Lord, at the wheel of a Studebaker E. M. F., pulled a monster locomotive on the Salt Lake tracks yesterday morning. J. C. Love, engineer of the 110-ton piece of mechanism, rode on the step of the motor car as the E. M. F. snaked the big engine along the ties. The feat was the sensation of the morning as a large crowd gathered to watch the car perform the novel stunt.

There were those who refused to believe that a motor car could turn such a trick. Harry Lord disagreed with those who felt sure the task was too great. Though several offered to bet the car would be unable to budge the engine the heavy rope was wound around the rear axel by C. Adams, of the Lord Motor Car Company, and the driver "gave her the gun."

For the fraction of a second the big engine seemed glued to the rails. Those who were watching began to smile. Others wondered if the rear axle would be torn from the automobile. Lord, at the wheel, was confident, but used the trobbing motor carefully.

Then as the car developed her power the big wheels began to move and the engine slowly rolled along the level track. The trick had been turned and Lord was correct. The E. M. F. had made good on one of the severest tests ever given a new motor car. Lord was particularly pleased and the crowd gave a generous shout.

HARD STUNT.

The ground on which the test was made is soft. It was necessary to place a number of heavy men in the tonneau in order to get traction for the rear wheels of the E. M. F. J. W. Flickwir, the roundhouse foreman, took his place beside young Lord. E. B. Moon, C. Adams, A. D. Lord, H. M. Hone and Engineer Love, all large men, climbed into the rear seat and the wheels took firm hold on the yielding soil.

As the tons of steel began to roll the engineer was the first to shout. His cheer was reechoed from the throats of several other enthusiasts who had been the first to say the task was impossible. The E. M. F. snaked the engine for, a considerable distance along the rails proving conclusively that it could drag the big passenger locomotive.

The engine number is 439. It is in the regular passenger service and last night after the motor car had hauled it along the rails the engine took out a passenger train with Love at the throttle. It is the first engine that ever was hauled by a motor car and Love thinks more of automobiles he says, than he ever did before. He owns an E. M. F. and after driving the car for some months he believed it could do the stunt which pulled off yesterday morning.

Following the announcement that the E. M. F. is to be cheaper than ever this year, Lord was anxious to show that the mechanism of the car is better than ever. He suggested the novel undertaking and was ready to try his best to pull the engine of the man who had shown his faith in the car he had purchased last season. Lord is satisfied now and says the E. M. F. is equally as good as the one which placed in the Phoenix race last year.

ADMIRE MOTOR.

After hauling the engine along the tracks the men at the Salt Lake depot who saw the motor car doing the tub-boat act came over and carefully inspected the machine. The car looked the part of a staunch tug and the mechanism was not injured in any way by the strenuous work of the morning. The motor was as snappy as ever.

To show that no harm had been done by the hauling of the big pile of iron and steel Lord took the car through town. He drove along Spring and Broadway, in and out of the traffic, and then back to the garage of the Lord Motor Car Company where he was congratulated by his father, P. A. Lord, who had heard of his success before he arrived.

The car which Lord used was a stock E. M. F., received in a shipment from the factory early in the week. The engine was not overhauled in the mechanical department as Lord wanted to use the car just as it came from the factory. It is exactly the same style of machine as those sold so readily last week and the local agents say they are particularly pleased with the new-fangled demonstration.

FINAL YACHT RACE.

South Coast Club Boats Scheduled to Sail Their Last Contest Week From Sunday.

The long summer season of the South Coast Yacht Club will come to an end on Sunday, October 23, with the scheduled sailing of the arbitrary handicap. The Mah-Pe, Winsome, Siwash, Mischief II, Mischief, Idler, Venus, Wave, Minerva, Wasp and Sea Bird are eligible, but it is not likely that all of these boats will be entered.

The starting gun will be fired at 1 o'clock, and the course is to be from a point between flags anchored off the southwest end of the Miner fill, thence to flag one mile east of the Ely end of the breakwater, passing the flag to starboard, thence to Point Firmin whistle, with the buoy on the port side, thence return to the leeward flag on the port side, thence to starting point. The distance is about ten miles. The arbitrary handicaps will be posted after the start of the race.

GIANTS WINNERS.

FIRST OF POST-SEASON GAMES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The New York National League Club defeated the New York American team in the first game of their post-season series today, 5 to 1.

In a pitchers' battle between Old Master Christy Mathewson and the youngster, Russel Ford, who has been the sensation of the American League, this season, the National hurler overshadowed his rival.

Mathewson struck out fourteen, which equals the American League record, and excels the National League record for this season. The present series was the first ever held between the New York clubs and was largely attended.

Mathewson's work has rarely if ever been equaled in any game in New York. If his opponents threatened to score, Mathewson was at his best, fanning the batsmen with a high, fast ball and a fade-away. Ford pitched fine ball, striking out nine of the New York Nationals and holding them well in hand with his so-called "mystery ball" until his team's defense weakened in the eighth inning and four runs were made on hard hitting. Ford struck out Snodgrass, the heavy hitter, every time he came to the plate.

The Americans suffered a heavy blow to their post-season hopes when Catcher Sweeney had his finger badly split by a foul tip in the third inning. Mitchell took his place. Score:

Americans, runs, 1; hits, 5; errors, 2.
Batteries—Ford and Sweeney, Mitchell; Mathewson and Meyers.

Nine Stanford Freshmen Rugby Football Players Come From Los Angeles.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PALO ALTO, Oct. 12.—Nine members of the freshmen rugby football team of Stanford University, which is to meet the team of first year men of the University of California in the seventeenth annual game next Saturday, are students who registered at the opening of this semester from Los Angeles.

The average weight of the men on the team is 159½ pounds and the oldest player is 21. Only three of the fifteen hail from north of the Tehachapi.

Forwards: E. M. Brown, Selma; W. J. Barman, Los Angeles; P. P. Clover, Los Angeles; F. B. Watkins, Los Angeles; C. L. Boulware, Palo Alto; F. J. Gard, Glendora; Wing forward, W. P. Dorsie, Palo Alto; half, L. I. Tilton, Bakersfield; first five, P. H. Harrigan, Los Angeles; second five, H. W. Reeves, San Bernardino; center three-quarters, G. H. Mitchell; right wing, E. H. Hall, Los Angeles; left wing, T. E. Geissler, captain, Los Angeles; full, K. F. Kauffman, Los Angeles.

Carlisle to Remain.

The old rumor that Vernon may sell Carlisle or any other equally good player on the team is all bosh as might have been expected. Hap Hogan declares that he is trying to build up a team and not tear down his present one. He could have sold Carson and Fisher this season but did not know of any men to take their places.

Around The World By the "OFFICE BOY"

Most of us are very ready to sit in judgment on the acts of others. This is particularly true in matters that are political. Little do we realize what it is that frosts the heads of our executives prematurely. When have we borne world burdens? What matters it if we make a misstep? It is easily remedied. Our wrong decisions redden no green fields with life-blood. The market is not upset nor fortunes ruined. In our miniature arena why shouldn't it be easy to pick flaws in the big fellows who have big fights on their hands? Let us remember that criticism is of two varieties; constructive and destructive. One is helpful, the other hurtful. One offers a substitute upon which, in our opinion, a new foundation should be built; the other tears down and stops there. Frankly, do you think if you were in the Presidential chair you could secure the passage of a tariff bill, for instance, that would please the entire country? Scarcely! One of New York's most noted chiefs once said to his assistants: "Bring every word of complaint to me and forget the words of praise. When I can please the very particular man and the man who finds fault easily, I won't worry about the rest." Working on this theory, he made himself famous and wealthy. We and you should invite constructive criticism of our work. Why the greatest corporations in the world frequently pay men to step in and systematize their departments. They not only want criticism—they buy it. And when an expert systematiser can't show you how to save money without detriment to any phase of your business, pat yourself on the back. We never knew it to happen.

Have you bought your new fall outfit yet?

He must be prepared to defend vigorously the rights of the property entrusted to his care, and the right of property of his humblest employee in his own labor.

DEMAGOGUES' NONSENSE.

An immense amount of nonsense is now being uttered by the demagogues in regard to the rights of man as against the rights of property. As a matter of fact, in every highly civilized society, the rights of man in property form the most important element requiring the protection of the laws. Here and there are striking examples of injustice done to the personal liberty of an individual; courts are now and then made footballs of politicians; and a judge corrupted either with money, or with the hope of political power, may yield himself to the dictates of a clique of financiers and politicians and do their bidding without consideration of his oath of office, or the dictates of common justice. Here and there prosecutions have been started in recent years purely for political purposes, but, after all, the attacks upon the liberty of the individual have been comparatively few. The real danger which confronts us is the effort to increase the power of government in the name of democracy and to strike down the barriers which protect property in the name of liberty. As if it were conceivable that liberty could be preserved by increasing the powers of government and individual prosperity promoted by destroying the stability of property rights.

No man has so great an interest in the stability of property rights as the honest workman, of whatever calling, who has no property except the property to be acquired through his own labor. No prosperity can exist except where there is the utmost protection and safeguard to the rights of the individual in his property, whether it be in his labor today, or whether it be in the results of yesterday's labor which he has husbanded and saved. All despotic governments which have failed to give full protection to the rights of property have had in them men of large wealth, who, in one way or another, through power or corruption, were able to take care of themselves, but the masses of mankind, under such despotic governments have been invariably reduced to the lowest conditions of poverty. You cannot separate the rights of man from the rights of property acquired by his labor without depriving him of his liberty and reducing him to a condition of serfdom. Railroad franchises rest upon the law to the same degree that the title to the real estate fronting upon the streets rests upon the law. Both rights were acquired by grants from government, but the rights entrusted to our care are clothed with a public use, while the rights derived from a grant to a piece of real estate may be all private. It behooves us, therefore, more than any other class of men in the country, to study and to understand what are our private rights and what are our public duties.

TO LOWER TRAIN FARE.

UNIFORM RATE IS PLANNED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The question of making 3½ cents a mile the uniform passenger rate on interstate fares in Central Passenger Association territory, comprising generally Indiana, Ohio and parts of Illinois, Michigan and Pennsylvania, came before representatives of various eastern lines at a meeting held here yesterday. It was decided to postpone action for a short time pending the compilation of further data on the subject. The matter has been considered by the eastern roads for some time, the desire being to make interstate rates which will be satisfactory to the Interstate Commerce Commission. Most of the States embraced in the territory have laws making two cents a mile the maximum interstate rate, but interstate rates generally have been formed on a higher basis. A 3½ cent uniform basis would involve reductions in some cases and advances in others.

"NO ARMY POLICY"—BATES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The lack of a definite policy for the United States and consequent loss of life and treasure in all the nations' wars was decried by Gen. John C. Bates, U.S.A., commander-in-chief of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, at the annual banquet of the commandery in Chicago, at the Midday Club last night.

Gen. Bates responded to the toast, "The Army."

"Our military policy has been termed by military experts a crime against life, property and liberty," declared Gen. Bates.

"That it is weak is evidenced by the length of our wars and the enormous and unnecessary loss of life and treasure that has attended every conflict. For every three years of peace we have one year of war in our nation's history.

"One trouble is the popular fallacy that as a nation we are invincible and that our military resources are military strength. We have great resources and we have needed them. But these do not mean military strength or skill. Conscription is the best system of enlistment, but it is impractical because of our national sentiment against forcing men to serve in the army or navy."

FUGITIVE CONVICT GIVES UP.

Kansan Returns to Prison and Telephones for Deputy—Tired Dodging Detectives.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

LEAVENWORTH (Kan.) Oct. 13.—preferring to return to prison rather than to be constantly hounded by the belief that he was being pursued by detectives, John Sportsman, an escaped convict, surrendered himself at the Kansas State Prison in Lansing yesterday.

Sportsman and John Wilgus, both of whom were trusties, escaped from the prison several months ago. Sportsman went to Missouri and obtained a position on a farm. But the fear that he was being spied upon by detectives worried him greatly and yesterday he walked back to prison to give himself up.

Going into a prison stable, he called a deputy warden over a telephone and said:

"I'm here ready to give myself up. I'm thoroughly tired of running away from detectives."

When Sportsman ran away he had but eight months of a five-years' term to serve. Now, because of his escape, he will not be released uptil April, 1912.

Wilgus has never been located.

HOSPITAL READY FOR RARE ILLS.

PUZZLING CASES ONLY WILL BE RECEIVED.

Branch of Rockefeller Institute at New York to Be Dedicated to Aristocracy of Disease—Pneumonia, Heart Disease and Infantile Paralysis Selected for Study.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—A new hospital, the most completely equipped building of its kind in the world, is to be opened in New York on Monday next. It is an integral part of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, and its aim will be the "intensive study of a few selected diseases."

The diseases selected for admission at the beginning are infantile paralysis, pneumonia and heart disease, the last two being so widely prevalent that they cause an alarming increase in the death rate. Infantile paralysis, although numerically less important, has made terrible ravages in its outbreaks.

The new institution adds only about seventy beds to the hospital resources of New York City, but its work is expected to be of the very highest importance to the medical and scientific world.

The whole building is practically "germ proof." Each room is isolated from every other room, and all the air supplied to the various wards and corridors is sterilized before being admitted.

The resources of the ordinary hospital must be used primarily to treat all diseases with which a community might be afflicted. This is not the mission of the Rockefeller Institute. It will select a small number of diseases and only patients suffering from these diseases will be admitted during the period that their ailments are under treatment and study.

No physician connected with the hospital will be allowed to engage in outside practice or to consult with regard to outside cases.

The hospital is to be free. Not even the wealthiest patients will be allowed to pay any fee for either treatment, hospital expenses or drugs. The only requirement is that his ailment must be rare, or be one of those on which the medical profession is divided, or one the fraternity frankly admits that it knows very little about. The hospital, therefore, is not for the rich nor for the poor; it is for the aristocracy of ailments.

ADMIRAL COWLES NOMINATED.

FARMINGTON (Conn.) Oct. 13.—Rear-Admiral W. S. Cowles, U.S.N., retired, brother-in-law of former President Roosevelt was nominated last night by the Republicans for representative from this town in the general assembly.

ALARMING.

HONDURAN SITUATION TENSE, CABLE STATES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ORLEANS (La.) Oct. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two cables received here tell in a graphic way the latest developments in Amapala, in Western Honduras.

A San Salvador message states that Gen. Valladares, still in supreme command at Amapala, is defying every thing, threatening to drive all foreigners into the sea, and shoot the British Consul.

The other, from Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras, says that President Davilla has demanded the immediate resignation of Gen. Valladares, as Governor of the Amapala district, and if he does not resign that he will be overthrown with government troops.

Valladares has replied, according to the cable advices, that he will not resign, and if Davilla presses him he will start a revolution on the west coast for the overthrow of the present Honduran government.

Conditions at Amapala are alarming and great excitement reigns, the messages advise. The foreigners at Amapala are barricaded in their homes, fearing to venture out. Valladares has threatened to burn their homes and places of business.

President Davilla, according to Valladares, is without sufficient military strength to oust the rebellious Governor and knowing this, Valladares declares he proposes to hold Amapala against all comers.

Valladares threatened to shoot the British consul, who fled to the nearest telegraph office in Salvador and telegraphed the British minister at Guatemala city for a warship.

It is rumored at San Salvador, the source of today's cable, that an American warship arrived at Amapala this afternoon and demanded the surrender of Valladares, but this report lacks confirmation. Valladares controls the telegraph office at Amapala and no reliable news can be obtained from there by telegraph until he is ousted. The warship referred to as having arrived at Amapala is the cruiser Princeton.

The Princeton sailed from Acapulco, Mex., October 8, under hurry orders from Washington and as the distance is about two and a half days' sailing the warship has had time to reach Amapala.

UNCOMPROMISING.

STRIKERS GET STERN REPLY.

IRON FOUNDERS DECLINE TO HAVE "CONFERENCE."

MATTER ALREADY SETTLED, IS THEIR ANSWER.

OWE DUTY TO THEIR LOYAL WORKMEN, THEY SAY.

The efforts of the unionite bosses to turn the Times Building disaster to their benefit by seeking arbitration of their dead cause with the iron founders has been met with a stern answer from the united industries.

The attempt began Monday when a unionite committee understood to be composed of C. F. Grow and C. M. Fieder, (both now under bonds in the Police Court,) and Miller, Jones and Hendricks, called on the Mayor and asked him to suggest to the founders the wish for a conference. It seems to be the idea of the bosses that the Times dynamiting would weaken the founders. The Mayor transmitted their request in the following communication to each member of the Founders' Employers' Association.

THE MAYOR'S NOTE.

"Gentlemen:—A committee of the Metal Trades Union called at my office today and requested me to ascertain whether you gentlemen would appoint a committee to confer with them with reference to a settlement of the industrial strike that has been going on in the city for some time. Will you kindly let me know at your earliest convenience whether you will be willing to confer with them and oblige, Yours truly,

[Signed] "GEORGE ALEXANDER, Mayor."

This letter was considered at a meeting just long enough to determine what kind of an answer should be sent. The decision was immediate and unanimous that the fight for industrial independence shall not pause, and in this the founders were reassured of the hearty and substantial co-operation of all other lines of industry here.

The answer was signed by all the firms and companies and delivered to the Mayor yesterday. He did not give it out to the public but did transmit a copy to the union committee that called on him.

The answer of the founders follows:

THE REPLY

"Hon. George Alexander, Mayor, City of Los Angeles, Cal.

"Dear Sir:—We have your letter of the 10th, stating that you have been asked by the Metal Trades Union to ascertain if we will appoint a committee to confer with them in reference to a settlement of the industrial strike that has been on in this city for some time:—

"Replying to same we wish to state —1st— that on or about June 1 twenty-five or thirty per cent of the men engaged in the metal trades left their employment, since which time they have refused to work, and, in so far as they could have tried to prevent the seventy or seventy-five per cent. who remained at work, from doing so peacefully.

"2nd.—We are informed that many of these men who have asked you to act in this matter have been arrested within the past few weeks for violating the laws of this city and State, and at this time are out under bonds. None of them are representative mechanics of this city.

"3d—We have not now and never have had, business relations of any kind with the parties referred to.

"4th—As we do not require any more men than can be supplied by the natural laws of supply and demand, and as we owe a duty to those loyal workmen who have remained in our employment during the past few months, for the above reasons we do not care to consider a meeting for the purpose of settling a matter which has already been settled.

[Signed] "Respectfully yours,

STANDS STRONG FOR FIRM DUTY.

FORMER GOVERNOR OF BENGAL SPEAKS OF INDIA.

Late Secretary to Lord Curzon Says the English Have Given the Natives Too Much Freedom for Their Own Good—Indorses Roosevelt in the Matter of Obedience.

Sir Bampfylde Fuller, former Governor of Bengal and, previous to that time secretary to Lord Curzon of India fame, arrived at the Westminster yesterday after a trip through Canada and down the Coast. He is a typical Englishman of the aristocratic school, wearing his monocle and carrying his cane wherever he goes.

On the Indian question, the most pertinent one of all those pretaining to the colonies of England, Sir Bampfylde had much to say in a few minutes. "It would take weeks to thresh out the matter and bring out all the points pertaining to the government of the Indian nation, the subduing of the riots and the greater peace which is at present the most essential thing for that country.

The English have given the Indians too much freedom for their own good. There are more than fifteen tongues spoken in the country. There are dozens of chieftains in every one of the different peoples, all with their own armies and their own governments. There are castes within castes and to imagine a government by the Indians themselves is practically impossible.

"I asked one of them not long ago what the country would come to were England to relinquish all hold. He looked at me and laughed. That is a puzzle that I am afraid would never be solved by the making of one single nation. It would mean entire disintegration of India as one nation. The stronger surrounding countries would immediately enter the dispute and by power of arms, India would be divided among the victors of these later conquests," said Sir Bampfylde.

"Your Mr. Roosevelt was quite right and diagnosed the case correctly when he suggested a firmer reign, one of absolute dictation if necessary to compel the subjects to obey. It was because I advocated this policy in Bengal that I was brought to task and another placed as my successor. While I was there I always walked about without fear of a bomb or without personal guard. Since that time, four years ago, Bengal has become one of the most virulent of states in the matter of uprisings, bomb throwing and violence to English subjects.

"The remedy is a tighter hand on things, a firm but just rule. Because a school has a 'rotter' of a teacher, who creates trouble and lowers standards is no reason why the entire school should be stigmatized. Kick out the teacher, put a better one in his place and the school resumes its prestige and goes on just the same as it did in its best days. Apply this to the English rule of India, remove the laxity of discipline and you will get the one solid nation that was previous to the present troubles."

Sir Bampfylde will be joined in New Orleans by Lady Fuller who preferred not to make the long journey through Canada and down the Coast. He will leave here after two days for the Grand Canyon.

PIERCE WILL MEET OIL MEN

WILL HOLD PUBLIC HEARING IN SYMPHONY HALL.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior to Conduct Meeting Under the Auspices of Chamber of Mines and Oil Tomorrow—Northern Operators Notified of the Plans.

The Chamber of Mines and Oil, at the suggestion of Assistant Secretary Frank Pierce, of the Department of the Interior, has issued a call for a general meeting of the oil men of California to be held at Symphony Hall, 234 South Hill street tomorrow morning. Assistant Secretary Pierce is here for the express purpose of obtaining at first-hand the views of the oil men of California as to the present laws as they affect the oil interests.

The meeting tomorrow morning, will be entirely informal in character and all oil men are cordially invited to be present, and be prepared to express their views. If necessary, the meeting will be adjourned until Monday morning and such further time will be devoted to the discussion of the various questions as may be necessary.

Mr. Pierce is anxious to obtain the views of the oil men, no matter what interests they represent; he is particularly interested in the possible discussion of recent decisions of the United States General Land Office notably in the Yard and Mesmer cases. The Chamber of Mines and Oil has notified the Western Oil Producers' Association and the California Oil Men's Association as to these meetings, and requested that they arrange to have representatives present.

It is impossible, owing to the lack of time, to have every oil man notified personally, but it is hoped that each one interested in a discussion of the questions now affecting their interests, will notify their friends and arrange to be present at this meeting. Secretary Pierce states that he will call the meeting to order at 10 o'clock a.m. sharp.

Telegrams were sent yesterday to the Kern County Board of Trade, the Coalinga Oil of Commerce and the California Oil Men's Association at Bakersfield notifying them of the plans made here to meet the oil men.

RICH MEXICAN MINES.

Mr. Max L. Portillo, well-known in Los Angeles and Mexico as a promoter of successful mining ventures, is a guest at the Hollenbeck Hotel. Mr. Portillo formerly owned the rich Metates mine, recently purchased by local financiers. His present visit here is for the purpose of interesting capital in the development of a group of mines near Metates, which are pregnant with fortune making possibilities. Heretofore these mines have been worked only on a small scale and their apparent richness has impelled Mr. Portillo to seek additional capital with which to install a power plant and enlarge his operations. His ownership, of the water rights of a near-by stream makes the installment of such a plant comparatively easy. Mr. Portillo has other mining, industrial and agricultural interests in the States of Sinaloa, Colima and the territory of Tepic. He is a throughly reputable and trustworthy business man, and it will probably be very advantageous to persons seeking Mexican investments to consult him during his stay in this city. (Adv.)

HE CAN'T RESIST.

So the Postmaster Is Willing to Help Love-Sick Swains in Their Quest for Soulmates.

Postmaster Harrison can not resist the plaint of love-sick swains and the plea of lonely maidens. In consequence he has found himself at the head of a real up-to-date matrimonial bureau.

When he entered his office yesterday morning he heard his telephone ringing. He found that his ear was being sought by a man who desired more information concerning the Connecticut girl who wrote to the Postmaster to get her a husband.

Two others, who apparently have not met "the girl" in this city, rang him up during the day, explaining that they had soft hearts for girls who were willing to marry to get to California.

Harrison could not resist their appeals. As the young women requested, he did not give them her name, but told them, if they would send their letters to him, that he would place the proper address on them.

He comes, Bill Pickens, his manager, is to be with him. Pickens is said to be almost as well as Oldfield's relatives. Pickens is not under suspension order and is free to enter meets for months in advance. He is satisfied that Barney can beat Jack Johnson, though the negro champion has driven a Chalmers "for" the past two years.

Pickens has appeared in race meets but has never made any great impression on the spectators. Because he is a heavy prize-fighter he is now driving, but those who know are satisfied will be an easy victor over the Coney Island, Sheepshead Track, Coney Island, Sheepshead Bay race meet October 29. Here is a telegram from Oldfield to The Times:

"Am worried over suspension. Only race and defeat Jack Johnson at Sheepshead Bay Oct. 20. This is a joke and if they get me myself started we will make them wonder where Jesse James ever got his reputation as an outlaw. We will be a couple of real ones. Will be Los Angeles in time to break all previous records.

DOLLIVER IMPROVING.

FORT DODGE, Iowa, Oct. 13.—Senator J. P. Dolliver spent a good night and was reported somewhat improved today. It seems certain however that Senator Dolliver will be forced to take absolute rest after remaining in bed for at least a fortnight and it is probable that he will do no campaigning in Indiana, Minnesota and Kansas as he had planned.

ROOSEVELT FIGHTS ACROSS INDIANA FOR BEVERIDGE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

RICHMOND (Ind.) Oct. 13.—When the Roosevelt special train rolled across Indiana today Theodore Roosevelt pulled off his coat and rolled up his sleeves and plunged into one of the hardest fights of his political career. He came to Indiana to do what he could to send Albert J. Beveridge back to the United States Senate for six years more.

Early in the day he started in at the western boundary and as he approached the eastern boundary tonight he said that there was "victory in the air."

Col. Roosevelt talked of honesty, good citizenship and the good qualities of Mr. Beveridge. The issue in Indiana, he said, was of decency in public life as against crookedness.

Col. Roosevelt asserted the whole Republican party would be solidly in line on a tariff programme before the next Presidential election came around.

Senator Beveridge voted against the Payne tariff bill. Senator Beveridge presented a bill for a tariff commission three years ago. Col. Roosevelt defended his action in regard to the tariff and his words were "the nearest thing to an expression of an opinion that he had yet made in regard to the new tariff.

"Senator Beveridge did not split from his party," Col. Roosevelt said in his speech at Lafayette. "He merely stood by the bulk of it, because the real party consists of the mass of the people. The mass of the people wished to see done just what he did. And before the next Presidential election comes around the platform will be fairly and squarely the platform on which Senator Beveridge stands."

The colonel made his speech at Indianapolis from a stand in front of a hotel before thousands of people.

He hit hard at some of his opponents. In talking of the Alaska coal land cases he paid his compliments to the men "from New York and Colorado" who opposed his ideas on conservation, and who, he said, wanted to exploit Alaska for themselves. He said they must not be allowed to rob the people.

"It is a great pleasure, a very great pleasure, to be here today and to address a meeting the like of which, in thirty years' experience in politics, I have never before seen," said Col. Roosevelt. "I am not nervous about Indiana, for we are going to win.

"I am here today to speak in Indiana for the ticket headed by Albert J. Beveridge for Senator, because during his eleven years' service in the United States Senate, a service which I have watched closely, he has shown that he possessed honesty, courage and good, sound common sense."

On the question of conservation, Col. Roosevelt said:

"In Alaska our aim is to control the development of the coal fields, so that all the profit and use shall not go to a single group of enormously wealthy men.

"The people who want to develop Alaska by exploiting the coal fields purely in their own interest are not Alaskans. They live in New York and Colorado. And these New Yorkers and people of Colorado who have never seen Alaska are filling the air with complaints that we must not interfere with local self-government in Alaska."

Col. Roosevelt concluded his speech with an appeal to good citizens to support Senator Beveridge, regardless of party.

At Anderson, when Col. Roosevelt finished his speech, hundreds pushed forward to shake his hand. In the rush the railing of the stand was broken down and men fought each other to get near the colonel. One man edged his way almost to Col. Roosevelt's side and reached out his hand to touch him. Another man who was just beside him, struck the man in the jaw with his fist to get him out of the way.

The crush became so great that the police feared a panic. Mounted police forced their way into the crowd and with their horses compelled the people to stand back until the colonel and Senator Beveridge had been rescued.

UNITE IN TRIBUTE TO FERRER; SPAIN RESTRICTS EXERCISES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—"In one year from now the name of Francisco Ferrer will be better known than Theodore Roosevelt's and in 100 years will be better known that Jesus Christ's."

This declaration, voiced by the temporary chairman, reflected the sentiment of nearly all the speeches made in six different languages at tonight's mass meeting in Cooper Union, commemorating the first anniversary of the Spanish teacher's execution.

Resolutions were adopted providing for the organization of Ferrer clubs in all parts of the country.

GOVERNMENT DREADS DAY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

MADRID, Oct. 13.—Today was the first anniversary of the execution of Prof. Francisco Ferrer, founder of the modern school at Barcelona, who was convicted of having conspired against the government and brought about the rebellion in the summer of 1909. The day has been dreaded by the authorities. The Free-thinkers, Socialists and Republicans had planned Ferrer demonstrations that might easily lead to bloodshed. Up to early afternoon no untoward incident had occurred. This was due to the attitude taken by Premier Canalejas and the ministry and the orders issued to Gen. Weyler, captain-general of Catalonia, to put down more feebly any revolt.

Throughout Spain troops were held at their barracks ready for instant service. Every officer and soldier on leave had rejoined his command at daylight.

The danger of rioting appeared greatest at Barcelona, where the government refused to authorize processions and manifestations at Ferrer's tomb.

Those wishing to take part in such gatherings were informed that if they visited the cemetery to place flowers upon the grave of the Republican leader they must do so individually and not in a body.

Even the assembling of small groups was prohibited.

The recent encouragement that Spanish Republicans found in the success of the revolution in Portugal was a source of special concern as there are rumors that the outbreak at Lisbon was planned originally for today and was to have coincided with a Republican uprising in Spain. What, if any, revolutionary plans have been cherished by the Republicans is a matter of doubt to the government, which, however, early determined to take no chances and prepared for the worst today.

TROOPS ARE BARCELONANS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BARCELONA, Oct. 13.—The first anniversary of the execution of Prof. Francisco Ferrer, the founder of the modern schools, passed off without incident. The city was a veritable armed camp. Large bodies of police and civil guards patrolled the streets, while the garrison remained in barracks under command of Captain-General Weyler.

FORCES BID UP STOCK PRICES.

NEW FACTORS BROADEN DAY'S SPECULATION.

Tradera Suspicious, Declare Rise is Artificial—Short Selling Intimidates Bear Faction—Government Report of Bumper Crops is Potent Factor in the Dealings.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The stock market today gave convincing evidence of the increased working of the speculative spirit in the expansion and the broadening of the dealings. The representation with which stocks were brought and priced did not evidence the entry of new forces in the market. The traders element showed its suspicion of the conditions by accepting the advances, putting out short lines at various stages and by the general conviction that the rise was artificial and designed to afford a favorable basis for distributing recommendations in the shape of great private backing. However, the bear element was absorbed in such fashion as to intimidate the bear faction, which seemed to cover at the first sign of strength. The closing flurry, which were received in enthusiastic and briskly advanced price rose to the supposition that newly-formed pools were taking hold. The impulse for market speculation, which were generally retained at the end of the day. The speculative factor most relied to as furnishing the motive force for the upward was the government crop report of Monday and the definite evidence it furnished that this year's harvest would yield the largest increment to the country's wealth in its history. The railroad strike in France seemed to injure financial markets both abroad and here unruffled. The statement issued in the annual report of the Rio Tinto Copper Mining Company that a restriction of output had been agreed upon with the American producers, gave an upward impetus to the copper group. Yet trade were firm. Total sales for the day were 1,200,000. U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE.

Oil Stocks Hold the Boards and Most of Them Make Heavy Gains. Big Business.

Oil stocks on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange are still soaring upward, and the end is not yet. As much business was transacted yesterday as in the entire weeks, and the value of the stocks changing hands mounted into the thousands of dollars.

Amongst the heaviest traders were California Midway Oil Company, Mexican Petroleum Limited common, Union Oil and Cleveland, all of which made substantial gains. Over 20,000 shares of Consolidated Midway changed hands and over 80,000 shares of California Midway. Ten shares of American Petroleum common sold at 12.50, and United Oil gained four points to 8.25 on the day.

The caller was almost exhausted when it was all over, and the brokers knew they had been in a battle. The market was entirely monopolized by the oil issues.

SALMAGUNDI.

By Tom Fitch.

While journeying across the California desert beyond the Salton Sea, I beheld a mirage. The air, curdled with the heat arising from the arid plain, became a glimmering sheet of translucent vapor, between the eye and the shimmering distance which softly melted into the mountains. Then at the base of those mountains I beheld a line of flowering up billows of foam and spume, with islands of green glimpsing their shapes on the placid waters that encircled their feet. On this sea were ships with well-fashioned hulls, full wide-spreading sails. There were graceful rocks also, and beating breakers and life boats with men tugging at the oars.

It was a mirage, a picture written with the electric pen of Nature upon the parchment, hot from the press of the tongued fancies. In her lurid way strong men have trusted themselves to fatal deception, and beasts, with lapping tongues, and knotted with water greed, have gnashed their teeth at her beautiful garments of fateful hue, and lain down to die.

Who can account for a mirage? In the making of it Art has been outtried in pictorial effects. Here the shadows have been filtered from daintiest cobalt, and the bath of oscurial glints has been borrowed from the unfathomed deeps of heaven. Ask modern science to account of the wonder and he will hide his forged oddity of phrases shamedly away and say: "It is only mirage, one of nature's cleverest tricks."

And what more is life?

Well has the poet said "'Tis better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all."

The influence of the genuine passion is an inspiration to higher thinking, finer life, gentler judgments, and loftier deeds. No man can be possessed by love for a good woman without being thereby moved upward on all the lines of existence. Temptation cannot touch him, even as damps cannot dim a diamond, for its facets and angles of light will never permit the joy to abide upon them. From the hour that his heart is touched with the electric passion the lover is in harmony with all the right. The waters tinkle and the birds sing for him with sweeter notes; the sunlight is more radiant and the flowers are robed with a softer purple. The woman who has evoked the one desire of a man's life may become as dead to him as the occupant of an unmasked tomb, but the life itself will live with him to enrich his life, and pass with him into the other world.

There are experiences in life that can never be forgotten. Time rolls by, and against the door of the mausoleum where we buried our dead out of sight for years may have piled events and memories and distractions, and the passion which we once thought immortal may now an episode, and by and by a dream, and at last a vague and misty remembrance, and one day, as the thought stalks forward and we sweep away all obstructions, and the doors of the tomb are reopened, and a hand of our heart come forth, leading to us sometimes the joys of the morning, and sometimes the bitterness of a new death.

In 1870 I was in Paris and visited among other places, the Luxemburg Gallery. There was a painting representing the army of the first Napoleon crossing the Rhine into Germany. I called to my companion that in order to show impartiality there should be a companion picture of Emperor William's forces marching into Paris. A suggestion aroused the ire of a Frenchman and he turned upon me with a volley of "mercres." I was not to be thus browbeaten without a murmur, and I replied in language more eloquent than parliamentary in which I commented upon his dispicable character and career. He sputtered and handed me a card and demanded mine, with the information in broken English that his seconds would wait upon me. I had no cards, did not propose to submit to the ignominy and inconvenience of writing my name on a piece of paper, so I handed him a card, which I happened to have in my pocket, a card of a hotel of mine from St. Louis, who was then living at a neighboring hotel, and the incident was, as I supposed, closed.

My friends in due course waited upon the Frenchman, in response to the challenge, said that there must be some mistake about it. He admitted that he had visited the Luxemburg Gallery and had been doing so generously that he was not quite himself, and if he had inadvertently insulted Monsieur Victoire he tendered his apology. But my friends were after the blood of the proud Teuton. Their principal was one of the best swordsmen in Paris, and accept no apology and plainly intimated that my friend was a coward. Thereupon the Monsieur of that gentleman asserted that he allowed that while he had unconsciously given offense, yet he was willing to fight on general principles. My damned frog-eating Frenchman was spoiling for a fight, and the challenged party be named the duelists as the weapon. The seconds protested that such weapons were barbarous and not recognized by French code. Then my friend said he had use rifles at sixty paces. They were duplicates. He told them that he did not consent to fight with a weapon about which he knew nothing, that he was busy, and that they could choose between the window and the door as a means of exit. They took the door and that ended the affair.

Shakespeare expressed the truth when he said "it is better to bear the ills we have than fly to others that we know not of." The only man who can commit suicide is he who believes beyond the power of man to destroy his belief, that his life will end with the death of his body. And he makes a mistake.

We all have to take the journey to the other country sooner or later. Sometime come to, depart we must, we will, go with a first-class ticket. Why should anybody be in a premature passage as a stowaway, with a chance of being sent down the furnace-room to shovel coal?

Is there any less murder if a man commits it on his own body? Is it not better to enter the House of Eternal Rest boldly as an invited guest than to break in through the cellar like a burglar?

If you are in debt either financially or otherwise, go to work like a man and pay up.

There is a way n which to pay a debt and get rid of it. You cannot get rid of it by running away from it. It will follow you and find you out, and harass you no matter where you may go, on this side or the other side. The laws of bankruptcy can give a discharge from an honest debt, but the court of death, and if has no forum where the insolvent presents his petition into Court without being called. What is the use of not getting rid of your body? It is not you.

"We're Hungry

for adventure. We're only boys and girls, a little bit grown up, but still stirred by martial music, thrilled by fire horses, lured by tales of subtle intrigue and splendid daring. We're tired of reading reams of stuff we care little about to get a little we care a lot about. Give us some stories that grip. Give us a magazine of Adventure." And that's what we've done. Look at this.

LAMBASA, Oct. 4th.—This kingdom is in a ferment over the mystery surrounding the burial of King Maldio. In the middle of the impressive ceremony an unknown man, apparently an Englishman, broke through the guard and smashed the glass of the royal coffin, shouting—"The King is Alive." The man was seized and thrown into a dungeon, the ceremony abruptly stopped, and the company dismissed. Former Queen Horstia announced to-night that the king had been privately buried.

There is a story being whispered about that the dead king was later seen struggling to escape from the Queen's Guard in the court-yard of the prison where the mysterious foreigner is incarcerated. There are rumors that the king and the foreigner have both escaped and there are hints at poison plots, in which a certain royal lady is said to be not above suspicion.

SOUNDS like an adventure story doesn't it? It is. It's the beginning of "Can a Man be True?"—an adventure story that is the real, real thing. You'll read it, and keep reading it. In fact if you really want to get away from the hard grind of the daily mill, if you want to get 192 pages of stories that have "something doing all the time" you'll get a copy of The Ridgway Company's brand-new magazine

CERTAIN QUICK CURES

No Detention From Family, Home or Occupation

M. S. CHENOWETH, M. D.
THE MAYAN SPECIALIST

The photograph which I publish above is one taken of me in May, 1910, and is a perfect likeness. I do not hide under a false name, nor publish a false picture, nor make a false statement of any kind. I personally conduct my own office, see my patients and treat them personally from the time they come to me until I discharge them as cured.

I am the oldest licensed and largest established specialist in California. I am a graduate of one of the largest medical colleges in the United States. I was physician of outdoor clinic, St. John's Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., 1888-1889, and railway surgeon on Harriman lines of Colorado for many years. Member of American Medical Society 26 years and the author and publisher of medical works of recognized authority. My years of experience, the right kind of experience, together with the cures I have effected, have earned me the title, The Master Specialist.

VARICOCELE-HYDROCELE

Varicocele causes more human wrecks than any other diseases of man. These weary, distorted veins of stagnant blood rob up human vitality and destroy manly vigor. It is responsible for poor development of the parts and denies strength to otherwise healthy men. A few days at most is all I require to effect a permanent cure. Not weeks or months of endless doctoring. You do not lose any time. Suffer no pain whatever and have no after trouble.

My treatment for hydrocele is entirely out ritual with me. No matter of how long standing, or what the cause may be, I effect a permanent cure in a few days. Swelling immediately disappears. No pain, no loss of time, no detention from business—just a permanent cure.

WEAKNESS

I have unlimited testimonials in my office for the cure of weakness, which for obvious reasons I do not make public.

What is commonly termed functional weakness is generally a symptom of prostatic disorder. To stimulate activity by the use of powerful tonics is an easy matter, but such results are merely temporary drug effects. Most doctors treat "weakness" in this manner, but they never look to cure the real cause of the derangement. I am the only physician employing scientific and successful methods. I use no tonics at all. My treatment is a local one entirely and corrects every abnormal condition of that vital center, the prostate gland. My cures are real cures and are permanent.

Hernia, Rupture, Piles, Fistula, Specific Blood Poison

A neglected rupture may prove fatal. Many have proven so. The smaller it may be the greater the danger of strangulation; then there is little, if any, pain, no more than in the stage prove fatal. A few days and a permanent cure is effected. No loss of time nor detention from business. Also all forms of Piles and Fistula, after the failure of other physicians and remedies. My cures is permanent and those undergoing treatment do so without pain, inconvenience or loss of time.

Scientific treatment only should be used in combatting this loathesome disease. I cure Blood Poison by methods of my own devising, which introduce my remedies directly into the blood, purifying it, neutralizing and expelling poison from the system. Mercury, Blood Vines formed supplies and rebuilds the tissues in such a way that the patient receives his normal state of health, strength and soundness.

I guarantee to cure these diseases just as I say I do, or refund every dollar paid to me. If I fail, the fault is mine, not yours. Why should you pay? I have no home treatment; I do not treat by mail. All patients must come to the office for treatment.

FREE CONSULTATION AND ADVICE

I offer not only FREE Consultation and Advice, but of every case that comes to me I will make a Careful Examination and Diagnosis without charge. Afflicted persons should not neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about their trouble.

My offices are open all day from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., and Sundays from 10 to 12.

DR. M. S. CHENOWETH 453½ S. Spring St. Los Angeles

Varicocele, Hydrocele, Hernia, Piles, Fistula

I have known Dr. M. S. Chenoweth for 25 years personally and intimately, and can recommend him as a physician and as a man whose character is above reproach.

JACOB EPLER,
Glendora, Cal.

Dr. Chenoweth cured a twenty-year standing case of piles for me and the cure is permanent and complete. For the last 5 years it was a constant source of irritation to me when on my feet. I had tried almost every local remedy that I heard of without any relief. In July of this year Dr. Chenoweth treated me and I am a well man now. I am free to recommend the doctor for piles.

M. F. BROWN,
General Merchandise, Highland, Cal.

Dr. Chenoweth cured me of Varicocele and Rupture from which I was suffering. He has made a perfect cure after a few treatments. There was no pain and I was not confined to my bed, but able to attend to my work as usual.

HARRY C. RICHARDSON,
1212 Wilson Ave., So. Pasadena, Cal.

Dr. Chenoweth cured me of a large hydrocele perfectly, and I am sure it is permanent.

R. F. OAKMAN,
Colehaven, Cal.

Dr. Chenoweth treated me very successfully after reading under his care and I am cured of the ailment from which I was suffering.

CHAS. SAYE,
1412 Everett St., L. A.

I was treated by another specialist in Los Angeles for Varicocele, using what he called the ligature method. I suffered intensely without receiving a cure. Then was over a year ago. Dr. Chenoweth cured the condition promptly without pain.

J. LINTHICUM.

Hundreds of reliable testimonials on Piles, Fistula, Hernia, Diseases and Weakness at office for inspection that for obvious reasons I do not publish.

The Fear of Humbug

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine.

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many pride themselves in their acuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in faithfully testing the claims made of a preparation so reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and appetite and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

They are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Hurt By Fall.

W. A. Tarsey, living at No. 216 East First street fell down two flights of stairs in his home last night and was severely bruised. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital and later returned to his home.

Lawn Fart Postponed.

The lawn party which was to have been given today, by the ladies of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, at the home of Robert Marsh, has been postponed until next Friday on account of the impromising weather.

For Pioneers.

All members of the Los Angeles County Pioneers are requested to meet at their hall, No. 115½ South Spring street, with their badges tomorrow at six o'clock P. M. sharp to attend the dedication services of the Federal building, at Main and Temple streets.

Hollywood Cemetery Argument.

The Public Welfare Committee of the City Council held a hearing yesterday afternoon on the petition to restrict the burials in Hollywood Cemetery to the forty acres now improved. There was considerable warm talk on both sides, and the committee took the question under advisement for report on next Tuesday.

Plaintiff Loses.

In Judge Wilbur's court yesterday the action brought by C. Watkins to recover $500 from the Puritas Coffee and Tea Company was dismissed. Watkins complained that he had purchased a coffee route of the defendants for $500, that was not what he says it had been represented to him.

Incorporations.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the Pacific Fruit and Alfalfa Land Company, capital stock, $200,000, incorporators, A. A. and G. E. Wilson, S. E. Knudson, C. P. and H. R. Schneider, subscribed, $2000; Union Typewriter Company, capital stock, $10,000, in corporaters, J. B. Hawkins, C. C. and Louise M. Ward.

Motorcyclist Hurt.

While riding his motorcycle in East First street about 7 o'clock last night, Walter Wilson, 21 years old, was struck by a street car and severely bruised. At the Receiving Hospital, where he was taken in a police patrol wagon, which was called to the scene, it was said that he probably had a fracture at the base of the skull.

No Cars on Alvarado Street.

The Streets and Boulevards Committee yesterday sustained the Mayor's veto of the ordinance declaring Alvarado street a boulevard, from Seventh street to Hoover street, and will submit to the City Council another ordinance which, while prohibiting street cars on that part of the street, admits of general traffic. In that shape it is acceptable to the residents of the street who are only interested in excluding the cars.

Church Vs. Church.

The Second Baptist Church of this city brought an action in the Superior Court yesterday to oust the Second Baptist Church of Long Beach, from what is known as lot No. 1, block 2, in Long Beach, which it is alleged, the beach congregation is occupying without the consent of the plaintiffs, which claims to be the owners of the property. The prayer of the petition is for the possession of the lot and a judgment at the rate of $50 a month while it is occupied by the defendants.

Railway Mail Auxiliary Meets.

The Los Angeles Woman's Auxiliary to the Railway Mail Association, held its first meeting of this season yesterday at Echo park, with Mmes. E. McNarty, E. O. Phelps and J. E. Herbst as hostesses. Mrs. F. J. B. Moore was unanimously re-elected president; Mrs. D. McDonald as vice-president. Work for the coming year was discussed. The president read an interesting paper on "current events," bringing to mind the late passing of Florence Nightingale, world famous for her noble work during the Crimenian War.

Driver Reports Robbery.

Preston Weed, 15 years old, employed as a driver for Bishop & Company, reported to police last night that about 7 o'clock Wednesday night a man grasped the bridle of his horse, ordered him to get out of the wagon and then robbed him of $3 in cash and a check for $3 made payable to the company.

The hold-up occurred at Chicago and Brooklyn streets while several pedestrians were nearby, but was done so quietly that the man had time to escape before the boy could call them.

Master Chee Fined, He Says.

James W. Marin of Newhall was arrested yesterday on a charge of having assaulted J. D. Green and inflicted numerous injuries on him. He is alleged to have beaten him with a buggy whip until it broke, pounded him with a box until it was made into kindling wood, and then used his feet to put on the finishing touches. When Marin was taken to Justice Pierce's court for arraignment he declared that his defense would be that he had once been in jeopardy for this offense. He asserts that he was fined by a Newhall justice.

Protector for the Mayor.

Among the names of the emergency policemen appointed on Monday night, was that of Frank White, colored exmessenger in the office of Mayor Harper. He is the first man upon whom the axe of reform fell when Mayor Alexander took the oath, the latter saying he had no need of a messenger, recently, the Mayor has been receiving many anonymous letters, and it was thought wise to give him the protection of an officer and yesterday White stepped into the Mayor's office under special detail as a policeman, to occupy his old chair by the Mayor's door.

Auto Breaks His Leg.

While driving a wagon on Seventeenth street near Oak street late yesterday afternoon, Thomas McCall, 58 years old, was thrown to the pavment by an automobile striking his rig. He was picked up helpless by the police and hurried to the Receiving Hospital where it was found that his right leg was broken. The limb was set by Dr. Kidder, police surgeon and he was then taken to his home No. 917½ South Main street. The automobile did not stop and the identity of the driver is not known. The number of it was secured, however.

HOPE TO HELP THE INDUSTRY.

LOCAL OPTION LAW SHACKLES COUNTY WINERIES.

SUPERVISORS REFUSE GENERAL AMENDMENT TO RULES.

SOP IN SALE OF BRANDY IS FINALLY PERMITTED.

The efforts of the big wine manufacturers to produce exemption from the operation of the local option law, which was recently passed, were rebuffed by the Board of Supervisors yesterday.

The only concession which was granted the wine men was the privilege of disposing of the brandy which they manufacture. Under the conditions which were created by the local option ordinance, they had a right to manufacture the brandy, but were liable to be prosecuted if they sold it.

Dr. E. R. Chapman, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, voiced the sentiments of a delegation of prohibitionists, who were present to give the Supervisors moral support, to not change the wide scope of the present license question.

Guy B. Barham, a revenue broker and former deputy revenue collector, spoke in the interests of the legitimate winery owners and sought to support the amendment to the ordinance which he introduced Monday.

The Federal government has evidenced interest in the action, which might be taken concerning the brandy, as it furnishes the chief source of internal revenue in this district.

When the license ordinance was passed there was no classification of brandy in it. The manufacturers were compelled to suspend the sale of it as soon as the law went into effect. This feature was explained to have been an oversight and a patch will be put on the ordinance to rectify it. Where the law now refers to "wine," in the future it will mention vinous products.

CLASSIFICATION HURTS.

Barham explained to the Supervisors that the bona fide manufacturers of wine objected to being classified with groceries, saloons and liquor dealers.

He asserted that they did not desire to be subjected to the mere whims and passions of their neighbors. He told them that the men he represented had millions invested in the wine industry and that their credit would be diminished if it were within the power of the people in their districts to put them out of business with the ballot.

The fact that the legitimate makers of wine pay thousands of dollars a day to the farmers and ranchers was pointed out. Their attention was directed to the fact that the government has fostered the industry since its inception and that it is the only manufacture upon which a direct bounty is placed.

Barham presented a report from a special officer who has been employed almost to a month to patrol the Alhambra precinct, where the local option agitation seems to center. The Sierra Madre Vintage Company and the Golden Park Winery are in this district.

They were accused of having been the cause of much drunkenness and disorder in this precinct when they applied for renewals of their licenses last spring. To show that they desired to obviate this condition as much as any residents, they voluntarily hired a special officer.

OUTSIDERS TO BLAME.

Robert Stillwell was employed to preserve the peace and keep watch of the wineries. His report, which was filed yesterday, shows that he has dealt with thirteen cases of drunkenness. Only two of them were produced by liquor purchased in the district. In one instance it was obtained by false pretenses and in the other a resident of Pasadena bought it to take home, but sat down nearby and consumed it.

Dr. Chapman asserted that the people have an inherent right to say whether liquor shall be manufactured in the district in which they live and that if they desire to oust existing wineries, the property question should not be considered.

He declared that the officer's report was out of place at the meeting and that it should be submitted only to the people to influence them in casting their ballots. He was seconded in his declaration by another of the delegation.

An aged man, with a white beard, slowly advanced to the chairman's desk and asked for the privilege of speaking, without giving his name.

ONE POINT OF VIEW.

"To discourage the wine manufacture is only second to the question of discouraging the citrus industry," he declared. "Let those drink who desire to have liquor, and restrain those who cannot restrain themselves.

"The use of wine and beer advance temperance. Look at the foreign countries. You do not find the drunkenness among those who use these liquors, but among those who indulge in stronger drink."

Supervisor McCable and Eldridge opposed the original ordinance when it was passed. McCable yesterday assured the other Supervisors that the amendment proposed was in line with his idea, but that he was compelled to submit to the majority.

The ordinance was also found to be weak in respect to the minimum quantities which licensed wineries are allowed to sell. There was a difference as to whether the liquor was in bulk or in bottles. At the suggestion of Deputy Dist. Atty. Shaw, the minimum was placed at two gallons in all cases.

NEW STEAMSHIP OFFICE.

Southern Pacific's Atlantic Lines Will Be Represented in This City and San Francisco.

Phil K. Gordon, general agent of the Sunset Route and the Southern Pacific Company Atlantic Steamship lines has authorized the opening of offices in Los Angeles and San Francisco, tomorrow. The Pacific Coast territory will be under the control of the general agent, who will have offices in San Francisco. This territory will embrace the entire Southwest and the West Coast of Mexico.

The new offices will have charge of the business turned over to the Southern Pacific lines operating out of New Orleans to Havana and to New York.

The local officers will be Grove Ketchum, district passenger agent; W. A. Golden, traveling passenger agent, and Roy C. Bryant, city passenger agent. C. W. Jennings and J. E. McFadden will be the men in charge of the new San Francisco office

TO BUILD GREAT HOTEL.

Mammoth Hostelry of Ten Stories Proposed for Hill and Seventh Streets.

A modern hotel of ten or more stories in height will, in all probability, be erected on the northeast corner of Seventh and Hill streets, within the next two years, by Dwight H. Hart, who yesterday purchased 37 feet on Hill immediately adjoining on the north the corner owned by him and occupied by the Vollmer-Jantzen Company. The piece acquired has a depth of 140 feet to an alley, and the purchase price is reported at $113,000 cash. Jacob Frankinfield was the seller.

Yesterday's buy gives Mr. Hart a total frontage on Hill of 126 feet by 80 feet on Seventh, a site which he regards as admirable for a high class hotel. Architects Morgan, Walls & Morgan have been commissioned to prepare tentative plans for such a building. The Vollmer-Jantzen lease extends to August 1, 1911, and the active preparation for the projected building can not begin until that time. Mr. Hart stated last night, however, that the purchase of yesterday had been made with the definite end of securing an adequate site for a mammoth hostelry.

STILL ANOTHER LIVING JUMP.

HIGHER PRICE NOW PUT UPON CONDENSED MILK.

Manufacturers See to It That Wholesalers and Retailers Have Little Stock on Hand and Then Advance the Figures—Consumers Will Begin Paying at Once.

Because fresh milk right from the dairy costs 10 cents a quart in Los Angeles, and not quite as much in all other parts of the United States, according to the handlers, the manufacturers of evaporated and condensed milks have all increased their price to the wholesaler. The market on the condensed milk has gone to $4.25 a case, and all of the 5-cent sizes have been marked up to 5½ cents a dozen, decreasing the profit of the grocer.

The housewife who has been buying three cans of the 10-cent size for 25 cents or six of the 5-cent cans for the same price will lose in buying in quantity. It will be just as cheap to buy only one can a day in the future as to buy a week's supply at a time. The grocers have all announced a straight 10-cent price on quantity lots less than an entire case, when they will share the figures just a little.

The new arrangement will go into effect at once, if it is not already working. The manufacturers of evaporated milks saw to it that the wholesalers had little or no stock on hand, and these in turn saw that there was no retail dealer with a big amount of milks on the shelves awaiting an advance. This was accomplished by refusing to sell large bills of goods at any time during the past three months, putting off the filling of orders as long as possible.

The manufacturers never took the consumer into consideration for a minute, nor even figured as far as the retail dealer. They advanced, according to the statement of one manufacturer in a letter to a wholesaler, to meet the increased cost of production. At the same time the suggestion to the retailer was made to put up the price of the goods from three for a quarter to two for a quarter, which in the end would net the retailer still greater profit than he is getting at present.

"We have had to follow the market on raw milk," writes one manufacturer. "We would, however, in the face of the advance, prefer to see our goods selling at 10 cents a can than two for a quarter in order to keep the amount consumed as large as at present."

The local milk dealers have not advanced their prices on raw milk, but should the advance on the canned product cause a greater consumption of the kind that comes directly from the cow, the chances are for another rise to an all around 10 cent price with the option of selling at 11 if desirable. At present fresh milk is selling at 9 and 10 cents in various parts of the city.

GROWING.

ADD STEAMERS TO THE RUN.

BATES & CHEESEBOROUGH PROPOSE TO INCREASE SERVICE.

Seven Vessels Instead of Three Are to Ply On the Seattle-San Francisco-Panama Run — But Three of Them Will Go Only as Far North as San Francisco.

H. S. Bates, head of the firm of Bates & Cheseborough of San Francisco announced Wednesday, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Seattle, that he will charter seven steamers for the Seattle-San Francisco Panama run, instead of three as previously announced. Some of the steamers will make Los Angeles a port of call.

In the first plans of the new line between Atlantic and Pacific ports, via the government railroad on the Isthmus of Panama, there were to be three vessels on the Atlantic side and three on the Pacific side. Already five vessels have been chartered on the Pacific Coast and it is planned to charter two more.

Three of the vessels chartered on the Pacific Coast will run only as far north as San Francisco, while four will run into Seattle. With these four steamers it is planned to maintain a fourteen-day schedule, in order to compete with the service of the Hawaiian-American line, which maintains a bi-monthly schedule via the Tehuantepec Railroad.

Yesterday marked the opening of the new service, when the steamer Mackinaw, the biggest of the fleet, was due to sail from Seattle for Panama with a cargo of nearly 20,000 cases of salmon. The regular sailings every fourteen days will not begin until the first of the year.

HOW TO GET HUNG JURIES.

SCHEME WORKED BY ORGANIZED LAWBREAKERS.

POLICE SHOW UP METHOD TO SAVE PICKETS.

UNIONITES TRY TO CLOG THE POLICE COURT.

No end of trouble is experienced by Capt. Lenhausen and attaches of the City Prosecuting Attorney's office in obtaining jurymen to try union laborites charged with picketing, disturbing the peace and other brands of law-breaking, who possess minds free from the contamination of unionistic policies. The upholders of law have endeavored to obtain only unbiased men, who will deal with the offenders as the law ordains, but to date they have been only partially successful.

When the unionites launched their plan to have every striking metal worker and brewery employe arrested, and ask for jury trials, thus clogging the wheels of justice, information was gleaned beforehand concerning the method in vogue for procuring juries for Police Court trials. The laborites also obtained the names of the officers engaged in the work, and where they would most likely seek jurymen.

They then mapped out a plan of campaign to hinder the efforts of the venire-officer and force upon him men affiliated with organized labor.

In that way they succeeded in saving their friends from sentences on the rock-pile and caused a series of hung juries.

That is why, according to the police, so many venires were necessary before a jury in any of the cases was obtained. In some of these venires of over 100 men were exhausted before the full panel was obtained. Days were spent in the examination of these, and valuable time that should have been allotted by the various courts to other cases was wasted. It was, in fact, but one of the many plans laid to clog the wheels of justice.

Since the first of the labor ventres was levied, several weeks ago, over a score of officers have been used by Capt. Lenhausen in the work. Each week a new man has to be selected. In that way the identity of the venire-officer is kept secret for a few days at least. That is why, within the past few weeks, no union men have been called upon to serve for jury duty. That is also why so many convictions have been returned against the laborites.

The process of obtaining Police Court juries is different from the system employed by the attaches of the Superior Courts. There a list of veniremen is made out by the District Attorney and they are supposed to serve for the entire term.

Owing to the short term of service necessary for Police Court juries, the Superior Court system could not be employed. Instead, a patrolman specially chosen for the work, is ordered out.

If a man's personal appearance suits the officer, only two questions are put to him before he is accepted—whether or not he is a citizen, and if his name was on the last assessment roll.

TO DEFEAT JUSTICE.

If he is able to answer both in the affirmative he is notified by the officer that he must report at one of the Police Courts on a certain day for jury duty.

The methods employed by the unions to defeat the efforts of the jury officer to obtain a clean type of citizenship for his jury, show the cool calculating hand of the experienced jury-fixer. The best dressed strikers only were selected, and those who could affect the appearance of business men or merchants. These men would watch for the jury-officer, and place themselves in his way, until they would finally succeed in attracting his attention. Of course they would answer the necessary citizenship and property questions in the affirmative and appear not the least perturbed when told to report the following day for jury duty.

Day after day this plan would work to their satisfaction. Several venires were exhausted apparently without reason, and many of the juries were "hung." Though the evidence in every case was strong against the accused, for some reason, unknown to the fairest judicial minds, no convictions resulted. Then Capt. Lenhausen caused an investigation to be made, and the tampering methods of the unionists were discovered.

That is why the identity of the venire-officer is kept secret, and that is why so many convictions have been returned of late against the defiant lawbreakers of organized labor.

ARE FIGHTING SHY.

Dreading the outcome of future trials of labor union business and pickets because of the dynamiting of The Times Building and the assassination of many employees, an outrage which took away the sympathy of law-abiding citizens from their cause, the attorneys engaged to defend the pickets are taking steps to try the most petty cases first.

To test the attitude of juries, the labor union attorneys, will endeavor to have a picket case tried next Monday. They fear, however, for C. M. Feider, who is charged with battery in connection with the riot at the Alexandria Annex on September 2, when Louis Jeffries was killed by a falling beam, and the unionites attacked the men who were carrying the corpse from the building.

Feider was to appear in Police Judge Williams' court next Tuesday, but yesterday morning his attorneys asked a continuance because, they said, they have so many other cases coming to trial about that time that they need more time to prepare for this one. The continuance was granted, and the case set for November 1.

Feider was arrested once for picketing, but the present charge is more serious. When the body of Jeffries was being carried from the building under construction, the mob of unionites attacked the workmen and Scott was terribly beaten on the head. In the Receiving Hospital he declared that Feider struck him when he was unable to defend himself.

In the Superior Court, yesterday, the hearing of the informations against Charles F. Stevens, Charles F. Grow and Claude Mars, strikers who made the murderous attack upon Edward C. Hoffman, at Watts, September 19, was postponed until next Monday. The accused are fighting shy of a trial.

FOR HIGHER VALUES.

Railroads Propose To Pay Greater Losses on Baggage While in Transit, Under Conditions.

Railway companies of the United States are attempting to arrange a baggage schedule that will not only insure holders of baggage checks from the loss of their property, but also will protect the companies in case of damage or loss.

At present full fare tickets permit the carrying of 150 pounds of baggage of $100 value on all lines, while half fare tickets are rated in proportion.

Under the old rulings there has been no protection for baggage of greater value, unless the express companies were called in to handle the baggage under the regular rate of charge.

With the new rulings the railway companies are arranging to handle baggage valued up to $500, on condition that an extra charge for valuation may be made where the value is given at from $100 to $500.

Beyond this amount the business will not be handled by the railway companies at all unless the shipper is willing to accept a valuation not in excess of $500.

There are other plans in progress, but the above is the one that is meeting the approval of traffic officials.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR THIS CITY.

CHEMICAL PLANT TO SUPPLY WHOLESALERS HERE.

Prominent Men With One Hundred Thousand Dollars Behind Enterprise and Entire Southwest Will Benefit—Los Angeles Harbor Gateway for Manufactured Product and Raw Material.

The latest addition to the rapidly increasing industrial plants of Los Angeles is a chemical factory, the first in the Southwest, which is to be built at once in the Vernon district. The institution will occupy a five-acre tract between Santa Fe and Compton avenues near Slauson avenue. The site has already been purchased, the plans for four buildings have been drawn and the $100,000 capital has been subscribed.

Henry Blumenberg, of the Braun Chemical Company, is at the head of the new enterprise. Associated with him are F. C. Ripley, son of the president of the Santa Fe Railroad, W. D. Stephens, C. A. Pallows, W. W. Woods and Ward Chapman. The corporation will be known as the Southern California Chemical Company and will manufacture a large part of the staple chemicals sold in the Southwest.

The plant will represent an investment of between $25,000 and $40,000 and the balance will be invested in materials, which will be shipped in through the Los Angeles harbor in large quantities. The field for such a plant is ripe. The saving in freight rates on chemicals now consumed in the Southwest will be large enough to justify the operation of such a plant.

The factory will consist of three buildings with a separate powerhouse. The buildings will be thoroughly modern in construction with every precaution against fire. A force of twenty men will be employed at the start and will gradually be increased. The present consumption of chemicals amounts to over 60° carloads a year. At least half of this supply can be manufactured at the new plant.

Among the manufactured products of the new plant will be sublime sulphur, roll sulphur, powdered sulphur, salsoda, Paris white, Venetian red, copperas, sulphuric acid, muriatic acid, nitric acid, carbon bi-sulphide, glauber salts, oxide of iron, tri-sodium phosphate, chipped soap and super-phosphate.

The business of the Braun Chemical Company has doubled within the past fourteen months. This rapid increase in the demand for chemicals has led to the organization of the new company and the building of the plant. With a market practically assured from the beginning the new enterprise has a prosperous outlook.

Mr. Blumenberg is also promising to the citrus-growers of Southern California an increased and cheaper supply of fertilizer. Nitrate is the chief demand of the orange tree and the supply is coming from South America. Through an organization of the fertilizer shippers Mr. Blumenberg proposes to charter a sailing vessel and land the supply in Los Angeles at a cheaper price than is now paid.

DIES OF ALCOHOLISM.

C. W. Inskeep, who was removed to the County Hospital Tuesday afternoon when found beneath a tree at Twenty-fifth and Alameda streets suffering from alcoholism, died yesterday morning. No inquest will be held, the Coroner declaring the cause of death clear. The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of John R. Paul. Nothing is known of the man or his family.

ON AN OLD WARRANT.

The examination of Ygnacio Rivera, arrested Tuesday on a two-year-old warrant charging forgery, has been set for next Wednesday. Bail was fixed by Police Judge Williams at $2000. Rivera remained in jail.

STOCK BATTLE FOR CONTROL.

ALL NIGHT AND DAY BANK IS THE REAL PRIZE.

COURT HOLDS RECEIVER MAY VOTE PLEDGED SHARES.

LONG LEGAL FIGHT LOST BY OLD DIRECTORS.

The present officers and directors of the All Night and Day Bank made the last stand in Department Five of the Superior Court, yesterday, to prevent the reorganization of the concern, and failed.

Today, the 1155 shares of the capital stock of the bank will be voted by the receiver, the Title Insurance and Trust Company, in the action brought by Hugh Blue, trustee, against the All Night and Day Bank, Newton J. Skinner, president, and M. J. Connor, secretary, at a meeting of the stockholders to be held at the banking house, when, if the programme is carried out, the present officers and board of directors of the bank will be ousted, and a new set of officials installed.

The action that will mark the proceedings of today, is the final outcome of litigation in the Superior Courts of this county, ever since last spring, when the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, through J. C. Brand, president, loaned to Skinner and other officials of the bank, about $80,000, with certain shares of capital stock of the institution pledged as collateral.

Other loans were made with similar security from other banks, and on the failure of the borrowers to make good the loan, the stock, aggregating in all 1155 shares, representing a loan of about $80,000, was sold, under the terms of the loan, to Hugh Blue, who acted as trustee for the parties interested.

FIGHT OVER STOCK.

Efforts were made by the officers of the All Night and Day Bank to set aside the sale, alleging that the stock hypothecaged by Skinner and Connor was not their personal property; that they had not been authorized by the real owners to put it up for the accommodation, and that therefore it should be released.

An order was made by the court requiring the officers of the bank to turn the stock over to Hugh Blue, as trustee, but the matter was appealed to the Supreme Court, where it was finally disposed of and the bank people lost.

The case came up yesterday on approval of the report of the receiver, the Title Insurance and Trust Company, together with the prayer of the receiver that it should be allowed to vote the 1155 shares of the bank stock at the meeting to be held today.

The report was approved, and an order made by the court that the receiver should be allowed to vote the stock in question in any manner that it was thought best for the interest of the stockholders.

MEETING CALLED FOR TODAY.

The report recited that the stock had been deposited with the receiver, and that on September 27, the latter had made a request to the officers of the bank to call a meeting of the stockholders, and it was further alleged that no such action had been taken, that the parties had refused to call such meeting.

But on the date given, the receiver, called a meeting of the stockholders with L. C. Brand, a stockholder, had to be held today, at 10 a. m., the object being the removal of the present officials of the bank and the substitution of others in their places.

It was also stated in the petition that the bank is running at a loss of $100 a day, or at the rate of $3000 a month, by reason of its methods of doing business, and this loss does not include bad loans, over-drafts, etc. It was further alleged that the concern had been improperly managed; that the capital stock has become impaired, and that it would be to the interests of the bank to have a new board of directors elected.

The prayer was that the receiver be given authority to vote the 1155 shares of stock in the manner and for the purposes set out in the report, and this was allowed by the court.

"EXAM." FOR ANNAPOLIS.

The committee appointed by Senator Flint to examine applicants for admission to the Annapolis Naval Academy, for which there are two vacancies will examine applicants on Tuesday, the 25th inst., in the directors room of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank 6th and Main streets. Applicants should send their names to W. J. Washburn, chairman of the committee. J. C. Drake and Judge Wilbur are the other members of the committee.

EXPANSION.

SURVEY IS COMPLETED FOR BURBANK TROLLEY.

NUMEROUS electric roads to Burbank have been built—on paper—but that promising suburb now has in sight one which is surveyed and staked and ready for the construction process. It is a road that does not follow any of the old routes sketched on maps, but bends off from the Glendale line at the Verdugo wash and follows the valley between the foothills and the river.

The Pacific Electric has completed a survey of the route. It has done this to provide the Burbank right-of-way committee with data upon which to carry out its part in the plans for building. They say they are pretty well assured of securing the necessary right of way and of being able to meet the conditions of the company so that the road will be built at once.

The new line, when built will open up some of the most desirable suburban property around Los Angeles. The foothills of San Fernando Valley for miles west of the present electric line have been improved with beautiful country homes. The residences of several millionaires dot the hills below which the new line will pass. One of the richest vineyards in the valley will be crossed.

There is some disappointment in that section because the line is not being extended from the terminus at Casa Verdugo as originally planned. Much of the land on Kenneth road was bought up several years ago when the road was expected to take that route. Other property owners believe that the foothill property will eventually be more desirable because it is not cut through by a railroad. In Burbank there is great enthusiasm over the prospective opening of a line.

At present an automobile stage is operated between Burbank and Glendale to make trolley connections with Los Angeles. A large amount of property has been purchased in and around the town and is only waiting the coming of the electric road for rapid development.

The selection of Verdugo wash for the right-of-way has added much to the feasibility of the plan. Property had become so valuable along the Glendale line that it was difficult to secure another opening but the wash which affords drainage for the flood waters of Verdugo canyon could not be utilized for any other purpose. After following the Verdugo wash for a short distance through the residence section of Casa Verdugo the new route branches off to follow a comparatively level grade along the foothills.

The Burbank right-of-way committee hopes to secure a beginning of construction by the first of the year. The length of the line to the center of Burbank is less than four miles, and construction will proceed rapidly when it is begun

PUBLIC SERVICE: CITY HALL AND COURTS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Board of Public Works yesterday instructed the City Engineer to require a deposit in advance covering office expenses, from citizens wishing to improve streets by private contract, as a guarantee that the work will be done. If the street is improved this money will be refunded.

Mrs. Gertrude Driggs was released from the County Jail under $6000 bail yesterday, three physicians certifying that she is suffering from heart trouble and Bright's disease.

D. F. Hogan, who brought an action yesterday against Harry L. Varrey for alleged illegal arrest, added $1000 to his bill for being kept from attending the funeral of a friend where he expected to officiate as one of the pall-bearers and a mourner.

AT THE CITY HALL.

PROTECTING STREET FUNDS.

CITY ENGINEER WILL COLLECT EXPENSE IN ADVANCE.

Private Contracts Too Often Abandoned After the Plans Have Been Made—Private Water Company Wants Rent for Gardena Fire Hydrants.

Dissatisfaction and loss have resulted in the office of the City Engineer, by granting privileges to improve certain streets by private contract, through failure to do the work after the privilege is given and the plans prepared by the engineer. This work takes the time of the office involving considerable expense in each case, and Engineer Hamlin yesterday asked that he be instructed by the Board of Public Works to require persons securing such privileges to pay the estimated expenses of the work on the part of the office, in advance of the plans and specifications being made. He was so instructed, and hereafter when residents of a street ask the privilege of improving it by private contract, they will at the same time be required to deposit enough money to cover the expenses of the preliminary work which will be returned to them, in case the work is done, but if it is not, it will be retained by the engineer.

FIRE COMMISSION.

GARDENA FIRE HYDRANTS.

At the meeting of the Fire Commission yesterday the Los Angeles County Water Company put in a claim for the rental of seven fire hydrants installed at Gardena, and was directed to take the matter to the City Council.

The history of the case is this. The people of Gardena want fire protection and promised to take care of the water rental, if the city provided for the hydrants, and seven were placed in that portion of Gardena within the city limits. Much to the surprise of the Fire Commission, the water company came up with its claim yesterday, but as the hydrants had been purchased by the Council, on petition of citizens of Gardena, the matter was handed back to that body for adjustment.

The American Olive Oil Company sent a check of $100 to the fire department, in recognition of the work of the fire companies at the fire which destroyed their establishment recently. It was added to the Firmen's Pension Fund.

Chief Ely preferred charges against Lieut. Edward Whalen of Engine Company No. 29, for intoxication, and the evidence will be heard on October 20.

The resignations of three firemen were accepted yesterday, they being among the emergency policemn appointed by the Police Commission at its last meeting.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

CITY LABOR SAVES MONEY.

On recommendation of the City Engineer, the City Council will be asked to order the opening of Hollenbeck Court, on Boyle Heights, from ten feet to forty feet, all the ground requisite being taken from the grounds of the Santa Fe Hospital. This is a street running from Chicago street to St. Louis street, between Sixth and Seventh, the latter being a block 1209 feet long, too long for pratically use, the engineer says, and he gives unqualified endorsement to the improvement.

In the matter building certain culverts on Adams street and Hobart boulevard, the City Engineer submitted a report to the Board of Public Works, showing under his instructions the work has been done by the city at cost of $1287, as against $1917 asked for the work by the lowest bidder, and a copy of the report was directed sent to the City Council for its information.

The assessment district for the paving of Hope street, between First and Temple streets, was approved yesterday and the work is ready to proceed.

FRAUD IN OLD CLOAK.

Such is Indicated in Allegations of Plaintiff in Suit Filed in Superior Court Yesterday.

Fraud in a familiar garb is indicated in a suit filed by Lawrence Sondheimer against P. B. McCabe and Al A. Crank in the Superior Court, yesterday.

Sondheimer says that on September 29, he met the defendants in this city and they informed him that they owned the controling interest in what they called the Lodwic Concentrator Company, also, a half interest in the Lampert patents, that had to do with the handling of ores—both propositions being in active demand by the mining men.

It is alleged that the defendants informed Sondheimer that they were looking for a likely young man who knew how to send out catalogues and mail matter from the office of the company, and for such a one they would be willing to pay $100 a month for the service. Would Sondheimer like the position? Oh, yes, he would, but stop a moment, there were conditions attached to the placing of the post, and one of these was that he should invest $1000 in the enterprise.

The plaintiff admits that he surrendered $600, in addition to giving eight notes of $50 for the balance of the payment of $1000. One of the notes was due on September 29, and the others were to be discharged on the 15th of each succeeding month until all were paid.

He discovered, he says, that the defendants had no interest in the alleged mining processes, that their representations were false. He asks for a rescission of the contract, the cancellation of the notes and the repayment of his $600.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

TWICE-CONVICTED MRS. DRIGGS TURNED LOOSE.

Health of the Forger So Critical That Court Consents To Release Her Under Bail of Six Thousand Dollars—Sureties Possess Valuable Properties.

Mrs. Gertrude Driggs, twice convicted of forging the signature of John Charnock to a lease of 137 acres of land near Palms, was released on $6000 bail yesterday, from the County Jail. The motion in her behalf was made before Judge Willis. Several months ago a similar motion was denied by Judge Davis. Her sureties are: Mrs. Hester Griffith, and her husband, E. Griffith, of Ocean Park; Mrs. Florence C. Thorbus, of San Diego, daughter of Mrs. Driggs, and M. H. McClain, of Vernon.

The action of the court was taken on the certificates of Drs. Campbell, Garrett and Barber, that after an examination they declared she was suffering from nephritis, Bright's disease, cirrhosis of the liver, and heart disease; that her condition was serious and would be accentuated if she was compelled to remain in jail any longer. There was no opposition to the proposed action of the court on the part of the District Attorney's office. Following the qualifying of the bondsmen, Mrs. Driggs was released, and she was immediately taken to Ocean Park for an outing.

Mrs. Griffith qualified for about $20,000 worth of property, including a $15,000 home in Ocean Park, two lots just outside of Pasadena and $600 shares of the Pacific Salt Company. Mrs. Thorbus swore that she had real estate at the corner of Sunset Boulevard and Terrace avenue, worth $5000, with holdings in San Diego worth $2000 more. Messrs. Griffith and McClain declared property worth about $30,000 in Vernon, in which they had a four-fifths interest. Other bondsmen would have qualified in behalf of Mrs. Driggs if the bond had been twice the amount, it is understood.

CLIENTS MISSING.

HIS CASE HAS TO GO OVER.

It was expected that the divorce action brought by Lottie W., against Henry M. Hogg, on the ground of extreme cruelty, would be heard yesterday in Judge Hutton's department, but after the court had waited some time, and the attorneys in the case had scoured the courthouse from tower to basement, and ascertained that their clients were not on hand, the case went over to be set some other date—provided there is not a reconciliation of the differences of the couple.

An answer had been filed by the husband denying the specific allegations of cruelty, and it was expected that the case would consume at least a day, but neither of the parties in interest could be located, although both had promised to be there.

The two were married in Webster county, Iowa, in 1893, and are the parents of four children. The wife says in her complaint that the defendant is worth $60,000, and in his answer no denial of that statement appears. It is understood that the couple is one of the many who made money through the appreciation of real estate in this section. They owned a little ranch, on which there was a mortgage of $5000 on a valuation of twice that amount and sold it for $80,000 in cold cash. With the acquisition of the money troubles came, as it is stated the wife began to go out in society and spend money in a way not approved by the husband. Not only that, but according to the complaint of the wife, he charged her with undue friendliness with other men, and especially H. R. Higgins. Those familiar with the parties say there will be a settlement of their differences.

CLAIMS DAMAGES.

KEPT FROM FUNERAL.

A novel suit in many particulars was filed in the Superior Court yesterday by D. F. Hogan against Harry L. Varrey, the plaintiff asking a judgment for $7000 against the defendant for the alleged illegal arrest of Hogan on September 28, for breach of an ordinance of this city pertaining to license numbers being painted on public carriages.

Of the tital amount sued for Hogan asks $1000 because he was taken in custody just as he was about to attend the funeral of a dear friend, in the role of pallbearer and mourner, and he avers that he was humiliated by not being present on the sad occasion, and in the hands of the law instead. The damage fixed is $6000, but there are $2000 added, one on account of the disruption of the funeral arrangements and another for the reason that the plaintiff says that the defendant is well able to pay any reasonable figure.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

CRIMINAL MATTERS. Jose Rodrigues was sentenced to two years in Folsom yesterday by Judge Willis, on the charge of burglary.

John Jones pleaded not guilty to the charge of burglary, and his trial was set for November 17.

The trial of C. D. Behen, charged with working the fictitious check job, will take place today.

Charles Baker withdrew his plea of not guilty to the allegation of rape, and pleaded guilty to making an assault with intent to commit rape. He will be sentenced this afternoon.

PROBATION ALLOWED. In Judge McCormick's court yesterday, Joe Pupil, who had pleaded guilty to forgery, was allowed to go free on three years probation.

FINALLY UNDER WAY. The damage action brought by J. J. Muiholland against the Western Gas Construction Company and the Los Angeles Gas and Electric corporation to recover $25,000 damages by reason of injuries received through the alleged negligence of the defendants, finally got under way in Judge Oster's court yesterday. Of the twenty-five names of the special venire, six were chosen to fill the vacancies in the jury—J. E. Heath, Covina, and J. C. Reeder, P. J. Tarr, W. H. Patterson, I. F. White and C. L. Cahoon of Pomona, and not a single one was a debtor or creditor of the gas company.

ANOTHER GROUND.—In the action for divorce brought by Emma J. Blake against Thomas F. Blake, the decree was granted on the ground of desertion, instead of extreme cruelty.

EXPECT JURY TROUBLES.

Prospective Difficulties in the Trial of F. Lopez, Charged With Various Picketing.

The trial of F. Lopez, unionite, charged with picketing in the vicinity of practicaly all of the iron works in the city, will begin in the Police Court next Wednesday.

The case is significant in that the unionite attorneys will muster their entire force to secure the acquittal of Lopez. The prosecution on the other hand looks forward to the result eagerly as a test case which will, it is believed indicate the attitude of the general public.

Neither side expects a jury will be chosen in a single day, because of the great difficulty which both sides expect to encounter in securing twelve men who after seeing The Times ruins will say they can consider the trial of a unionite with fair minds.

If necessary extra venires will be called early so that there may be no delay because of lack of talesmen.

If Lopez is acquitted the unionite attorneys will argue that it is impossible to convict any of them and will try to secure their release.

MRS. KRAUSE GETS CONTINUANCE FOR HER TRIAL.

Sends Word to Police Judge That She Was Unable to Go Through Ordeal of Examination, But Doctor Says She Only Had Cold. Forced to Appear.

Upon the declaration of Mrs. Daisy Turney Krause that she was physically unable to go through the ordeal, her examination in Police Court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to murder, which was made by Franklin H. Griffith, was postponed until the 25th inst. On that date, in Police Judge Williams' court room, No. 825 West Jefferson street, it will be determined whether or not there is evidence which requires her to be tried in the Superior Court.

The examination is to be bitterly fought between the prosecution and the attorneys engaged by Mrs. Krause for her defense. The story of her arrival in Los Angeles and her life since she came, will be thrashed out to the last detail, it was stated by her counsel. In answer to this Franklin H. Griffith and Arthur Veitch, the assistan District Attorney who is prosecuting the case, say they will furnish all the detail Mrs. Krause wants and then some. For instance, they said, they have 100 letters written by Mrs. Krause to Mr. Griffith and each and every one of them they will produce.

Police Judge Williams' courtroom was the mecca yesterday afternoon for attorneys who went there to hear the case out of professional curiosity, attaches of the Central Police Station who were not on duty at the time and many citizens who were attracted by the reports printed about Mrs. Krause.

With Arthur Veitch, of the prosecution, Mr. Griffith entered the courtroom a few minutes before 2 o'clock. Mr. Griffith greeted several friends very cordially and then seated himself in the back row of seats.

Fred J. Spring and George M. Harker, the attorneys engaged by Mrs. Krause, entered the room a few minutes later and took seats apart from others to discuss the case.

When the name of Mrs. Krause was read from the complaint she had not appeared and the court officer was sent to the matron's department of the City Jail to learn the reason for her delay. The officer returned and announced that Mrs. Krause had declared she was unable to go through the ordeal, but would nevertheless appear within a few minutes.

Dr. Kidder, police surgeon, was sent to her cell and his diagnosis was simply that she had a "cold." When questioned by the physician she complained of many ailments, but he would not give her a certificate stating her physical inability to appear and she consequently asked to be taken to the courtroom.

As she entered she cast a hurried glance about the room and her eyes detecting Mr. Griffith in a corner she quickly seated herself and whispered something into the ear of one of her attorneys.

Dr. Kidder was not asked as to the woman's condition, though Judge Williams said that a certificate from him would be considered in his decision on the continuance. After discussing the matter with the attorneys on both sides, however, the continuance was granted.

Mrs. Krause smiled broadly when the request was granted. She was dressed in a well-fitting tailored suit of gray, which was matched by her large hat, liberally trimmed with silk, and a pair of small suede pumps. She wore a gray veil, but her features could be plainly seen.

TEN DAYS ENOUGH.

WOODSHED SLEEPER'S IDEA.

"Barney Kinard—Brakeman" appeared in Police Judge Fredericksen's court yesterday morning, pleaded guilty to "sleeping in a woodshed without permission of the owner thereof." He told the court that his usual sentence was ten days, and he believed that enough.

"What's your business?" the judge asked.

"Brakeman," Barney answered.

"You mean, I suppose, that you ride brake beams," the court responded.

"Well, I slept in the shed. I think ten days is enough," and Barney dropped listlessly and began drumming rag time on the seat.

The court decided to take plenty of time to consider the case, and tomorrow Barney will learn if the sentence he deems sufficient is confirmed by the court.

COURT LETS HIM DOWN.

Earl Herzog, a youth of about 19 years, was let off easy in Police Judge Fredericksen's court yesterday morning.

Herzog works as a collector and makes about $9 a week. He was charged with embezzlement of a few dollars and he admitted it but said that he did not steal the money, but simply used it to tide him over until he could earn more.

The boy has others dependent on him and the court released him on a 100 day suspended sentence. He will return the money as he earns it.

GOOD NEWS FOR IMPERIAL VALLEY HOMESTEADERS.

Results Announced Here Indicate That Congressman Smith of the Eighth District, Who Has Been Giving the Matter Much Attention, Work.

Sixty-five Imperial Valley homesteaders and desert land entrymen were made happy yesterday when they learned that their patents were received at the local Land Office.

There have been many delays and disappointments in connection with this land, but many of them have been eliminated since the situation was called to the attention of Congressman Smith of the Eighth District. He has been giving much attention to hastening the issuance of the patents and the number received here indicate that he has done some effective work.

Register Buren and Receiver Robinson of the local Land Office are well satisfied with the present condition of affairs in the valley and say that the outlook is favorable for an early settlement. They anticipate that within a month or six weeks a large percentage of the entrymen who have made final proof will receive their patents.

Jurist Declares Case Tried Yesterday One of the Most Disgraceful He Has Ever Tried.

An action that Judge Monroe declared was one of the most disgraceful he had ever heard from the bench was on trial in Department Six of the Superior Court yesterday. The court gave judgment for the defendant, which carries the cost also to be paid by the same party, which, in the circumstances, is a hardship, in the opinion of Judge Monroe.

The plaintiff in the case was H. H. Alexander, connected with the King of Arizona Mining Company, with headquarters at Kofa, Ariz., and the defendant, Mrs. Isadora Hughes, of this city. Alexander desired judgment for $650.90, money he alleged he had advanced to the woman from time to time.

It appeared from the evidence that Mrs. Hughes was formerly Mrs. E. M. Porter, whose husband died in December, 1908. It was shown that while the defendant was Mrs. Porter, and the widow Porter, that Alexander gave her money, and looked out for her welfare generally. At that time Alexander had a wife living back in Iowa, and the testimony showed that there was an arrangement that as soon as the wife got a divorce from Alexander, and the husband of Mrs. Porter died, they were to marry.

In the course of time the divorce decree was secured by the wife in Iowa, but, meantime, the widow Porter forgot her promise to Alexander, and married William Hughes. It was shown that since the marriage of the woman to Hughes Alexander had not forgotten his old flame.

There was a mass of letters introduced as evidence showing loving relations existing between Mrs. Hughes and Alexander when she was Mrs. Porter and the widow Porter.

WIDOW SUES RAILROAD.

Eda Agnes McGuire, widow of B. C. McGuire, a locomotive engineer who had headquarters at Fresno, yesterday filed suit in the United States Circuit Court to recover $30,000 damages from the Santa Fe.

McGuire and Robert V. Rich were engineers on a double-header near Blum, Contra Costa county, on November 8, 1908, when an accident happened which resulted in the former's death. McGuire was on the ground between the rear engine and a car fixing a coupling when Rich threw his engine into the reverse. McGuire was crushed to death.

Mrs. McGuire sues in her capacity as administratrix of her husband's estate. She asserts that her 5-year-old daughter, Marjorie, was dependent entirely for her support on her father's earnings.

IN A BEAUTIFUL ROOM.

But Clerk of Federal Court Doesn't Like to Be Held There by Steel Bars.

Noiseless and fireproof walls, beautifully decorated, are luxuries designed to give much pleasure unless the admirer happens to be imprisoned by them. This was the fix in which Clerk Owen of the United States District Court found himself yesterday noon.

Owen was busy with a number of papers when the other attaches left the room, and he made no haste to get out. He enjoyed the silence in which to complete his work and was duly impressed with the oak finishings of the magnificent room.

As the clerk meditated, an efficient janitor, whose duty it is to see that no vandal can gain access to the courtroom during the luncheon hour, locked the door from the outside.

Owen found a solid bar of steel holding him back when he endeavored to return to his own office. His first thought was that the door was stuck. He gave it several vigorous pulls and then reached the conclusion that it was locked. He did not know exactly what to do, as this was the first time he had been in such a predicament in 23 years in the government service.

He called for assistance, and his only answer was the dull echo from the heavy walls. They were designed to be sound proof in order that nothing less than an explosion would disturb the tribunal.

The clerk then turned to the window. It took only a glance to convince him that there was too great a distance between the fourth story and the ground to attempt to jump.

In a few minutes he saw a pedestrain hastening to lunch and stopped him. He explained the situation and the stranger volunteered to enter the Federal building and search for a janitor. The structure is like a mystic maze to a person unacquainted with its devious passages and it was some time before the "knight of the key" could be located.

The janitors have been instructed, individually and collectively, never to lock a room until they have searched it thoroughly to see that there is no one in it.

RAILROAD BACKER HERE.

Head of Financial House Prominent in Financing Western Pacific Pays Los Angeles a Visit.

William Salomon, head of the financial house of William Salomon & Co. of New York City, accompanied by Lewis Sheldon of London, arrived at the Alexandria yesterday morning. His company, Blair & Co., and the William A. Read & Co., financed the Western Pacific Railroad and it was to see what has been accomplished by this road that Salomon came to the Coast.

He denied emphatically all knowledge of projection of the line from San Francisco to Los Angeles. "I merely helped to secure the money for the enterprise and know nothing of its future plans," he said. "I am certain the directors and officials of the company are more than satisfied that they have been able to get the railroad into San Francisco. As for the new surveys reported between Los Angeles and San Francisco for railroad purposes and the laying of tracks in various parts of the Intermediary territory I can say nothing.

"I was here the last time seven years ago. I can truly say that the city in that time has nearly grown out of my knowledge. There have been so many changes and improvements that I have not been able to recognize the old places."

After a few days here, in which Salomon and Sheldon will make an inspection of the harbor and other places, they will return to San Francisco. Salomon was formerly connected with Speyer & Co., one of the old New York financial houses.

Sues Bonding Company.

The city of Santa Monica wants the money that it is alleged Ralph Bane, the defaulting treasurer and tax collector, took away with, and has entered suit against the Aetna Indemnity Company of Hartford, Ct., to collect certain sums on two surety bonds. The bonds were furnished by the defendant, paid for by Bane and the municipality and accepted by the City Council.

MANLY FIGHT FOR FREEDOM IS COMMENTED UPON.

WILL INSPIRE GENERATIONS YET TO COME.

STRIKING EXPRESSIONS SENT FROM MANY POINTS.

From the numerous letters which continue to reach The Times concerning the assassination of a score of its employees and the destruction of its building at First and Broadway by unionite sympathisers the following are extracted as representative. Anthony Ittner, president of the Anthony Ittner Brick Company of St. Louis, writes to Gen. H. G. Otis thus:

"It is but a short while back that I was favored through the courtesy of the National Association of Manufacturers with a 'special sheet,' a full page reprint from your great publication, The Los Angeles Times, under date of September 4, 1910, in which I was pleased to read your letter of August 1, in answer to a letter from J. T. Templeton, secretary of the Bucks Stove and Range Company of this city, under date of July 23, giving an account of that company's humiliating and disgraceful surrender to the labor unions, after a manly and courageous fight for years against the arbitrary and un-American methods of Gompers and his lieutenants.

"Your letter breathes the spirit of patriotism and American manhood throughout. Your manly fight against militant unionism during the past score of years should endear you to the hearts of all true liberty-loving Americans, for all future time.

"And now for all this sacrifice, what is your reward? Through sorrow, pain and tears must the answer come—the blowing up with dynamite of the building in which your printing presses were located, resulting in their complete destruction, and what is vastly more important and precious, the wholesale destruction of human life. And not satisfied with this infamous and damnable act, a further attempt is made to blow up your own home, and the homes of those who have sympathised with and stood by you during your persecution and manly fight against the arbitrary and un-American methods of labor unions affiliated with the American (un-American) Federation of Labor.

"It is hard to conceive how human beings living in a land of liberty and freedom could be brought to perform such inhuman and dastardly acts. It is the sincere wish and prayer of every liberty-loving American man, woman and child that the guilty perpetrators of this barbarous and inhuman act shall be discovered and punished to the fullest limit of the law.

"I have watched with much interest and admiration your long and determined fight against being made a slave in a free country. I can appreciate your experience the more by reasons of having had a similar experience which dates back forty-three years, and which came about over the matter of the number of apprentices an employer was permitted to employ; our answer was that the engaging of apprentices was a matter between the employer, the boy and the boy's parents; and that we did not recognize the right of any outside persons to 'butt in;' in other words, we insisted upon being free men in a free country, and the fight has been kept up along these and other lines from that day to this. It is one of the proudest recollections of my life that I have never been under the arbitrary dictation of organized labor one single, solitary moment during the whole course of our business experience as an employer.

"In conclusion, I wish to offer my sympathy and condolence to the families and friends of the brave men who lost their lives through the blowing up and burning of your printing establishment, and I pray that the guilty ones may be discovered and punished to the limit of the law."

PRAISE FREEDOM'S CHAMPION.

"The Board of Directors of the National Association of Manufacturers, in session here, tender its profound sympathy to you and to those injured, and to the families of those who were killed in the diabolical plot which resulted in the destruction of life and of your property. With confidence in your own ability and courage to meet the awful emergency and to restore your position in the field of honest and praiseworthy journalism, we bid you Godspeed, and we join the multitude in condemnation of the inhuman attack which has made you the victim of an act of barbarism so horrible to be expressed in words, and capable of execution only by the most depraved element of human society.

"While dynamite has destroyed your property, it is the belief of this board that it cannot destroy the spirit of patriotism that has caused you to make the gallant fight you have made for the preservation of natural as well as constitutional freedom in commerce and industry—reward for which will be exemplified in the sounding of your praises for generations yet to come."

In hearty appreciation and endorsement of the gallant fight for industrial freedom, Mr. Kirby writes also a personal letter in which he refers to "the greatest curse with which this or any other country has to contend—the American Federation of Labor—" and adds:

"I have watched with keen interest your long and determined fight for principle and sincerely hope that dynamite will not destroy the spirit of patriotism that has prompted you to maintain it. Your friends are legion throughout the country and the terrible calamity that has befallen you and those brave fellows who have stood by you meets with the indignant condemnation all over the civilized world."

CHURCH DENUNCIATION.

At the close of service last Sunday morning in the Park Congregational church, F. Mills Davies, as member of the trustees, introduced resolutions referring to the fiendish crimes of dynamite and murder and expressing sympathy and condolence, which were unanimously passed. The essential portion reads:

"Resolved, that, we, the members of the congregation of Park Congregational Church, in meeting assembled, hereby denounce in the strongest terms the perpetration of these gigantic and fiendish crimes, and we sincerely hope that swift and adequate punishment may overtake the assassins, that Los Angeles may be purged now and hereafter of such cowardly and inhuman enemies to our reputation as a city of law and order, and we hereby pledge our faithful and

At the close of service last Sunday morning in the Park Congregational Church, F. Mills Davies, as member of the committee, introduced resolutions relating to the fiendish crimes of dynamite and murder and expressing sympathy and condolence, which were unanimously passed. The essential parts read:

"Resolved, that, we, the members of the congregation of Park Congregational Church, in meeting assembled, do denounce in the strongest terms the perpetration of these gigantic and fiendish crimes, and we sincerely pray that swift and adequate punishment may overtake the assassins, that Los Angeles may be purged of them hereafter of such cowardly and inhuman enemies to our reputation as a city of law and order, and that we pledge our faithful and persistent efforts toward the accomplishment of this purpose."

VETERANS ACT.

Stanton Post No. 55, G. A. R., H. Z. Osborne, commander, and J. M. Guinn, adjutant, passed resolutions of condolence and particularly offered to Comrade W. H. Sallada and his wife heartfelt sympathy in this hour of deep affliction over the loss of a beloved son in the terrible disaster, and to Comrade General Harrison Gray Otis, sympathy in his great financial loss and in his grief over the death of faithful employees and friends by the destruction of The Times building. The resolution concludes:

"We regard with utter detestation the perpetrators of the fiendish deed that caused the deaths of more than a score of our fellow citizens and brought sorrow and suffering to their families and friends. We regard men who will resort such methods to revenge either real or fancied wrongs as unfit to be called American citizens, or even to be classed as civilized beings."

WORK WELL WITHOUT CHARGE.

The Republic Iron and Steel Company, of which N. F. Wilshire is president, which did such splendid work with its derrick and other appliances in clearing away debris, writes as herewith: "In answer to the inquiry of your superintendent at the ruins of your building as to the expense incurred by use of our derrick, appliances and men for rigging up derrick, we will say that we are glad to be of service and that there is no charge whatever." Mr. Wilshire added that he would have liked to have done more. That is the attitude of so many friends of The Times—they have shown real sympathy and want to do everything they can to show us, and the world that the bulk of Los Angeles citizens has no sympathy with the awful crime planned in the north.

WAT A CHILD SAYS.

From No. 141 Locust street, Riverside, little Mary Creswell, aged 10 years, writes as below:

"To The Times: I am a little girl of ten and I have been reading your paper and the terrible stroy. My heart goes out to those girls and boys that are left without their papas. May God bless them all. I pray for them."

Charles Weir forwards $27.00 to pay for three yearly subscriptions in advance.

The North, Northeast and Northwest Improvement Association has passed a resolution denouncing the anarchists in the strongest terms and extending deep sympathy and condolences to the widows, orphans and friends of the men murdered.

Vicksburg Woman's Relief Corps, Julia A. Bowen, president, Alice E. Burbank, secretary, has expressed its heartfelt sympathy for all those afflicted by the great catastrophe.

FROM MEXICAN GOVERNMENT.

Antonio Losano, consul of the United States of Mexico, writes to Gen. Otis as follows:

"Hon. Enrique C. Creel, Secretary of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Mexico, in an official note which I received today in response to a telegram of mine dated the 1st inst., recommends me to offer you, in the name of the Mexican government, the assurance of his deepest sympathy for the atrocious destruction of The Times building. This I have the honor of complying with, adding to that of my government the expression of my personal and hearty condolences."

ARCHITECTS' RESOLUTION.

The Southern California Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, Frank D. Dudson, president, Fernand Parmentier, secretary, at its annual meeting last Tuesday adopted the following resolution:

"That the Southern California Chapter of A. I. A. extend to The Times-Mirror Company our sincere sympathy because of the terrible calamity that has befallen them in the destruction of the lives of their co-workers and their property by dynamite."

The Chapter also contributes $50 toward the fund for the benefit of the widows and orphans, acknowledgment of which is made in the proper place.

FOR "RAISED" BILLS.

Government Secret Service Men Seeking Counterfeiters Who Are Passing Multiplied Currency.

Government secret service agents are in Los Angeles to find the smooth counterfeiters who have been altering $1 bills to $10 and $20 and passing them.

They have secured the description of a young man who they believe has been doing part of the work, but they are as yet uncertain in whether he has an accomplice.

A man about 27 years old, five feet seven or eight inches tall and weighing about 146 pounds, has recently defrauded the keepers of small stores in the outlying districts of the city, but, so far as the secret service agents have been able to learn, no attempt has been made to pass the bills in the downtown stores.

One peculiar feature is that the "Eagle Center" variety of $1 bills is used. This design does not appear on bills of any other denomination and any person familiar with bank notes would have recognized the bills as having been altered. The scarcity of small bills on the coast, however, made it possible for the counterfeiters to pass them.

The work was cleverly done. With small paper pasters bearing the larger number, the $1 mark on the bills was covered. The reading matter, however, which certifies that "one silver dollar will be paid the bearer on demand" was not touched.

The police have been asked to search for the men.

DAME NATURE HINTS

When the Food Is Not Suited.

When Nature gives her signal that something is wrong it is generally with the food. The old Dame is always faithful and one should act at once.

To put off the change is to risk that which may be irreparable. An Arizona man says:

"For years I could not safely eat any breakfast. I tried various kinds of breakfast food, but they were all soft, starchy messes which gave me distressing headaches. I drank strong coffee, too, which appeared to benefit me at the time, but added to the headaches afterwards. Toast and coffee were no better, for I found the toast very constipating.

"A friend persuaded me to quit the old coffee and the starchy breakfast foods, and use Postum and Grape-Nuts instead. I shall never regret taking his advice. I began using them three months ago.

"The change they have worked in me is wonderful. I now have no more of the distressing sensations in my stomach after eating, and I never have headaches. I have gained 12 pounds in weight and feel better in every way.

"Grape-Nuts make a delicious as well as a nutritious dish, and I find that Postum is easily digested and never produces dyspepsia symptoms."

Cottolene

Cottolene-cooked food agrees with one because Cottolene contains not an ounce of hog fat—it is a vegetable instead of an animal product. Its wholesomeness and purity are vouched for by Nature. Cottolene is "the fat from the flower."

All the country's best cooks—Mrs. Mary J. Lincoln, Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, Mrs. Helen Armstrong, Marion Harland, Lida Ames Willis, and a dozen others of national reputation—recommended Cottolene in preference to lard or any other medium for frying and shortening.

Isn't the testimony of such experts worth something to you?

Order a pail of Cottolene from your grocer to-day and learn why it "shortens your food—lengthens your life."

THE RIGHTS OF LABORERS.

Every man, whether he be wise or unwise, industrious or idle, virtuous or dissolute, honest or dishonest, a truth teller or a liar, is in this free republic of ours the absolute owner of his own arms, his own fingers and his own brains. He has the right to lease the use of these, or sell the lawful product of them to whomsoever he will, for such price as he can obtain, on such terms as he is able to procure. No man, no combination of men, and no city, county or State government has a right to control or interfere with his industrial or personal freedom in the exercise of his rights. He has a right to join a trade union, or refuse to join one. He has a right to contribute to the support of a labor leader, or to refuse any contribution, and bid the labor leader leave him alone and seek a victim elsewhere. He has a right to refuse to work alongside a non-union man, or in the same building with a Baptist, a Catholic, or a Unitarian. He has a right to refuse to work for a red-headed employer, or for one who wears spectables, or for one who walks with a cane, or for one who wears a Tuxedo suit in the daytime, or for one who has a wart on his chin. He has a right to quit his job with or without a reason, for his time is his own, his body is his own, and his brains are his own, and "shall he not do as he pleases with his own?"

Absolute, unconditional, unquestioned freedom, so long as he does not use it to interfere with the rights of others—is the heritage bequeathed to the American workingman by the fathers of the republic, and by their forebears who wrested it from kings and priests in centuries gone, and it is a freedom that the best manhood of the republic will never suffer to be permanently taken away from them by the anarchic offscouring of Europe—the cowardly criminal labor leaders, who misadvise and mislead their followers.

The Times is not making its fight for industrial freedom in the interest of employers alone. Employers are able to take care of themselves. If they cannot safely and peacefully and profitably conduct their factories and shops, they can close them and carry their capital to other localities, where they can conduct their own business in their own way without fear of dynamite or riot. But the worker is differently situated. He has often been unthrifty, or improvident, or too generous, or from other causes is unable to tide over a season of non-employment. If he does not earn he cannot eat, and often he is unable to pay the cost of removal to another field of effort. The strike leader who bids him throw down his hammer or his trowel, and club or dynamite the man who picks it up, bids him divest himself of his manliness, his courage and his hope, and become a patron of the soup house, or a pensioner upon the grudgingly accorded bounty of his brother workmen.

The labor leaders who misadvise their followers do not always themselves practice what they preach. If one of them needed a coat would he pay ten dollars for one made by union tailors, when he could sneak into an emporium and for eight dollars buy as good a one made by those whom he calls scabs? Would he pay 50 cents for a sack of flour sold by a grocer whose clerks were members of a union, when he could purchase the same quantity of flour of the same quality, of a non-union grocer for 40 cents?

Strikes are not always instituted to obtain higher wages or lesser hours of toil, for many employers pay union wages to their non-union employees and strikes are in the long run financially profitless to the strikers, even when, after weeks or months of idleness, they obtain the advance of wages they sought. And of all strikes the sympathetic strike is the most unreasonable—the strike where the carpenters who have no complaint to make either with respect to their hours of labor or their wages, quit work because the masons claim that non-union bricklayers have been given a job on the same building, or on another building by the same contractor.

But we are not now discussing the folly of strikes. It would occupy columns to adequately do so. We concede without a question the absolute right of the striker to injure his family and himself by quitting his job. We would invoke the civil and military power of the State and nation to protect his freedom of action against any employer who should try to force him to continue work. Equally we would invoke the same power for the protection of the non-union man who picks up the saw or the trowel that the union man has dropped and goes to work on the job that the union man has abandoned.

The Times assails no rights of labor. It assails and will continue to assail, in despite of dynamiting and menaces, the actions and doctrines of the murderous, corpse-defacing, cowardly assassins who are the worst enemies that honest labor has. The Times stands for the law-protected liberty, for the fearless independence, for the industrial freedom, for the manhood of American citizens. These rights government will protect against all the Tveitmoes and Gallaghers. The right to industrial freedom is a right that honest labor demands, and what it demands it WILL HAVE.

The last reunion of the war-famous Ellsworth Zouaves has been held, there being but two survivors of the noble band. Don't you graybeards recall Col. Elmer Ellsworth of Illinois, the commander, who was killed at the landing of the stairway in a hotel at Alexandria, Va., after having hauled down a rebel flag, that the proprietor, Jackson, had flung to the breeze? It was the first shot of the Civil War. Do you not recall the war lyric:

"Ellsworth, why did thy country call thee,
It needed the true and the brave,"

WORKING OVER-TIME.

"REFORM" RUN MAD.

Of course, the caption refers to Oregon, the happy hunting ground of U'Ren and his half-baked experimenters. At the November election in the Webfoot State the voters will not only have to choose between Republicans, Democrats and Bourneites, but will be asked to accept or reject thirty-two of what are called initiative and referendum measures. It is safe to say that not a tithe of "the sovereign voters" has taken the trouble to become informed of the real purport and worth of these matters. Many men will just "go it blind" in marking their yes or no.

One particularly foolish question to be decided is, Shall Oregon have an official newspaper? The men who really know what a newspaper is, who are confronted daily with the difficulties and, in some cases, the dangers of producing, are having all sorts of fun with the U-Hyphen-Ren statesmen for urging the establishment of an "official" sheet. They know beforehand that it could be nothing but a fearful and wonderful thing, doomed to obtain an early acquaintance with the journalistic boneyard which has so large an area on the Pacific Coast. As the Oregonian remarks, "this scheme of the State going into the newspaper business is one of the absurdities of unrestricted initiative."

It is proposed that the newspaper should have not one editor-in-chief, but three. They are to be called "people's inspectors," a laughable and at the same time lamentable description, for its hardly the duty of an editor to "inspect" the people. These editors are not to be chosen because of fitness for their posts but because they commend themselves to the State Grange, the State Federation of Labor and the commercial organizations. Each man of the three will probably have diverging views and it would not be a week after the establishment of such a paper before each would be saying "how happy I could be in the editorial chair were t'other dear editors away."

The voters are to be asked also to say whether there shall be State ownership of railways. In view of results elsewhere it is evident that the adoption of such a policy would be to place a heavy burden on Oregon, and to give the people a poor service. Leading commercial organizations believe there is no reason for the adoption of the amendment to the Constitution allowing the plan, yet U'Ren and those whom he misguides are strenuously pressing it upon the people.

CONSERVE THE SAVAGES.

In the New England States there is but one Indian to 3265 other inhabitants. In the Southern States there is but one Indian to every 2546 others. In the Middle States there is but one Indian to every 2210 others. In the Middle Western and Northwestern States there is but one Indian to every 749 others. In the three Pacific Coast States there is but one Indian to every 709 others. In the twelve Rocky Mountain States there is but one Indian to every twenty others, and in Alaska there are two Indians to every five others.

Is this inequitable distribution of our gentle savages to be made perpetual? Is the shameless injustice which allots to the land-grabbing, mine-stealing, timber-cutting, Pinchot-defying villains of the frontier an undue share of the natural resources of the country to be continued? Is the outrageous partiality which gives to Vermont only five Indians in a population of 343,641, and to Maryland only three Indians in a population of 694,446, to remain unchallenged and unremedied? Is Illinois to remain comparatively desolate with only sixteen Indians in a population of 4,821,550, and yet the twelve Rocky Mountain States with a population of only 3,185,323 to be blessed with 157,793 Apaches and Navajoes and Moquis and Pueblos and Sioux and Chinooks and Diggers and Piutes and other ornaments of frontier society?

The conservationists claim that our cultured brethren who dwell east of the Mississippi River, and who have exhausted their local supplies of public lands, have now a God-given right to demand that the lands and forests and mines of the Far West shall be conserved, and leased, and that ninety-four per cent. of the lease money shall be accorded to them, and six per cent. of it to those who dwell west of the Mississippi River. Here the stern and imposing figure of Justice that is perched on the dome of the Capitol erects still higher the scales that she carries and cries, "What! ninety-four per cent. of the boodle, and only one-sixteenth of one per cent. of the Indians? Not on your tin-type."

We demand justice for our eastern brethren. We demand conservation and distribution of the Indians. Our hearts are filled with the same generous spirit of self-abnegation which animated little Johnny when his mother was about to administer to him a dose of castor oil—that confection which all children love. Johnny's father said, "Oh, mother, don't give all that lovely castor oil to Johnny, save some for me." And Johnny, who had been there before, remarked, "Oh mama, papa is a nice man. I am willing to go without the castor oil. Give it all to papa."

CHURCHMEN IN CONVENTION.

One hundred bishops, all in the vestments of their order, and with golden crosses hanging on their breasts, marched two and two down the main aisle of St. Paul's Cathedral at Cincinnati last Sunday when Holy Communion was celebrated. This remarkable and solemn ceremony marked the opening of the forty-third general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America, at which Los Angeles is worthily represented.

A subject of much moment brought forward at the convention and not yet settled is that of creating "suffragan bishops." The idea is borrowed from England. A suffragan is really an assistant to the bishop without the right of succession. The house of deputies approved the proposition but the house of bishops, by one vote, rejected it. The action of the bishops proved a source of much pleasure to a committee of negro clergymen, representing the conference of church workers among colored people, which presented a memorial to the general convention declaring opposition to the suffragan proposal and favoring the creation of missionary dioceses with missionary bishops of the negro race. The opposition of the black people arises from the fact that if the suffragan idea is finally adopted (it is sure to be brought up again) they will have no representation in the general convention for they will be given suffragan bishops who will have no votes at the triennial gatherings of the church. On the other hand, if the missionary plan is carried out, it will give the colored churches their own bishops and full representation in the general convention. This is what might be called a ticklish question. The race problem enters into the church as elsewhere.

That the church is growing more lenient toward other faiths is shown in the adoption by both houses of an amendment striking the words "Jews, Turks, infidels and heretics" from the Good Friday prayer and substituting the mild term, "those who have erred from the truth."

We obtain some idea of the growth of the Episcopal church from the statement that sixty years ago its communicants in this country numbered 80,000 while today there are 950,000. This, it is pointed out, means that while the population of the United States increased 400 per cent during the period named, the number of communicants in the church advanced over 1200 per cent.

The defeat by a close vote in the Protestant Episcopal convention of the proposition to include in the ritual of the church a form of prayer as a means of healing, recalls the text once promulgated by Rev. Jasper, the colored clergyman of Richmond, Va. "The sun do move."

The discovery of America was not the only good thing that can be said of Christopher Columbus. We do not understand that he ever "shook" his mother.

Where's Mother.

Bursting in from school or play,
This is what the children say:
Trooping, crowding, big and small,
On the threshold, in the hall—
Joining in the constant cry,
Ever as the days go by,
"Where's mother?"

From the weary bed of pain
This same question comes again:
From the boy with sparkling eyes
Bearing home his earliest prize;
From the bronzed and bearded son,
Perils past and honors won—
"Where's Mother?"

Burdened with a lonely task,
One day we may vainly ask
For the comfort of her face,
For the rest of her embrace;
Let us love her while we may;
Well for us that we can say,
"Where's Mother?"

Mother with untiring hands
Patient, seeking not her own,
Anxious for the good alone
Of the children as they cry,
Ever as the days go by,
"Where's Mother?"

—Washington Post.

A STRONG IMPRESSION.

The editor of The Times has received the following letter from one of the greatest men in the country, one of the clearest thinkers and biggest doers of things:

New York, October 5, 1910.

Hon. H. G. Otis, Los Angeles, Cal.

My Dear General:—Among the multitude of people all over the world who have been astounded and horrified by the dreadful catastrophe which has overtaken the home of The Times at Los Angeles I doubt if anybody else has been more shocked than I have been. I wish it were reasonable to believe that the responsibility for it does not lie at the door of unionism; but from all the reports I get it seems to have been one of the most dastardly crimes of the age and to be a stain and disgrace that it will be hard to wipe from the escutcheon of union labor. I am well enough satisfied that no official high up in the ranks of those who would have every business establishment forcibly made a "closed shop" would deliberately countenance any such terrible reprisal for an independence on your part which was your privilege and your right; but if dynamite was the agent then I do not see how we can escape the conviction that back of that agent was the sinister mind of an individual group or organization that deliberately sought revenge for your defiance of the unions.

Of course the perpetrators of the crime have gained nothing. A mind the size of a pin-head might have known that beforehand. They have only succeeded in destroying useful and valuable lives and in bringing anguish to the hearts of worthy families; but the home of The Times has simply been moved "across the way with crape on its door-knob, and the principle and the idea back of the great newspaper have not been even scratched; on the contrary, they have been brought into the high light where every man may see and clearly comprehend the contrast between the right of lawful free action and the wrong of a lawless and brutal selfishness which would maim and kill an army in order to gratify its hate of the commander.

Let me assure you, General, of my heartfelt sympathy not only for yourself but for the sorrowing families of those whose lives have been causelessly sacrificed to a greed for advantage and power more frightfully menacing—if this catastrophe is an example of it—than all other agencies of destruction combined, not even barring war, except a war for revenge.

Hoping that you may be spared any further attacks of this character, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

AMERICAN BUSINESS.

BY WALTER J. BALLARD.

Business was so good in Phoenix, Arizona, last year that its taxable property is now put at $9,000,000, a gain of 35 per cent. in the year; the tax roll was increased by 849 additional names. Trade relations between Phoenix and Los Angeles are extensive. In September 57 building permits were issued for the city and its rapidly growing suburbs. Foundations have been laid for a new cement mill of 500 tons daily. Work will begin almost immediately on the new $250,000 (stock all subscribed) Adams hotel. Building of the street railway extension to Glendale is well under way. Steam railroads are now building out from Phoenix, preparatory to main line travel through the fertile Salt River Valley. (Phoenix Board of Trade).

In the year ended June 30, 1910, Arizona had territorial revenues of $1,121,-281, a gain of $219,154 over the preceding year. Revenue exceeded expenditure by $146,277.

In 1910 fiscal year the Western Union Telegraph Company had gross earnings of $33,754,111, resulting in a net profit of $7,274,000. The assets are valued by certified accountants at $172,583,009.

In thirteen years cement production in the United States has grown (under the protective tariff) from 2,750,000 to 49,000,000 barrels.

Customs collections at the port of Manila in August last amounted to 1,-104,652 pesos (paso-50 cents) a gain of 9000 pesos over August, 1909. It is only a question of time when Manila will become the American "shanghai" for trade in the Far East. The new hotel there, costing at first one million pesos will open for business December 1, 1911.

Edwin Hawley, president of the Alton and other railways, says: "I find business conditions everywhere improving and sentiment everywhere more cheerful. The bond market has improved a great deal and I think the stock market will do much better after election. History will repeat itself."

Now comes the 1910 fiscal year report of the Louisville and Nashville Railway with gross earnings of $83,482,-253, an increase of $7,007,496 over 1909. The amount available for dividends is equal to 17.35 per cent. on the $60,000,000 capital stock against 12.96 per cent. last year.

The State of New Jersey is prosperous. Its 127 State financial institutions had $350,945,045 of resources on September 1. Deposits on the same date totaled $223,547,446. Resources and deposits each increased over $13,000,000 in one year. National banks are not included in these figures, though are gradually replacing State banks.

In 1910 fiscal year the Santa Fe Railroad earned $104,993,194 gross, an increase for the year of $10,727,471. The net earnings were $35,321,374. Freight tonnage increased 6.21 per cent. and passenger traffic gained 11 per cent.

Education in the Philippines is one of the best kinds of American business. When American occupation began 15 years ago there was not one native Filipino school teacher; today there are 8170. Ten years ago the pupils did not number 100,000; today there are more than 550,000. And all this without a compulsory education law—indicating the strong desire of the Filipinos for American education, which there is largely of an industrial character.

The Hocking Valley Railway Company did well in 1910 fiscal year: earnings gross, $7,568,350, a gain of $1,690,-146 or 28.75 per cent. Net earnings, $2,-815,049, an increase of $952,715 or 49.41 per cent. All told the net income increased by 67.52 per cent.

National bank circulation on October 1, was $720,796,606, a gain of $3,474,535 in September, and of $17,988,147 in twelve months. That shows increased American business all the year and particularly in September.

Our money circulation on October 1, was $3,164,827,681, an increase of $9,000,-000 in one month and of $42,500,000 in the twelve months. It consisted of gold coin (including bullion in the equal to $34.88 per capita of our population of 90,724,000. The general stock of money in the country on October 1, was $3,474,469,656.

Think of it!. "Cash in the Treasury" on October 1, $1,730,401,748, including $1,240,000,000 of gold coin and bullion and $221,000,000 of silver coin and bullion, besides $48,000,000 on deposit on call (as good as gold) in our National banks, and only $913,000,000 of interest-bearing debt. Further, what other country than the United States could carry, without anybody grumbling, a "debt bearing no interest" of $388,000,000. And still further, $482,000,000 of our interest-bearing debt ($725,000,000 of it drawing only two per cent. per annum interest) is not really a debt, but part of our investment in the American Panama Canal, subject like the Suez Canal, to dividends from 1915.

Some of our export increases in the eight months ended August 31, last, over the prior corresponding period were:

An Appreciation.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12. [To the Editor of The Times:] I am moved to write a word of appreciation of one of your employees who perished through the awful crime of October 1, Fred C. Llewellyn. Sixteen years ago, while I was pastor of the First M. E. Church in Pomona Fred was a compositor in the Progress office and was afterward foreman. I came to know him, at first, as a young fellow who could absolutely be depended upon in a business matter, and a friendship sprang up which lasted until his death. Fred was not a churchman, but rather a free lance on all religious questions, but I admired him, as being a man of integrity of thought and purpose; a serious, even intense searcher after truth—and altogether a splendid man. Many an hour have I spent with him in those days, even at the midnight, in his struggle in "feeling after God if haply he might find Him." He was God's best work, an honest man, and I trust that the Master Workman said to him, "Well done" in that swift moment of awful transit. God bless and comfort his loved ones to whom his loyal, loving nature was more than gold or any wealth of earth.

Yours,
B. C. CORY,
Secretary of Methodist Hospital.

A Face Card Shush.

One of the last times that Bishop Burgess of Long Island dined out was at the Press Club, where the waiters are all negroes. The head waiter bowed Bishop Burgess and his host profusely to their places. "This way, admiral," said he. "Tek this table. You get a bettah view of the harbor, adm'ral."

"I am not an admiral," said Mr. Burgess, smiling.

"My mistek, suh," said the waiter. "Ah mout er known all time I was er talkin' to a militar' man. You like dis table, colonel?"

"I am not a colonel," said Mr. Burgess, smiling more broadly. "I am a bishop."

"To be shuah, suh," said the waiter. "To-o be suah! We'y sorry ef mah mistake, suh. I got dem titles adm'ral and colonel wrong, suh. I was all right on de main issue. I knowed soon as ah saw you dat you was one of de face cards of yo' profession, suh."—[Cincinnati Times-Star.

UNCLE WALT WARBLES.

By Uncle Walt Mason of Emporia, Where Grows the Sunflower.

All day we sat and fumed and wailed about the cost of living; our groans rose like sweet bells jangled, out of tune and unforgiving. "Our kids," we cried, "must live on crusts, and wail for thunder, because the blamed old trusts are out for plunder." We said the tariff law a jolt that made us shrivel; each orator unloosed his spleen in terms uncivil. "If I," said one, "had the skill could boast of some great triumph in burning stanzas I would rouse the Morganshimer!" "I have no use for them," said Col. Beller, "and it's because I'm trampled down by the feller!" "I've been evicted from my home—chased out by high rents, and I am doomed in want to roam, by haughty tyrants!" And then the man who owned the store where we were talking, remarked: "You fellers make me sore—you'd best be walking! Your arguments are thin as foam, and full of spindling; and while you prate and spindling; and while you prate your wives at home are splitting kindling. The plutocrat may hold his own with pomp and bunting, but he is better than the jay who's always grunting!"

THE CASTLE-BUILDERS.

We built a castle on the sands
One summer day, long years ago;
We thought the work our willing hands
Had reared could mock the ocean's flow;
But ah! the envious waters swept
Our towers to ruin, and you wept.

We built a castle in the air
One later summer, I and you;
We dreamed of days forever fair,
Of skies unalterably blue;
But when that dream in shame clouds fled,
O strange my love, no tear you shed.

No Children in School.

Truant Officer to Mrs. McCarthy—"How many children have you, ma'am?"

Mrs. McCarthy—"Shure, an' I forgive."

Truant Officer—"Any of 'em go to school?"

Mrs. McCarthy—"No, sir."

Truant Officer—"What! Five children and none at school! How do they?"

Mrs. McCarthy—"Shure, the youngest av thim is foorty, an' the eldest Jones are at the Van Nuys here from Santa Barbara visitin's."

THREE DAYS TO TELL SECRET.

SEARCH FOR BODIES IN THE WRECKAGE NEAR END.

First Session of the Coroner's Jury Will Probably Be Held Next Tuesday Morning at Breese's—Heavy Pieces of Iron Broken With Enormous Trip-Weight.

Have The Times building ruins given up all their dead?

Twenty are known to have been buried in the wreck of the dynamited and burned building. Twenty bodies, or fragments of bodies, have been recovered—one for each of the known dead. Two days of earnest and painstaking search of the most likely spots yet remaining have brought nothing to light.

And yet the telltale evidence of charred and decomposing human flesh still hangs about the ruins, mute witnesses to the horror that brought them there. Whether these be mere fragments of those found previously or actually bodies of some whose names did not appear in the lists of the missing only time can show.

The clearing of the wreckage from the make-up room has been completed without the finding of the body supposed to have been buried there. The base of the light-shaft, another suspected spot, has been cleared without result. The ruins that block the alley back of the Baumgardt building have been partially removed and, so far, nothing has come to light.

The Coroner, however, is not satisfied. In order that there may be no question as to the finality of his jury's verdict upon the deaths of all who perished in the building, the summoning of the jury for its final investigation has been deferred until next week. Meantime, every part of the ruins as yet unsearched will be carefully gone over in the hope of uncovering any bodies that may have been previously overlooked.

In the absence of unforeseen developments the first session of the Coroner's jury will be held in the chapel of the Brose morgue at 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning. The first thing to be done will be the formal establishment of the individual deaths and the making out of the certificates. To this end, relatives of each of the martyred workers will be summoned as witnesses and upon their evidence the grim record will be completed.

Following this the jury will take up the all-important matter of determining the "contributory cause" of the wholesale tragedy. The manner of doing this will be left to the members of the jury itself. If individual members desire further time for investigation or for the unearthing of evidence, ample opportunity will be given for it.

The report of the Powder Committee, adding to a statement made by the Coroner yesterday, will probably not be considered in the evidence but individual members of the committee will be summoned as expert witnesses. Others to be examined will be those in the vicinity of the building at the time of the explosion, employees at work there and others familiar with the general plan of the different departments. Nothing which seems to the jury to be relevant to the case is to be excluded.

The possibility of definite developments from the criminal investigation now going on is not to be overlooked. In the event of important discoveries the police department or by the staff of detectives working under the directions of Earl Rogers, the jury will unquestionably be adjourned, if necessary, until such evidence can be presented in tangible and legal form. While there is nothing of a statutory nature to prevent the returning of an open and indeterminate verdict, the care with which the investigation has been made and the character of the jury practically precludes any such possibility.

Without the necessity of sifting and moving the debris from the ruins, the work of clearing away the wreckage in the pit is progressing much more rapidly than formerly. The heavy pieces of machinery too much warped or beat to be more than junk are being broken up by an enormous trip-weight and the fragments lifted out by the crane. Fred Baker, in personal charge of this work, said yesterday that the derrick will be kept on the job until the completion of the job, estimated at the time necessary at about two weeks.

Ralph Ramish, who is supplying the funds and personally superintending the work, is authority for the statement that the searching of the wreckage in all places where a body may be located can easily be completed before the summoning of the Coroner's jury.

"There remains now only the refuse in the two alleys to be cleared away," said yesterday; "that and the surface wreckage in the press-room. I have our men steadily at it until this is done, which I am sure will require above three days—probably not less than that."

Linotype Operators
Chance to Register

Many cordial offers of assistance from workers in various Times immediately after the explosion and fire—especially from printers who were ready to lend a hand. These offers could not be accepted, although they were keenly appreciated. The spirit which prompted them was most gratifying, but The Times was not in a position to avail itself of them. Indeed, some of its own printers are out of work, on account of the destruction of its job office.

As the new equipment of The Times is increased, however, it may need linotype operators. Several of its former operators were killed; others are in the hospital. The Times suggests that non-union linotype operators in any part of the country desiring employment register with The Times now. There may be openings for them at the best wages.

Suppleness

is the secret of comfortable and well-fitting corsets—the selection of styles that convey no suggestion of stiffness. In the newly-arrived models of Warner's and Redfern corsets this result is charmingly achieved.

Models for the woman who looks well in any style; and for the woman who is hard to fit, because she is stouter or more slender than the average; and expert corsetieres to select and fit to your figure the style best adapted to your particular requirements.

Women's Negligee Robes $5

Fashions nowadays are so becoming that it's equally as much pleasure to select one's negligee and boudoir gowns as it is to choose one's frocks for matinee and dinner wear. Recent arrivals make our stocks fully complete:

New full length negligee gowns in Japanese silks, satin messalines and like materials of various shades, with Persian, Oriental or flowered borders; ranging from inexpensive ones at $5, up to the most elaborate affairs at thirty five dollars each.

New bath and blanket robes, in German and real eiderdown, plain or figured effects, at a variety of prices; our best values are, however, at five dollars—a popular figure. We advise early selection from these.

Bargains in Men's Wear

Savoy shirts have all the extra allotment of quality that distinguishes them from other brands. Probably that's one reason why we're left with a quantity of odd sizes to dispose of "for less" today:

SAVOY SHIRTS
Choice patterns, but in broken sizes, of two qualities; $2.00 Savoy Shirts for $1.50. $2.50 Savoy Shirts for $2.00.

INTERWOVEN HALF-HOSE
We are deservedly enthusiastic about these socks for men; their goodness backs every assertion we can make for them. Darning goes out of fashion when the men of the family wear interwoven Hose; here in three qualities—25c, 35c, (3 for $1) and 50c a pair; black and colors.

MEN'S FALL UNDERWEAR

Facts, Features and Fancies for Women

BY OLIVE GRAY.

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: Camphor water is a good remedy for a red nose. This may be freely used during the day and applied at night by means of a small compress of absorbent cotton. A strict diet forbidding rich foods and all articles cooked in fats should be observed. Too often, however, a red nose is caused by some deep-seated ailment such as heart trouble or indigestion, and in such case a reliable physician should be consulted.

I noticed not long since at one of the Broadway stores a line of very heavy "brown" Holland table damask, which came in bold designs of great American beauty roses, and large morning glories, as well as geometrical designs. Others noticed them, too, it seems, for it soon became the rage to buy this damask and follow with embroidery stitches the conspicuous pattern of either border or center figures, using the pieces when completed for table pieces or table covers, dresser runners, or other articles of the sort. In short order the entire quantity of these patterns was gone, but I am told that a complete line will soon be received. It has been many years, it is said, since this quality of table linen has been so popular for general use as well as for fancy work. It is very durable and inexpensive compared with a similar quality in any other weave.

Sweaters.

They come in many new weaves and in the new and fashionable colors. I noticed one in a Broadway window of a particularly handsome stitch, giving the appearance of a raised knot at close intervals. This was extremely long and well shaped and it was really pretty enough to wear upon almost any occasion. Some of these garments cost as high as $25, but when you consider the amount of use that they will give, and the fact that they can be combined with any dress, it does not seem so much to pay. Any sort of good separate coat would cost that much and if at all novel, much more.

Painting Your House.

Looking out of the window recently, my eye was forcibly struck by a newly painted house, several blocks away. I say "struck" advisedly, for the color of that house was really a blow to the vision. It might have been worse, perhaps—but I can't think just how it could have been made so. It was bright blue. Not even a subdued blue, nor the blue of any possible flower, but just blue! Of course our notions of house painting do not as a rule harbor the possibility of blue, so that in itself made the color of this house shocking to begin with. "Go to nature for your suggestions for house painting and for furnishings," some one has said. It has still further been added that the soft, subdued colors of nature in her landscapes are a safe guide for the architectural creations of man. Well, nature never in her wildest moods created anything like the house of which I speak. I was certainly thankful that I could not see within that house, for just the faintest imagining of the horrors probably concealed there, as to combinations of carpets and wall papers, draperies and "bree a braw," as I once heard "it" called, gave me a "queer turn."

That Reminds Me.

A house even when newly painted should not scream out across the landscape, but should rather blend harmoniously with the tints of earth and vegetation. Even though it is a house made with hands, it need not be at war with the creations of nature, but should, rather, seem to form a part of them.

Have you met her? "Polly Ann" is a kind of apron and so really characteristic that it seems quite natural to give her a name. The Polly Ann is made from gingham or preferably from cambric, in dainty figures upon white, which insures it strictly washable. The better ones have short sleeves and all have immense pockets clear across the front. The apron buttons in the back and may be used as a slip-on dress for working purposes. Durable, washable, a complete protection from dirt, the Polly Ann is all right," and the cost is merely nominal.

Hallowe'en.

Polly Ann's short sleeves remind me that one must not grow careless about the matter of wearing loose garments when working around a gas range. It is so easy to slip on the kimono and to think that we are so careful that nothing will happen to us; but one of the most careful woman I know came near being horribly burned from having her kimono sleeves blow against the flame of the gas range.

The day and night of superstition's reign is approaching, Hallowe'en.

One of the big stores has furnished a corner of its toy department with everything in the way of "scary" things for the October festivity. The lamps and lanterns are particularly odd and interesting. There are all sorts of pumpkin lanterns, and some made from vegetables and fruits in all kinds of animal shapes. An elephant has a body of gray squash, legs of purple cabbage turnips, eyes of gooseberries and ears—well, I guess they are "elephants' ears." The figure of Jack o' Lantern himself appears in all sorts of grotesqueness. From many of these quaint figures uncanny light streams forth from glaring eyes and makes them seem almost alive.

A decided novelty in this corner is what is called the "Maze." It is a brightly jeweled octagonal lamp somewhat like a Moorish lamp, above which is a heat condenser with an arrangement which keeps it continuously revolving. Back of all is placed a half circular series of reflectors, in which appears a fairly dazzling succession of flashing lights from the many jewels of the lamp. Looking long upon this contrivance, one begins to wonder whether other things are revolving or whether he himself is awhirl.

For the more sedate entertainments of the October occasion, there are really pretty lamp shades made from the new "jeweled paper" in figures of witchery. Although inexpensive, these are pretty enough for use at all times, lending a really rich air to the most ordinary light.

Business Girls' Club.

In Chicago and some of the other large cities, business girls have united in clubs for the purpose of securing to themselves more comfortable living quarters than it is possible to have at boarding houses. The plan has been very successful almost without exception, not only in adding comfort to the lives of the girls but in economy as well. It has been found that by engaging an elder relative of one of the girls as housekeeper, real homes could be provided in place of the dingy habitations which had been the necessary makeshifts where each individual lived separately. It seems as though this plan might be happily put into action in all cities and even in smaller towns. In California the property could be owned by the club, in many instances and with the advance of real estate values, would prove as good as a savings account at large interest.

Fashionable Foibles.

"The slim silhouette" is an added despair to the stout woman who is ever growing more stout. No wonder that she has taken to the most extreme methods as described in some of the beauty articles, where rolling upon the floor is advocated as a means of disposing of adipose deposit.

Seamless shoulders seem to have taken a stronger hold than ever upon waists, and they are also seen in certain cloaks intended for evening wear.

Little children are again wearing the straight cut bang, reaching nearly to the eyebrows, the rest of the hair being combed smooth and cut around.

Vinegar is the best thing for removing hardened glue from furniture, as it will dissolve it instantly without injury to the surface of the furniture.

Flasks designed for the traveller may be had covered with raffia. They are similar to the wicker covered ones and are to be had in a variety of colors.

The fad for Scotch clan plaids does not find expression in silk and woolsuitings alone. Fascinating are the light weight shawls of Scotch camelshair in the brilliant colorings.

The smartest materials for an evening gown for a middle-aged woman are the new brocades and the chantilly and Spanish laces. They are quite as expensive as they are beautiful.

Glass beads, china beads, seed beads, beads of all sizes, shapes and colors are used on the new gowns in a lavish way. On the bodice the bead-work generally takes the shape of a collarette.

A pretty and serviceable finish to the cuffs of the embroidered tailored waist is to buttonhole the edge of the cuffs as closely as possible. This edge not only has body, but will wear admirably.

A sensible winter coat for the small boy is one of blue serge, made double-breasted and with a collar and turn-back cuffs of Persian lamb. The coat is fitted with a patent leather belt having a slight dip in front.

With the vogue of the new-old silks—the taffetas and moires and peau de cygnes—there has come a partial revival of the old-time trimmings—narrow ruffles with fluted or corded edges, puffings and box-pleated silk bandings and the like.

Smart blouses continue to be made of transparent fabrics, mounted on contrasting materials. Chiffon cloth, marquisette, fancy nets, etc., are used for the outside, and messaline satin allovers and Persian silks for the foundations.

KIND HEARTS— GOOD DEEDS.

George W. Patten, the millionaire grain operator of Chicago, whose death was recently announced, left a fortune estimated at $5,000,000, the greater part of which will be devoted to public charities. Among those especially provided for is the Evanston Hospital Association for which he created a fund of a half million dollars to be known as the "Agnes and Louisa Patten fund."

Yale University has evidence of the kindly feeling it has on its almuni and other friends, in the amount of the financial gifts it received during the past year. Among these the Hewitt bequest of $350,000; the Laffan professorship fund of $100,000; the Sage gift of $650,000; the Salisbury trust fund, $331,677, and additions to the university endowment and extension fund of $344,418.

The most important additions to income were $49,000 from the alumni fund and $34,351 from the Carnegie Foundation. Financially it has been the best year for Yale in her history.

Martin Padden, an old man living near New Orleans, recently went to Carbondale, Pa., and paid a bill he left unsettled in that place thirty-nine years ago. The bill was for a couple of months' board and a paper of tobacco, and the man to whom it was due died years ago, but Padden hunted up his son, Martin Flynn, and paid him the old score, saying that he was an old man, and had not long to live, and he wanted to be square with the world.

Miss Stella Ream, a sophomore at Wellesley College, and one of the most athletic girls in the institution, is doing valiant service in aid of the college building fund. She brought with her from her Ohio home a touring car which she is daily using to carry passengers between the railroad station and the college campus. She charges each passenger twenty-five cents and when she is not attending classes she is running the touring car and piling up dollars faster than any of the many enterprises girls have devised to aid the institution financially.

The United States Steel Corporation proposes to encourage inventors of appliances in which steel and iron are used by bestowing upon them a medal of its own. A commission has been placed with Mr. J. Scott Harvey of New York, a well-known sculptor for the designing of the medal. The company is considering bestowing its medal upon several inventors who have materially aided the progress of the world, and it has among its own employees men of distinguished achievement.

To financially aid the promulgation of the study and prevention of tuberculosis, which has been taken up by a number of prominent San Francisco women, headed by Mrs. William H. Crocker, a benefit entertainment to be conducted along highly pleasurable and instructive lines will be given, Oct. 15, under the auspices of the San Francisco Association for the study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. Elaborate plans are being formulated to use every inch of the big Chutes playground to the best possible advantage for the enjoyment and edification of the large number of persons who are surt to attend.

RETURN OF THE JAPANESE.

Thousands of Them Now Flocking From Field to City—A Season of Ease.

The annual ebb of the Japanese labor tide, the return of the little brown men from their summer's toil in the fields to their favorite haunts in "Little Tokio"—that district bounded by East First, Commercial, Alameda and North San Pedro streets—is now at its height, and the smile of the carmen-lipped Geishas, the trumming of the tom-tom, in dull accompainament to the "Banzai!" and the mirth-inducing saki, all voice a generous welcome to the wanderers.

The thousands of Japanese harvesters are erturned again to the city, vesters rae returned again to the city, performed the herculean task of harvesting the major portion of the great California crop, and now the supply houses of the immense ranches are overflowing with alfalfa, vegetables, olives, grapes and the scores of other products of the soil. The heavily laden wagons of the ranchmen city bound and strings of produce-filled cars show this. There is not much work for the orientals, until next summer. That is why they are wending their way in twos and threes back to Los Angeles, the metropolis of the southwest, to be welcomed with many smiles by their fellows. Here they will be induced to spend their hard earned coin on necessities and foibles. Then, when their fount has run low, they will return to the fields for more.

According to statistics compiled by local Japanese commercial agencies, the summer population of "Little Tokio" fluctuates between 4000 and 8000 souls. It is estimated that at least 4000 little brown men shoulder their "bundles" each spring, and answer the cal of the fields. Then, too, there are several hundred who are employed on development projects that take them far from their local haunts. The mines also claim a few, and the mountain ranches. But as soon as the first cool shaft is let loose from the distant wind caches of the Sierras, the orientals hasten to Los Angeles.

"BETWEEN DEVIL AND —."

MOVE SLOWLY BEFORE PRODS.

UNIONITE ATTORNEYS WAIT ON PROSECUTOR.

Inquiry About Habeas Corpus Proceedings for Men in Jail on Charges of Picketing, Who Have Been Confined for Longer Periods Than Their Sentences Would Be.

To determine if possible how the prosecution stood on the question of releasing the labor-union pickets from the East Side jail because they have already been in confinement while waiting for trial, a longer time than that to which they would be sentenced, unionite attorneys called at the office of the city prosecutor yesterday afternoon and spoke of habeas corpus proceedings.

The answer was made very plain: "Try us and find out."

About four days before The Times building was dynamited, counsel for unionites confined in the City Jail held a conference with Mr. Reeve and asked that he consider the families of the men, when release is asked.

Just what Mr. Reeve would have done if the attorneys had filed the motion to liberate the unionites without bail was not told and before the unionites had time to find out, The Times Building was blown up and any suggestion that the men be liberated was, Mr. Reeve declared, very properly not made.

The unionite attorneys now expect to file the habeas corpus proceedings for the liberation of J. J. Williams and, if this is decided favorably in the Superior Court, it is said they will immediately start similar proceedings for the rest of the unionites in jail, basing the petition on the fact that some of the men have already been in jail longer than they would have been sentenced.

If the proceedings are denied, the unionites may as well settle down to a long wait for in the present circumstances, neither side will say that a picket could be tried in less than three days and it is said to be doubtful if they could be tried in that time with the probable difficulty which is expected in getting a jury.

The unionite attorneys see their position. They see readily that if the first case is decided against them and the habeas corpus proceedings result against them, the unionites will see the frailness of the foundations on which their hopes of doing something in Los Angeles are built.

As many unionites have expressed their dissatisfaction here by departing, and the men in jail are grumbling and becoming dissatisfied. The situation is critical. Consequently the unionite attorneys are proceeding as slowly as they can without feeling the sharp prods of disgruntled men thrust at them.

The Wild West and Far East will be in Los Angeles next Monday and Tuesday, at Washington street and Vermont avenue.

Visions of the existence in Visalia of the dreaded Black Hand society floated before the eyes of the officers yesterday when the complaint was made to the police by Camile Merino, an Italian merchant, that an attempt had been made in the previous night to fire his house and that no less than five heaps of rubbish had been soaked with oil and placed against the sides of the building.

Luckily for the occupants of the house, as the attempt was made shortly after midnight, the number of the rubbish heaps defeated the purpose of the fire-bugs and the bright lights occasioned by the fires woke the inmates of the house and the flames in the bundles of rubbish were easily extinguished.

Merino owns several charcoal pits near this city and several weeks ago these pits were burst open and their contents allowed to burn. Merino asserts that these fires were the handiwork of two of his Mexican employees, Joe Mogun and Mike Angelus, and warrants have been issued for their arrest.

Democrats Rally.

LEMON COVE, Oct. 13.—The local campaign was opened here last night with a rally at which the Democratic candidates briefly addressed the voters. Those who spoke included Thomas H. Blair, candidate for Assessor; Milton M. Dale, candidate for Clerk; Henry Newman, candidate for Treasurer; J. W. Fewel, candidate for Tax Collector; A. E. Brooks, candidate for Coroner, and George Birkenhauer the candidate for Sheriff. Tonight a rally is to be held at Orosi.

TRACK AROUSES IRE.

Southern Pacific Shows That It Has a Right in Pomona and Official Objections Stop.

POMONA, Oct. 12.—Considerable ire was aroused here yesterday among citizens when the Southern Pacific started to lay another side track across Garey avenue between First and Bertie streets. So strong were the protests that City Attorney Joos and Street Superintendent Lewery served notice on the company to stop work. The company contended that it had a franchise covering a period of twenty-five years permitting the work. Upon investigation this was found to be correct, therefore the mandatory order was rescinded and the work is progressing.

Postmaster Walter M. Avis reports that the postal receipts for this year to the end of September show a gain of thirty-five per cent. This is another indication of the continued growth of the city.

The first meeting for this year of the Parent Teachers Association was held yesterday afternoon at the Tenth street Kindergarten. Mrs. M. E. Dennis presided and Rev. L. D. Van Arnam led the devotional exercises.

Miss Grace Mishler spoke from the standpoint of the teacher and Mrs. M. C. Kennedy from the parent's standpoint.

The funeral of W. H. Markham was held at Tedd's chapel yesterday, Rev. Paul McReynolds officiating. Mr. Markham was for a long time a mail carrier here and the pallbearers were members of the postoffice force.

At the first meeting of the music and art section of the Ebell Club held at the home of Mrs. Justin E. Patterson, yesterday afternoon, Mrs. F. D. Crank spoke on current events. Mrs. F. Davis read a paper on "What America Has Done in Music" and Mrs. C. D. Baker read another paper on "American Sculpture." Musical selections were rendered by Miss Stella Washburn, Mrs. Charles Mayo and Miss Baker.

CURED IN FIVE DAYS

Hydrocele, Varicocele, Hernia

No Detention From Occupation, Family or Home

H. J. TILLOTSON, M. D. Copyrighted.

NO SEVERE OPERATIONS. MANY CASES PERMANENTLY CURED IN ONE TREATMENT. MOST TIME-SAVING, MOST NATURAL, MOST SAFE, A RADICAL AND PERMANENT CURE. I GIVE MY WORD AND WILL CITE YOU TO OTHER MEDICAL AUTHORITIES THAT THIS IS A FACT. I AM CERTAINLY PREPARED TO CURE BY EXPERIENCE AND EQUIPMENT, WHICH ARE THE KEYSTONES TO SUCCESS. I HAVE THE BEST EQUIPPED MEDICAL OFFICE ON THE COAST. I WILL GIVE $500 TO ANY CHARITY AS GUARANTEE THAT EVERY STATEMENT IN THIS ANNOUNCEMENT IS TRUE.

I invite you to come to my office. I will explain to you my treatment for Varicocele, Hydrocele, Hernia, Nervous Debility, Blood Poison, Piles, Fistula, Bladder, Kidney, Prostatic and all Men's Diseases, and give you FREE, a physical examination; if necessary, a microscopical and chemical analysis of secretions, to determine pathological and bacteriological conditions. Every person should take advantage of this opportunity to learn their true condition. A permanent cure is what you want.

VARICOCELE—HYDROCELE

Impair vitality. I daily demonstrate that Varicocele and Hydrocele can be cured, in nearly all cases, by one treatment, in such a satisfactory way that the vital parts are greatly and strengthened, and, the impeding subsided, a healthy circulation is rapidly re-established, instead of the depressing conditions. I guarantee you a cure to stay cured or refund the money.

HERNIA (RUPTURE)

Disregard of existing hernia may cost many lives. The smallest hernia are the most dangerous to life because of the increased liability to strangulation. I cure rupture in selected cases with perfect safety and entail no suffering, and do not detain you from occupation, under guarantee. Many cases cured to stay cured in one treatment.

KIDNEY, BLADDER AND PROSTATIC DISEASES

With these diseases you may have more complications than are presented by any other diseased organs. By my searching illumination of the bladder I determine accurately the disease and by microscopical examination and cystoscope I make doubly sure the condition of the kidneys, thus laying foundations for scientific treatment.

NERVOUS DEBILITY

Disease, where the mental forces are impaired. Spinal, where the spinal centers are involved. Vital, where the sympathetic nervous system and forces that govern the organs are deranged by reflex effects of disease. I treat these conditions and all weakness induced by nervous complications and excesses and put you on the right track to health, restoring the conditions essential to your future life and happiness.

SPECIFIC BLOOD POISON

Scientific treatment only should be used in combating this loathsome disease. I cure Blood Poison by Nucleo-Arsenyl Specific. I introduce it into the blood, which it rapidly penetrates, neutralizing and expelling poison from the system. New blood thus formed supplies and rebuilds the tissues in such a way that the patient recovers his normal state of health, strength and soundness.

WRITTEN GUARANTEE—Dr. Tillotson's written guarantee means a cure, or no pay for services. I guarantee to cure Syphilis, Gonorrhoea or refund every dollar you have paid me for my services. My services cost you nothing unless I cure you. Tuberculosis, Hydrocele, Hernia, Piles, Fistula, Blood Poison, or any disease I guarantee to cure. My terms are reasonable and no more than you are able and willing to pay for benefits received.

READ MY BOOK, "Diseases of Men—Cause and Cure—Effect—Consequence—Strong." It contains information every young man, husband and father should have regarding himself. Book Sent Free to those who, in my opinion, will be benefited by its perusal. Call or write before treating for disease or disorders.

STANDING FOR "PROFESSIONAL FREEDOM" IN LAW.

OPPOSE LEGISLATION TO HELP ALLOPATHIC SCHOOL.

"Medical Fuedalism," the "Doctors' Trust" and "Professional Trades Unionism" were cheerfully condemned by the Southern California Homeopathic Medical Society, yesterday morning, in resolutions passed at one of the final sessions of the twentieth annual meetings, which adjourned yesterday afternoon, at the Westminister Hotel.

The resolutions were drafted to oppose the Owen bill, pending before Congress, which provides for a National Department of Health, with a Secretary in the Cabinet.

This bill was prepared at the instigation of the American Medical Association, composed of allopath physicians, and the homeopaths, in their resolutions, declare that it has always been the policy of the allopaths to ignore and exterminate all other systems of practice in order to force its particular treatment upon the public.

They declare that they are not opposed to any just law for the regulation of food and drug products, or any measure necessary for the public sanitation, but that they are opposed to any State or Federal law which interferes with the absolute independence of physician and citizen, or which will prevent the establishment of any college or hospital with the liberty of teaching or employing any system consistent with the choice and belief of any man.

They want for medicine the same right of freedom as men have in religion or politics, and when it comes to professional services for the government or the State, they want the eligibility and efficiency of competent physicians and surgeons recognized, regardless whether those physicians or surgeons are members of the allopathic school.

A copy of these resolutions are to be sent to every member of both Houses of th Congress as well as to all members of the legislature of California. The resolutions follow:

Whereas, the dominant or allopathic school of medicine, through its minority rule, failed in the last Congress to secure legislation favorable to its own advancement, largely because it was obnoxious to all other schools of practice, and,

Whereas, the legislative act known as the "Owen Bill," introduced at the last session of Congress, represented and was endorsed only by the allopathic school of practice, and,

Whereas, all other recognized systems of practice have long since obtained by experience, that whenever said dominant school is permitted by law or self-made Health Board regulations to exercise authority, its policy has been, as far as possible, to ignore and exterminate the minority schools and by compulsory means force its particular practice and treatment upon the profession and public.

Therefore be it resolved, that the Southern California Homeopathic Medical Society, in its Twentieth Annual Session, October 12 and 13, 1910, and representing over two hundred registered physicians, is not opposed to just and equitable laws to regulate food and drug products, or necessary sanitation, but we are unalterably opposed to federal or state compulsory laws except such legislation be so prepared and passed as to preserve the absolute liberty and independence of the physician and citizen, and also the legally established college and hospital, to teach, use or employ the system of treatment most consistent with their choice and belief, the same as kindred individual rights and privileges of all citizens are now guaranteed with respect to politics and religion, and also to recognize the eligibility of equally edicient physicians and surgeons though not identified with the allopathic school to federal and state appointments where the services of the profession are required.

Resolved, that the secretary be instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to the president and each of the senators and representatives in Congress, and also to members of the California State Legislature.

The following new members were yesterday received: Drs. Arthur D. Sinclair, Alice G. Anderson, Los Angeles; S. M. Jennings, Patton; Frederick W. Parish, Riverside; S. E. Sanger, Monrovia; John A. Riley and Edwin Wayte Patton.

Among those presenting interesting papers yesterday were Drs. Harland T. Kefr, B. E. Fulmer, Francis B. Kellogg, Jos. H. Kirkpatrick, R. A. Campbell, F. S. Barnard and Florella S. Eattes, all of Los Angeles. The members enjoyed a banquet at the Westminster last evening and afterward witnessed "The Substitute" at the Burbank.

Railroad World.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, it is reported from Washington, is beginning to receive in an informal way a number of complaints from railway employees against the so-called Hours-of-Labor law, which was approved by President Roosevelt, March 4, 1907, and which has been in effect since March 4, 1908. The act regulates the hours which railway employees engaged in interstate commerce may be required to work in any one day. It is stated that some of those who object to the operation of the law are employees who, under the provisions, are prevented from doing extra work—thereby losing extra pay—on days when they have already done a good day's work. The principle of the law, however, is defended by members of the Interstate Commerce Commission, who declare that it would not be in the interest of the safety of the traveling public if men were allowed to work longer hours than those prescribed for interstate commerce railway employees.

The Santa Fe Railroad has 800 men at work in its car repair shops at Topeka, and one of the papers of that city says the company would put 200 more men at work could it get them. Among other work the Santa Fe is removing all of the old wooden underframes from the oil tank cars over the system and replacing them with steel underframes. There are 900 oil tanks cars under this process. This means a general increase of business in several departments in the shops. The blacksmith shop, the machine shop and the carpenter shop all come in under this repair work and their force of men are kept busy. This is but one of the special assignments this fall and winter. The Santa Fe is converting a big per cent. of its passenger and freight engines into oil burners.
